RAIN IS HEAVY AGAIN

It rained in September. Rain commenced on the night of September 1 and continued almost all the month.

At Ganges the figure of 4.58 inches is above average and higher than any September for the past five years, according to Dominion Weather Observer H.J. Carlin.

Temperature reached a peak of 80 deg. on the 7th and a low of 45 deg. on the 28th. The peak was higher than recent averages for the month, although not up to the level of September 1967, when the mercury reached 86 deg.

Following table shows the comparison with other years:

BEEF ON A SPIT ON SUNDAY AT FULFORD CENTRE

Brown Camps have nothing to beef about this week.

Sunday is the big day when the Fulford centre will present Beef on a Spit. Residents, instructors and guests will be entertained to a novel meal when the volunteer cooks will roast a steer on a spit.

The event commences at 3 p.m. and is planned to continue through the day.

TRADING COMPANY TAKES ON NEW SHAPE

It has changed. Trading Company would never change. Many of the staff were sure of it. Many customers were sure of it. Many tourists went into rhapsodies over the old fashioned sliding ladders and shelves.

Never again! The ladders are gone. The high shelves are gone. The dark fastnesses are gone. Salt

Legion Pays Tribute

* * * Posthumous Award Made

Rare occasion on which the Legion Meritorious Service Medal was presented posthumously took place in Ganges on Monday evening. President of the Royal Canadian Legion in British Columbia, Rev. H.E. Harris made the presentation to Mrs. F. W. Kirkham, whose husband died before the award could be made.

The citation was read out before the meeting of the Salt Spring Island branch and the Ladies' Auxilliary, by John Sturdy. Mr. Sturdy called George Dibley, of Mayne Island, to take part.

Mr. Dibley was in the same ship as the late Mr. Kirkham during the war years, in the navy.

Mr. Sturdy, a navy veteran himself, read out the service to the Legion given by the former Legionnaire.

Throughout the ceremony the personnel in the Legion Hall stood in tribute to the man whose memory they were honoring.

Mr. Harris pinned the medal on Mrs. Kirkham and presented her with the accompanying plaque.

Mr. Kirkham was the Second Legionnaire of the Salt Spring Island branch to be recommended for the highest tribute the Legion can pay its members.

Following the presentation Mr. Harris spoke of veterans' problems and benefits.

In passing, he congratulated the branch on its well maintained meeting hall.

Mrs. Kirkham accepts plaque from Rev. H.E. Harris.

Pig Contest Saturday

Weather is shaping up well for a thoroughly greasy pig contest on Saturday. Chasing the pigs in the compound at Ganges will be islanders of all ages.

It is the day of the second annual greasy pig contest.

The event is staged to raise money for the maintenance of the Centennial Park in Ganges.

Each pig chaser is armed with tickets supporting his entry. Each youngster has been selling these tickets for several weeks. Proceeds from the sale go to the park and the youngsters selling the top number of tickets are those who will ultimately chase the pig. The hunter who catches his pig keeps it.

Master of ceremonies will be Jack Webster, notable radio personality from Vancouver.

In turn each pig is sponsored by a society or business house in order to relieve the park committee of the cost.

Project was set up last year by John Stepaniuk, of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Contest will be run off on the school grounds in Ganges on Saturday afternoon. It will be carried out under the watchful eye of the SPCA.

Cavaye Will Retire

There will be at least one change in island representation on the Capital Regional District next year.

Doug Cavaye, board director from Salt Spring Island, will not seek a further term of office. Miss Joan Purchase, Pender Island, director from the Gulf Islands will serve again if the island voters approve.

Both members are the first directors to be named from the islands. They were members of the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital board when the district was dissolved in favor of the regional district. Mr. Cavaye and Miss Purchase are still serving on the hospital board.

Both trustees went into the regional district with considerable reservations. The district was brought into the region without prior consultation with the residents of the islands. The two directors were named without prior consultation.

LOOK WHO'S BACK HERE NEXT WEEK!

An old friend will be visiting the island this weekend.

