NEW SCHOOL PLAN TO COST
$35000 MORE

The accompanying sketch on this page of the beautiful new high school designed for this district threatens to cost between $35/40,000, over the planned budget, according to information reported to the board by the architect, R. W. Siddall of Victoria.

In presenting his report on the plans so far, Mr. Siddall suggested several changes to bring down this surplus cost figure, all of which may be necessary but would detract somewhat from the building's overall use and beauty. After considerable discussion of ways and means to overcome this problem, Mr. Siddall recommended the board adopt the plan as is without any cutbacks at present. He stated he would do a detailed cost analysis and come up with the final firm figure before any suggested changes were decided upon. He said everything possible would be done to try and fit the present plan into the existing financial resources and promised to have more detail in hand for the next meeting.

According to Mr. Siddall school costs in the Victoria area have risen as much as 10% in the last year. It was reported that it is hoped that the new building can be sufficiently advanced to enable it to be put out for contract in April.

NIGHT OUT
by Bea Hamilton

A delightful outing is to attend the Symphony concerts in the Sidney Sanscha Hall as a few of us Islanders did on Friday night, January 15th. We left on the 6 p.m. ferry and had supper at the Sidney Hotel then we went to the concert.

We returned on the 11.30 ferry and were home by midnight or soon after. The programme was well worth listening to, with Handel's Concerto, Mendelssohn's works and compositions by the guest-conductor, Mich-

FULFORD NEWS

by Bea Hamilton

The engagement of Lynn (Marilyn Francene) Akerman was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Akerman last week. Lynn, is the third daughter in the family and she is engaged to Dennis Andrews, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Andrews of Port Arthur, Ont. The happy couple are being married shortly to fit in with Mr. Andrew's holidays. They will make their home in Port Arthur on returning from the honeymoon.

Still with the Akerman family news, their 2nd daughter, Roberta at Ocean Falls was in the danger zone at Caro Marion Mountain where the snow slide occurred. Roberta had to be evacuated with the several hundreds of other residents. She thoughtfully phoned her parents at 7 a.m. on the morning of the disaster in that area.

She stayed in the Ocean Falls Hotel during the crisis and is currently staying with friends. Roberta is employed in the office of the Hudson's Bay Co.

Well, might as well go on with the Akerman news. Mrs. Akerman had her Aunt and cousin visiting them, Mrs. Morton Reed and her son Donald, from Virginia, U.S. Also staying for three nights was Molly's sister, Mrs. Les Bryan of Vancouver. Other guests were Max Allard of Ocean Falls, and Ron Pappenburger.

There's more news of romance in the air - Anne Hollings, (Sylvia Anne), eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollings, was quietly married at the West Vancouver United Church on December 30th, 1964, to Richard (Dick) Royal, of Ganges. The Rev. Oliver officiated. This happy couple ple honeymooned in Honolulu before returning to Salt Spring Island to live. Salt Spring will be called the Island of Romance if this keeps up.

The Fulford Hall Annual meeting, and a discussion on the Centennial project are on the agenda at the Fulford Hall this evening, 8 p.m. Thursday, January 21st.

St. Mary's Guild meet today at the home of Mrs. L. Mollett at 2.30 p.m. Thursday, January 21st.

GOOD WORK BY

by Bea Hamilton

Several people have expressed appreciation of the Island Amateur Radio stations, and the messages which have been relayed to relations and friends on V.I. and other places especially during difficult weather conditions.

Mrs. C. Lee tells us about a recent surprise resulting through local Radio station communications. It happened something like this: Mr. Doug Dane, one of our veteran Radio HAMS, was listening in on the Amateur 75 Metre band at his Amateur Radio Station, VE 7 PH when he heard a Victoria Station talking to VE 5 WC Mobile 7. Wilder VE 5 indicated it was a Sask. Amateur Station and that the Mobile 7, was permitted to operate a Mobile rig from his car in 7. This was not unusual. However, he was asking the other Station if he knew where Fulford Harbour was? "I lined my transmitter to his frequency and broke in. "Doug told Gladys Lee, "then I told them I was located at Fulford and could give local information."

The voice on the wavelength informed Doug that his name was Bill Carr from Cleeves, Sask. and that he was anxious to know how to get to Fulford Harbour as he wanted to visit old friends of his, whom he had not seen for 40 years. Bill Carr was driving by Clover Point at the time all this was taking place. It seemed Mr. Carr had homesteaded in Cleeves Sask, near a Mr. and Mrs. Bert Townsend, and he wanted to contact them.