The Sechelt Queen will be back on the islands run for the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Special schedules will be operated over the weekend between the islands and Tsawwassen. Holiday schedule appears elsewhere in this issue.

Mayne Recreation Program

BY ELSIE BROWN

Recreation Committee, formed recently on Mayne Island held a Pot-Luck supper and "Meet Your Neighbor" night at the hall last Wednesday evening. The large attendance heard a run-down of courses and recreation programs planned for the coming winter season.

The supper, which was provided by the Ladies of the island, was convened by Mrs. Margaret Bennett assisted by Mrs. Pearl Brau, Mrs. Val Baldwin and Mrs.

Evelyn Mussick. It was very much enjoyed by everyone and appreciated by housewives and husbands alike as a welcome change from "the same old things".

Following the supper the meeting was brought to order by Jesse Brown, president of the Mayne Island Agricultural Society, who gave a resume of the plans underway by the recreation committee. Work done on the hall by the Community Association was highly praised, which included the drilling of a new well and installation of kitchen and bathroom fixtures.

He then introduced Mrs. Fred (Margaret) Bennett, head of the Committee, who spoke on the activities planned for the winter season. These include badminton, bridge, crib, chess, drama and she asked for suggestions from the floor. Ceramics is available at Salt Spring Island and the ladies go Mondays this year instead of Thursdays.

Mrs. Ron (Joyce) Mitchell gave an outline of the work done by the Arts and Crafts group which met at the school last season. Another quilt will be made by the group this coming season and other projects will be decided on when the meetings start again. This will be on Wednesday evening at the school at 7:30. Mrs. Mitchell's art classes will begin after the New Year when both afternoon and evening sessions are planned.

Mrs. Nita Brown, Director of Adult Education for the Gulf Islands, spoke briefly on the problems involved and answered questions from the floor. We would like to take this opportunity of thanking Mrs. Brown for coming over to the island to discuss the subject of adult ed-

DOCTOR ADDRESSES LIONS

Guests at last week's regular meeting of the Lions Club of Salt Spring Island were the Zone Chairman of Lions International, Fred Saunders, of Nanaimo, and six members of the Nanaimo club.

In his address to the club, the honored guest told them that the keynote of Lionism was involvement: the good Lion involves himself in all the needs and aims of his community and of the world, and seeks to do something about them.

Other guests were Dr. E. Jarman and R.R. Anderson, Islands terminal agent for B.C. Ferries.

Dr. Jarman pleaded with the Club not to keep to a hard and fast rule against allowing the local ambulance to travel as far as Tsawwassen in emergency but to allow the doctor the discretion of sending it that far in case of real need.

"This should not arise more than two or three times a year," he said, "especially now that we have a resident surgeon in Dr. R. McCaffrey."

Mr. Anderson is manager of the local minor soccer teams, who asked for help in paying the travelling expenses of boys going to play soccer matches in the mid-Island League at or near Duncan.

The club responded with a gift of $300 and a promise to consider the matter, and the sponsorship of one of the teams, at this time next year.

Charles Buckley was initiated as a new member of the Club by the Zone Chairman, assisted by Lion Wayne Bradley, his sponsor.

The Health and Welfare Committee reported activity with two local families in need of help, and the CNIB Committee on the mailing of an appeal for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

By sending five members to this meeting, the Nanaimo Lions Club won the right to carry the Salt Spring Club's gong back with them, and plans are under way to send ten Salt Spring Lions to a meeting of the Nanaimo Club, whereby they can not only bring their own gong home, but that of the latter club also. This is one of the ways by which inter-club visits are encouraged in the world of Lions International.

When John Tisdalle, MLA, told islanders a week or so ago that he would recommend levelling of Fulford-Ganges Road south of Garner Road, he was a man of his word.

Last week crews moved in from the department of highways and the road was ripped out along the hump in order to remove entirely the higher level which provides a rollercoaster effect to high speed traffic and which has long been criticized for its effect in misleading drivers.

As a vehicle approached the top of the hill the hump blended with the main view of the road and gave the impression of a continuous strip. Thus, a car moving in the hollow was unseen by drivers coming over the brow of the hill.

Three drivers have met their death on this section of road and the present project is aimed at improving the safety of the section.

Cut of about four feet has been made and blasting had started at the beginning of the week to take out the rock in the hump.

Mr. Tisdalle spoke of the hazard when he addressed Gulf Islands Joint Council at Ganges earlier. He was replying to a question from Gavin Reynolds, president of Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Mouat, Churchill Road motored to Vernon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alan Cartwright this week for several days.

Rev. H. E. Harris, Vancouver, president of Pacific command Royal Canadian Legion was a visitor Monday of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Butler-Cole. He was accompanied by Mrs. Harris.

Recent guests staying at Harbour House were Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Plumbley, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. J. Patch, Dr. and Mrs.

UNION PRESSES FOR BARGAINING RIGHTS FOR ALL

The 13,000-member B. C. Government Employees' Union launched a campaign for collective bargaining rights at its annual convention in Prince George last week, according to W. J. Stepaniuk, of Ganges. The delegates also voted to change the name of the organization from "Association" to "Union".

Mr. Stepaniuk was the delegate from the Duncan Branch, which includes the islands.

The union voted unanimously to demand immediate talks with the provincial government on the establishment of collective bargaining. Delegates passed a resolution to "inform the government of our dissatisfaction with present bargaining procedures."

BIRDS OF A FEATHER DON'T

Don't always flock together, that is. In the forest, for instance, each pair of nesting birds selects and defends enough territory to support its family. But this defense is exerted only against members of its own species while nests of other, non-competing species might be tolerated in the same tree.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

Work has already gone ahead on levelling out the section of Fulford-Ganges Road south of Garner Road, where three fatal accidents have occurred.

The road is losing the hump which has been cited as a hazard for its effect of hiding the road surface from the oncoming driver.

Recent death of a Salt Spring Island motorcyclist brought the problem into close focus again, although the road condition was not considered the cause of that particular accident.

It is a sad reflection on the credulousness of government departments that work is rarely carried out on the highways until someone has died. We are seeing evidence of this pattern in the repairs now under way on that section of road. Several years ago islanders were involved in various fatal accidents on Patricia Bay Highway between the Swartz Bay ferry terminal and Victoria before any improvements were undertaken to that highway.

At the present time we are seeing crews busy at the danger point while other workers are preparing the road for resurfacing.

It is unfortunate that the department could not turn its attention to another dangerous hump in this road before there is a fatal accident. The road north out of Ganges, in the vicinity of St. George's Church, represents a considerable danger, although as yet none has died there. While the department is filled with zeal for level roads, they could well turn their attention to this second acute hazard.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

HISTORY

Editor, Driftwood,
Salt Spring Island has a great deal of history from the past, and a number of historic sites unknown to a number of people.

Unfortunately, many times stories develop errors through forgetfulness, or enlarged on to attract tourists.

In the October 2nd issue of "Driftwood", mention is made of organizing a group to select and preserve historic sites on Salt Spring. Also comment was made against identifying Indian Middens to the general public.

The Native Sons of British Columbia, a Lodge dating back to 1899, has both of these subjects incorporated into its aims and objects.

On February 23rd, 1957, a branch or Post was formed at Salt Spring, but did not survive owing to lack of communication with other Posts.

May I suggest men interested in renewing a Post here, give it serious consideration for the preservation of the above objectives.

Pioneer Post No. 1 in Victoria is willing to bring up an initiation degree team, and also, keep in constant touch to give aid and fellowship to a new Post formed.

Membership is open to men over 18 years of age of B.C. birth, and honorary membership to anyone who has lived three quarters of his life in B.C. (The latter membership includes all privileges except election to the three highest Chairs.)