He was all excited and delighted when Doug was able to tell him that the Townsends were close neighbours and friends. Doug got him to stand by while he phoned the news to Mrs. Townsend. To make a long story short, it ended with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carr visiting the Townsends on the following Tuesday, meeting the Cliff Lee family (Gladys Lee nee Townsend) and, Gladys declares that Bill Carr hasn't changed a mite in all these years.

Bill could see the young Gladys in her teenage daughter Sharon, so it was all a wonderful reunion of old friends. Bill Carr is a veteran of the 2nd World War, and being an ardent Amateur Radio fan, he and Doug Dane are anxious to meet as they would have much in common, both being veterans and HAMS!

Mr. Dane says this is one of the pleasures of the Amateur Radio-"to reunite old friends is a service the Amateur Radio operator enjoys "he declares, and adds that "Amateur Radio Stations have networks across Canada and in the United States and are only too glad to accept messages -"

Mr. Dane went on to say that they are glad to maintain communications in any (Cont'd to P. 5 Col. 3)

EDITORIAL

ON THE PRESENT STATUS OF PARENTHOOD

A recent opinion of leading psychologists that modern parents tend to abdicate their responsibility as parents and appear to be afraid to fulfill their role in guiding their offspring in the way they should go seems to have some real validity.

Last week, as reported elsewhere in this issue, the School Board reportedly issued a ban on the use of the Rec. Centre by students of the local high school at lunch time. This was apparently done in response to an objection or objections raised by "some parents" who felt this was "bad". Little or nothing could be learned as to the specific basis for such an opinion or for the action itself. Subsequently the so-called ban was apparently rescinded.

The students themselves were understandably confused and this scribe not less so, as it seems such an action lessens respect of young people for parents and adults in general, to say nothing of violating some important democratic principles.

Contrary to a large body of opinion, young people do not automatically owe respect to their parents. It must be earned like anything else worthwhile.

In the first place we do not believe the school board would allow themselves to be used as a tool of parents, who will not or cannot, it seems, issue their own restrictions on their children. It seems to us only sensible that any parent, who feels it is not in the best interest of their child that he should frequent the Rec Centre at noon, should tell the child so in no uncertain terms and provide the means to make it stick.

One can speculate on the rationale behind the opinion that a short period of healthy recreation in a well run and supervised game after lunch could possibly seem as undesirable. We as adults and parents, are often sincerely worried about the leisure time activities of young people. And not without cause since to ban such recreation in a recess period from studies is to suggest to these young people that it might be preferable for them to simply roam around town in their hot rods.

Also we feel strongly that if any parent has evidence that any group activity of the young people is wrong, they should have the courage to stand up and say so out loud.

We can hardly blame teachers and school boards for objecting strongly about the trend forcing them to assume more and more responsibility for "bringing up children".

Finally young people have a right to expect and get a reasonable explanation of such action. We consider it important that the youngster has some training and guidance in the development of his judgment and his ability to make intelligent decisions for himself. In such cases we deny him this right and make a mockery out of our educational objectives.

The local Lions Club report a tremendous response to their call for indications of interest from prospective tenants of their planned new housing units on Salt Spring Island. So much so that they now are experiencing a problem they hardly expected.....numbers of requests from prospective tenants for assurance regarding accommodation. The following letter from Mr. Eric Faure explains the problem fully and so we are pleased to feature it here.

Ed.

Dear Editor - "Will you kindly allow me a few inches of your space to address a few words to the Elderly people of Salt Spring Island.

As you are aware, our Local Lions Club is in the process of drawing plans for a Low Rental Housing project for Elderly people. Some weeks ago, we circulated application forms for the purpose of establishing to our own satisfaction, and to the satisfaction of the proper Government authorities once and for all, the fact that the NEED for such a project actually exists.

The response from the Community has surprised ALL of us. If there was any doubt in the mind of any Lion as to the need for this project, the tremendous response from all over the Gulf Islands has completely dissipated such doubt.