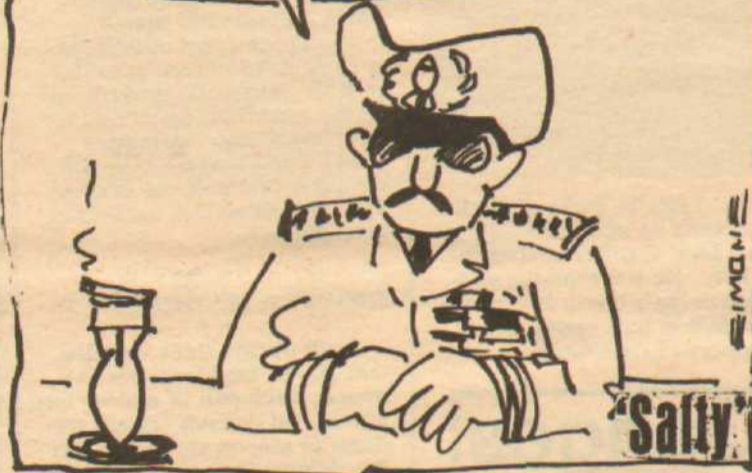

There are also Native Daughters Posts active throughout the Province.

As well as cairns and monuments, our Posts maintain museums, such as Old Craigflower School in Victoria, the Bastion in Nanaimo, Old Hastings Mill in Vancouver, and Irving House in New Westminster.

Scholarships are also sponsored by both Sons and Daughters; preservation of wildlife and pollution control actively pursued by the Sons. As well as past history, we are dedicated to passing on the best of this Province to

WELL GENERAL! THE BIG BLAST HAS COME & GONE ~ NO TIDAL WAVE & NO MAJOR EARTHQUAKE!

SO YOU WIN A FEW ~ YOU LOSE A FEW ~

the generations to come.

Our Lodges are non-political and non-sectarian.

Relative to Indian Middens - just over a year ago the Provincial body of Native Sons passed a resolution recommending the Provincial Government institute a system of volunteer wardens around communities in the Province, these interested citizens to report any new finds to the Provincial Museum before the public could find and strip them.

EVERY member of the Legislature received a copy, and many replied with interest. Most museums in the Province received a copy, and were enthusiastic, as was the Provincial body of the B.C. Historical Association. The Indian Affairs Branch at Ottawa were also included.

With this background of our efforts, may I strongly commend the formation of a Native Sons of B.C. Post on Salt Spring - perhaps also a Daughters' Post.

Post No. 1 of the Sons welcomes any enquiries, and two of us who were born on the Island are Chair Officers in Post No. 1. Garner L. Young, 1431 Richardson Street, Victoria B.C., Oct. 4, 1969.

THEY OBJECT

Editor, Driftwood,

A greasy pig contest! Oh, what swell fun for everybody but the poor, dumb, terrified greased pig! Is it too much to hope that some Salt Spring parents of youngsters who are to participate in this will quietly tell them that it is an inhumane and brutal treatment of animals? Maybe we should disband the Centennial Committee and get busy forming an SPCA.

Jack and Grace Scott, Rainbow Road, Ganges, B.C. 5 Oct. 1969.

HE OBJECTS

Editor, Driftwood,

As a member of the Galiano Golf and Country Club as well as the Galiano Island Chamber of Commerce, I must take exception to the content of the article on page 5 of DRIFTWOOD, October 2, 1969 entitled "Tisdalle Is Happy...But Nobody Else Is?"

For a number of years, the Galiano Island Chamber of Commerce has acted as liaison between inhabitants of the island, the Dept. of Highways and Mr. Tisdalle on the subject of roads. The Chamber of Commerce has made an annual recommendation to these parties suggesting sections of roads to be paved or repaired. This recommendation is supplied so that the best interest of the entire island may be served. Mr. Tisdalle personally inspected our roads this year along with members of the Highways Dept. before the paving was done. Traffic counts were made, resulting in the selection of the Golf Course road as one to be paved. Paving of this section had been recommended by the Chamber of Commerce. Of course, the Chamber's recommendations are not always followed, as is to be expected.

It is quite true that the school bus may experience difficulties at the North End of Galiano this winter, but Miss Purchase is either naive or has been misinformed when she implies that the fraction of a mile of black top provided at the golf course would have eliminated the problem at the North End. I can assure Mr. Sketch of Pender that the "pressure" applied to the Dept. of Highways and Mr. Tisdalle by the Golf Club consisted simply of supporting the recommendations of the Chamber of Commerce.

It is unfair to Mr. Tisdalle, who worked for and obtained a substantial increase in the paving allotment for Galiano this year, to be placed in this embarrassing situation by Miss Purchase. It is unfair to the Galiano Chamber of Commerce to have their efforts to promote the welfare of the whole island confused by the unrepresentative opinions of Miss Purchase. We

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. GEORGE WELLS AT ISLAND HOME

Resident at Vesuvius for the past three years, Mrs. Florence Lesley Wells passed away at her home on Wednesday, Oct. 1.

Born in St. John, New Brunswick, Mrs. Wells moved to Salt Spring Island with her husband in 1966.

She had taken a keen interest in her new community and was a member of HMS Ganges Chapter of the IODE.

Funeral was held on Friday, Oct. 3, from St. George's Anglican Church. Archdeacon R.B. Horsefield officiated.

Pall bearers were Mel Topping, Douglas Parsons, Larry Cruickshank and Al Pike. Honorary pall bearers were Sid Claibourne, Dr. O.L. Stanton, Dr. Elwood Cox, J.G. Reid, J.J. Laurence and Roy Howard.

She leaves her husband, George.

MEMBERS HEAR REPORT OF BIG PARISH FETE

The regular quarterly meeting of St. Mark's Chancel Guild was held on Wednesday, Oct. 1 at St. Mark's Hall.

The president, Mrs. G. Cunningham, welcomed Mrs. Robert Eveleigh as a new member. She thanked Mrs. F.I. Atkins for her very successful convener-ship of the Anglican Parish Fete in the summer, and all the guild members for their work and co-operation. The fete was most successful, realizing over $1,000, divided equally among the five Anglican Guilds.

Members heard with deep regret of the sudden death of Mrs. George Wells. It was decided to present a book to the library in her memory.

Arrangements are in hand for the dedication of the Holy Bible presented to St. Mark's by Louis Nicholson in memory of his wife; and also the dedication of the funeral pall woven by Mrs. O.L. Stanton in memory of Mrs. Graham Shove. The date will be announced later.

The annual meeting of the Guild will be on January 14, 1970. Mrs. Sturdy will be convener of the nominating committee.

After adjournment tea was served by Mrs. Dennis Seward.

would be interested in knowing how Miss Purchase became the spokesman for Galiano in this matter and when and where she collected her facts.

ENGLAND

September, we were told, is the quiet month in Cambridge, the hiatus separating the wide-eyed wandering tourists from the wild and woolly students. For us it has been a month of changing from the tourist into the student, a time of shaping the round North American pegs to fit in with the centuries-old Cambridge squares, of learning to say Maudlin, not Magdalene, as it ought to be, of being hailed off the street by a Bobby for bicycling the wrong way in a one-way street, of accepting the fact that a roasting chicken may arrive in one's kitchen without losing its head, of finding our way around this town. What about this: a street that within a length of a mile and a half has eight different street names (Huntington Rd., Castle St., Magdalene Bridge St., Sidney Str., St. Andrews Str., Regent Str., Hills Rd., and finally departs the town labelled the A604).

We've wandered the green meadows of the Cam, spread thick cream on hot scones in the same orchard which Rupert Brooke remembered in the trenches, examined some of the pubs and found a favorite (the "Dog and Duck", at Linton, thatched and three hundred years old, where the beer comes 'from the wood' in a cellar behind the bar) trudged the Roman road past Wandlebury's Iron Age ring fort, watched that friendly horse in the meadow behind Queens put his big hoof yet once more into the middle of someone's picnic tea, hung over the railings of all the Cam's bridges, hoping for a punter to get hung up on his pole.

Gradually, it all becomes familiar: driving on the left becomes automatic; the new 10-penny coin which is actually 2 shillings, which is in fact equal to 24 pennies - this no longer confuses us. We can call a truck a lorry, or ask for two pounds worth of petrol, without feeling foolish.