But the tremendous response on the part of elderly folk has in itself created a problem. Many of these people, who filled in our questionnaire are now wondering, what is being done about their applications. Individual Lions are being approached with the query - "Can I count on securing tenancy of one of the units in your Pioneer Village?" Obviously we cannot give an honest affirmative reply to such enquiries. May I use this space to urge the applicants to be patient. We (the Lions Club) are going as fast as we can. But to set up a Project of this magnitude, takes a lot of planning and careful preparation. Undue haste and shoddy preparation could result in a lot of heartache and difficulty in the future. Our society, which is in the process of being incorporated has appointed Mr. James White of Nanaimo to be the Architect for the Project. Mr. White was in charge of construction of the Courtenay Kiwanis Village which is regarded as one of the outstanding projects of its kind in B.C. Site plans are now in the course of preparation. One of the finest building sites on the whole Island has been made available to us. This property which is located on the Lower-Ganges Road, immediately next to the home of Dr. Jansch is considered by Government Authorities to be unsurpassed in the Gulf Islands for a project such as ours.

As soon as actual construction commences, a committee will be set up to draw up Rules for Admittance and Tenancy. This Committee will then have to analyse all applications in the light of those rules. Theirs will undoubtedly be one of the hardest and most difficult tasks to be performed by any committee in connection with the whole plan. Obviously their task will become almost impossible, if they are subject to individual pressure by individual prospective tenants. So may I in all sincerity, ask all those Pioneers, who have helped us, by signing the preliminary applications, to bear with us. We can and must make no promises to anyone. To make prior commitments to one, would obviously be unfair to others. All we can promise is that we (The Lions of Salt Spring Island) will under God's help try to do the right thing."

(Signed) - Eric Faure, President, pro-tem, Lions Gulf Island Pioneer Village Society.

Dear Sir - "May I be permitted to use the medium of your paper to bring up a matter that I feel is becoming increasingly urgent; the matter of depletion of our sea food on and around Saltspring Island.

During the last week a Commercial boat with small barges has been stripping the beach of oysters at Burgoyne Bay. This is the third beach to be stripped of oysters in this area, and the only remaining beach left with a substantial quantity of oysters.

Under the present legislation the Commercial fisherman is within his rights to transfer oysters from an open beach to an oyster lease providing they do not sell them for a time period of two weeks. However, they are not the only people responsible for the rapid depletion of our oyster beds.

Last April, I watched a family of five loading their private boat from Seattle with a ton or more oysters in 100 pound sacks, to me this is strictly plunder.

The abundance of sea food has been one of Saltspring's greatest treasures and a great tourist attraction.

The loss of it will become a hardship in many ways, especially to the many elderly people who have for years driven down to Burgoyne Bay or some other beach to pick up a bucket of oysters, not only is it a pleasant outing, but also an assistance in the food budget for those with a low income, and to the tourists a novelty and a delight.

Believe me, it is later than you think, the time is very near when you will be able to tell your children of the (good old days) when you could walk down to the beach and pick up two pails of oysters in ten minutes, and they won't believe you.

This whole issue is no one's fault but ours, and until we ask or demand the Provincial Department of Fisheries to pass new legislative laws to conserve and protect the sea food in this area, this insidious depletion of our sea food will continue."

(Signed) R. Dayment

FULFORD BOYS DEMONSTRATE PROWESS IN FLOOR HOCKEY

In the first official game of floor hockey, which is played on roller skates, between Ganges and Fulford was played last Saturday night at the Fulford Hall with Fulford coming out on top by a score of 11 to 4.

Morry Akerman and Bob Moulton of Fulford took the scoring honors with 4 goals apiece. Ken Kyler and Don Akerman added to this total with 2 and 3 goals respectively.

The Ganges Team apparently was out classed in the play but Larry Ginn came up with 2 goals and Norm Stevens and Dale Empey each getting one apiece.

Seventeen penalties were handed out by Cpl. Rhodes, Referee, 11 going to Fulford and 6 to Ganges.

Bob Akerman coaches the Fulford lads and Don Lawley is the Ganges Coach.

Three stars were picked as in the NHL and they were Danny Akerman, N. Stevens, and David Roland.

Some fishermen have caught spring salmon this past few weeks, but when Fred Morris and party took off for the fishing grounds a week ago, they were 2-time losers.

They not only missed the fish, they lost their prop' outside the harbour. Fred reports a couple of hours tough rowing against the tide to get back to the dock.

PEARL BAGS ANOTHER COUGAR

Last week the Akerman's received a call from loggers around Cowichan Lake for assistance in capturing a cougar that had been the object of several hunting attempts.

Ted Akerman responded to the call accompanied by the now famous cougar hound, Pearl. The hunt was conducted on snow shoes as the snow is still about 3' deep in this area.

It didn't take Pearl long to tree the cougar which was shot by an American hunter who took his 7-1/2' prize home with him for a hunting trophy.