Now the summer's leaves drift downstream, King's College choristers are back from their tour, and term time approaches. Students descend upon the city from the ends of the earth. We knew they were back when, on the way home from the theatre Saturday night, a young man waving a flag threw himself in front of the van. When we stopped, he thrust his head into the car window and inquired earnestly whether we were safely insured against every conceivable emergency, but before we could answer, a crowd burst from the pub and hauled him away! New wall slogans appear. Each morning as I bicycle down Silver Street, a scrawled message asks IS THERE INTELLIGENT LIFE ON EARTH? and underneath, in another hand, the word NO. Another one assures me that APOLLO FORTIFIES THE OVER FORTIES. I've been away with some of the students, working on a dig near Wolverton, living in the van with a blonde from Berkeley who is taking the same course as I am. The other archeology students on the dig, all boys slept in colorful tents pitched a few feet from the trenches. The nights were cold, and as the sun thinned the morning fog we all drank mugs of blistering tea to thaw ourselves out. Each morning a lorry-load of prisoners was delivered to us and I must report that students work much harder than prisoners, talk less and are certainly much dirtier. We were unearthing a Roman villa. Unfortunately I trowelled too enthusiastically and strained my wrist and was forced to return to home heat and hot water, and to the endless fascination of the daily newspaper's panorama of life in Britain. Yesterday a headline: MRS. P. DRIVES HER L-TESTER INTO THE DRINK. The story followed: Mrs. Beatrice Park abandoned her driving test in mid stream yesterday. Mr. Goodrich a local councillor, said: "I was flabbergasted. I came round a bend and saw the car in the middle of the river with two people sitting on the roof as it went down." The account goes on to record that Mr. Collier, an experienced driving examiner, did manage to hang on to his brief-case and clipboard during his flight to safety.

But now it's almost October and returning with the noisy students are the ghosts of other students who walked these courts, lived in these halls... Oliver Cromwell and Milton, Newton and Bacon and Harvey. Derwin's footsteps echo in the same street where Dr. Agrell last week carried moon dust wrapped in his red pyjamas. It's easy to think of Spencer and Ben Jonson beside the Cam. And Wordsworth. Byron, Tennyson, Thackeray - they must all have arrived during these golden September days

Did they dash into the street to stop a passing coach, I wonder. Did they paint slogans on these walls? Were they as young as these students?

eral Hospital on Saturday, Oct. 4, following a long illness. Rev. John Dangerfield officiated and Goodman Funeral Home, of Ganges, was in charge of arrangements.

She previously lived in Fulford and had moved to the coast from Alberta.

She leaves her husband, John at home; three sons, Harvey and Douglas, both in Richmond and Alan, in Quebec; two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Horner of Victoria and Mrs. W.G. (Doris) Bradley, Ganges, and 11 grandchildren. Also surviving are her parents Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Moulton, of Sidney; four brothers, Stan, Joe and Art Moulton, Fulford and Lloyd, Duncan and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Dabbs, in Saskatchewan.

SATURNA

BY PAPAJOHN

Had a bad scare last week, we heard that tele Tom Davidson had got a well-earned promotion and was leaving our fair Island but tele Tom elected to let the promotion go and, is, we hope for a long time, going to stay here.

Eddie and gay George Whiting back home from a visit to their son in Tacoma. Lexie Mogg out of Lady Minto and her smile is as sweet as ever. Taimi Hindmarch had a real thrill last Friday when her daughter Lennie's picture was on the second section of the Vancouver Sun and it was a good picture of Lennie.

Norma and joyful John Barton with Helma Stuebens over from Victoria winterizing their cottage and putting on a new roof.

This part of our news is directed at our good friend and MLA jabbing John Tisdalle. EVERY CAR or any means of transfer when coming off our wharf has to follow ONE road and ONE ONLY to get to East Point. Over 80% of all traffic has to go down into Lyall Harbour and up the missing link hill, YET this year a half-mile of our yearly grant of a mile of black top was put down on a stretch of road on the eight-mile stretch towards East Point. After heated arguments we managed to get the other half mile used to PATCH up the road from the wharf to the top of the missing link hill. WHY? We will leave this argument here.

Cultus Coulee had a grand article last week. He seems to have the GIFT. Also glad to hear that Mary Backlund is going to remain on as secretary of our Joint Council. It does not matter who is head of our outer islands joint council, what does matter is the secretary who after all does most of the work and the head has to depend on, and Mary has and is still doing a good job. Three bits for that plug, Mary!

We read in the DRIFTWOOD that some Islanders are concerned about the day if and when someone finds OIL we may have a repetition of the Santa Barbara fiasco. Also what a hullabaloo about the atomic blast at Kamchitka. Had a pharmacy teacher who, when things like this came up and a hullabaloo started, was want to remark in a broad Scotch voice that our bodies are over 80% water BUT if we get too much we will drown and too much water also drowns a good drink!

It looks like our Saturnalia or Saturday the 11th will be a grand party. If you haven't got a ticket yet hurry up as they just may be limited!!!!

We extend our deepest sympathy to John Silvester and his family in their recent loss.

GRACE MOUAT ENTERTAINED ON HER BIRTHDAY

Mrs. C. W. Leggett and Miss Mary Lees entertained at a luncheon-bridge and tea in honor of Miss Grace Mouat at Harbour House on Saturday, Oct. 4.

The occasion was Miss Mouat's birthday. She wore a corsage of gardenias given to her by her father, W.M. Mouat, who attended the luncheon and tea.

Winners at bridge were Miss Frena Aitkens and Mrs. E. S. Larmour and the consolation prize went to Miss Phyllis Ross.

Those playing bridge during the afternoon were Mrs. Scott Clarke, Mrs. Edward Parsons, Mrs. Jack Catto, Miss Z. Manning, Mrs. Harold Day, Miss Frena Aitkens, Mrs. E. S. Larmour, Miss J. Overend, Miss Phyllis Ross as well as Miss Mouat and the co-hostesses, Mrs. Leggett and Miss Lees.

A gift of perfume contained in a doll dressed in pink, mauve, and gold net was presented by Miss Lees.

Tea was later served in the hotel lounge where Mrs. R. Toynbee, Sr., presided at the tea table assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Barbara Toynbee.

Those joining the party for tea were Mrs. T. W. Mouat, Miss Olive Mouat, W.M. Mouat, Miss Helen Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dawson, and Mr. E. Parsons.

HOW DO THEY TURN ROUND NOW?

Where's the turning area? Vacant lot between DRIFTWOOD and Island Pride Bakery is vacant no longer. Bob Blundell of Harbour Grocery has acquired the property from Alex McManus. He has moved the only building on the property to the front of the lot. Residents of Salt Spring Island, who have used the property to turn around at the end of the street are now left high and dry. There are few roads wide enough in Ganges to permit a car to turn around and there is no second road gazetted through the community. All traffic must follow the main street, irrespective of whether there is room to turn around. Majority of users of the property have been under the impression that the corner lot was public property. Many motorists have been indignant when a car blocked their access to the property.

FIRE PREVENTION STORY

It is Fire Prevention Week. This is the week when fires are prevented through a greater community awareness of the hazards around the home.

Fire Chief Dave Smith, of Salt Spring Island Volunteer Fire Department, has been addressing students on the matter of fire safety and the department has distributed circulars to draw the attention of householders to the hazard of fire represented by such accumulations of paper as the box of circulars in the post office lobby.

On Friday the Mayne Island Volunteer Fire Department will stage its annual dance which coincides with Fire Prevention Week.

The basic principle of the observation of such a week is in the assumption that most fires are preventable. If greater care is taken, less fires will break out.

Throughout the islands firemen work in harmony with all of North America in seeking to gain public awareness of the meaning of fire hazard and the reduction of fire dangers.