ST. MARK'S CHANCEL

GUILD

St. Mark's Chancel Guild met at the home of the President, Mrs. C. Springford on Wednesday, January 13th for a combined First Quarterly and Annual Meeting. Present were 14 members and Dr. & Mrs. R. Horsefield. Annual reports were given by the Secretary, the Treasurer and the President. In reviewing the past year the following activities were noted: the Donation Tea held at Mrs. Springford's last April, the Home Baking Stall successfully convened at the Parish Fete in July, the food and clothing sent to the Displaced family in Germany, and the purchase and production of the new red Altar frontal. Mrs. Springford warmly thanked all members and associates of the Guild for their excellent assistance in 1964. Dr. Horsefield was asked to take the chair for the election of officers for the new term. The President Mrs. C. Springford, the Vice-President Mrs. B. Acland, the Secretary, Mrs. L. Nicholson and the Treasurer, Mrs. J. Sturdy, were all returned by acclamation. The new committee consists of: Mrs. G. Shove, Mrs. F. I. Atkins, Miss F. Aitkens, Mrs. D. Seward and Mrs. Dorothy Atkins. The most outstanding Guild project for 1965 will be the publication of the new booklet of the Story of St. Mark's Church, which was the first Anglican one to be built on Salt Spring and it still remains the Parish Church. This work will be written by John Rhodes Sturdy and will depict the history of St. Mark's from its inception to present day. This is being done in honour of the 75th anniversary of the Church and as a memorial to the late Dr. McAllister. The Third Annual Donation Tea, the proceeds to go again this year to the Primate's World Relief Fund (Cont'd. to top of Col. 4)

Men and Machines are rapidly changing the face of the landscape at Swartz Bay in preparation for the new Ferry Terminal Complex planned for at that point.

Needless to say to Salt Spring Islanders the change is being accompanied by considerable inconvenience and a sea of oozy sticky mud. One visitor to the Island on board the ferry the other night spent the travel time to Fulford scrubbing a high grade pair of suede shoes with whatever came to hand to see if he could give them back their original surface.

The above pictures were taken through the windshield as we disembarked up the ramp on our latest trip over that way

REC. CENTRE REPORTED BANNED TO STUDENTS

A reported ban on the use of the Rec. Centre by high school students at lunch time was denied Tuesday by Mr. Geo. Heinekey, Chairman of the Education Committee of the local school board.

Mr. Heinekey stated the board had been approached by "one or two" parents who were unhappy about the use of the Rec. Centre by students at lunch time. The matter had been discussed by members of the board and they had instructed Mr. Evans, Principal, to endeavour to restrict use of the centre by students at this time. No reasons were given to the students for this decision.

Mr. Heinekey reported to Driftwood that, on second thought, the board felt that a ban on the centre was not warranted and that parental responsibility in this matter was being pushed on the board.

Miss H. Dean has returned from a fortnight visit with her niece, Mrs. Bryan Renwick of Vancouver. She then went to Victoria to see her old friend, Mrs. Violet Lang. While there, Miss Dean was among the many friends who attended a Memorial Service commemorating the life of service of Miss Muriel Harman who was among those recently killed in Congo uprisings. Miss Harman had visited Salt Spring in years past.

Lt. Gordon Bradley of Shearwater, N.S. is visiting his parents Dr. and Mrs. R.W. Bradley, Baker Rd.

FERNWOOD NEWS

by Doris DeLong
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Winter and family have moved back to Fernwood having bought the Cameron home which they lived in before moving to Ganges. Fernwood residents are delighted to have Dave, Donna and the children back home to the "banana belt".

NORTHEAST NEIGHBOURS STILL BUSY

The North End Neighbours shipped another eighteen cartons of used clothing and among it, 15 baby layettes, to the Unitarian Services Committee work group in Victoria. These will soon be on their way overseas where they are so desperately needed.

This shipment included many warm knitted childrens cardigans and pullovers and heel-less stockings made by our dedicated knitters. Anyone who would like to help by knitting please get in touch with Mrs. E. Adams, 537-5568 or Mrs. Doris DeLong, 537-2933. Heavy wool for pullovers is now supplied from headquarters. All donations of used clothing of any kind, old drapes, blankets, flannel sheets or anything that can be made up into warm quilts for the little ones is welcome. Also Ivory or Sunlight soap, large safety pins or towels for the layettes.

The sincere thanks of the North End Neighbours group goes out to all Salt Spring Islanders who by their generous donations of time and parcels has made this humanitarian work possible.

A very special thank-you goes to Mrs. E. Adams and Mrs. S.A. Thompson