SPECIAL GUESTS AT LEGION SUPPER

The pot luck supper held September 27 at the Legion Hall was a joint effort of Royal Canadian Legion members (Branch 92) and the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Special guests at the supper were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Saunders who celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary on September 15. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders have taken an active part in Legion affairs on Salt Spring Island for many years.

Mrs. H. A. Emerslund, president of the L. A., presented Mrs. Saunders with a corsage and Mr. Saunders a boutonniere. They were also presented with two crystal cut glasses and a bottle of wine on a silver tray.

Mrs. A. Butler-Cole made the anniversary cake for the special occasion.

Forests are a renewable resource and proper planning can provide forest products, recreation and watershed protection forever.

HE SPOKE OF RESCUE IN INTERIOR

When Capt. Barrie Morris appeared on television recently Mayne Islanders were particularly interested.

Capt. Morris was interviewed on a television news program in connection with the rescue of a Catholic priest who had been lost in the interior for more than three weeks.

Rev. Emil Sasgue was found alive after 22 days in the bush following the crash of his aircraft.

Reporting on the incident was Capt. Morris, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morson.

Death of Frank Smith

BY BEA HAMILTON

The passing away of Frank Smith, age 83, on October 2, at the Little Paradise Rest Home in Victoria, severs another link with the past on Salt Spring Island and for the old timers and more recent friends who knew and liked Frank well.

In recent years, Mr. Smith had his little cottage on the Isabella Point road but illness forced him to leave to finish his last years in the Rest Home.

Frank came from Lancashire, England, where he was born and later worked in the Lancashire cotton mills. From there he went to the prairies, then came to Salt Spring Island where he took out a quarter section in the Musgrave district adjoining other quarter sections owned by his brothers, the late Arnold Smith, and Walter T. Smith, currently of Washington D.C.

At Musgrave, the Smith brothers carved their name in history as they invented such things as water-wheels to run electricity for their lights and power machines and made Rocquefort cheese that became well-known locally.

Frank Smith was the first Postmaster in that remote community, starting in 1923. The Post Office was a corner of their home and brother Walter used to bring the mail bags from Burgoyne Bay via launch after these had been delivered from the Fulford Post Office by Frank Pyatt.

In this roundabout way the people kept in touch with the world and Frank Smith's son Roy Ogden Smith of Victoria, grew up and later on spent some years in the timber business.

Frank Smith was a member of the Admiral Masonic Lodge of Ganges. He leaves, besides his son Roy, in Victoria, several nephews and nieces.

Archdeacon R.B. Horsefield officiated at the service held at Thompson and Irving Funeral Chapel, Monday Oct. 6. A number of friends from Salt Spring attended the service.

Mayne

BY ELSIE BROWN

We welcome several new couples to the island, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Lockie from Rogers Pass, now residing in the former home of the Harold Reids; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crispin, formerly of Burnaby, now at Mount Parke Estates; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Zayac from Vancouver, now on Dickson Road; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Usatch of California at Deacon's farm.

Visitors on the island and staying at Girardi's Cabins and the Jesse Browns were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reitz with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. "Scottie" Ashton all of Surrey. Maurice is well-known for his articles on gardening in newspapers and magazines and they both share editorial duties of "The Valley Circle" published by the Fraser Valley Square Dance Association. They have become avid fans of the Gulf Islands already and we look forward to a visit from them again soon. Dinner guest on Sunday also was our good friend Marion Kerby of Laura Point Rd.

TO HOSPITAL FROM GALIANO BY FISHING BOAT

On Saturday morning, Oct. 4 at 8:10, a son was born to Mrs. Roger Graham, in Lady Minto Hospital, Ganges.

Mrs. Graham was taken over to Ganges by her husband in the late hours of Friday night, on the fishing boat, "Elk Falls". This is a brother for Georgia and Roddy, all are doing well, including proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Fox, of Gossip Island and Vancouver, and Mr. and Mrs. Wally Graham, of Lillooet.

BY MARY BACKLUND

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mallett were delighted to have Mr. Mallett's sister, Mrs. Marjorie Herbert, of Alberni, over for a visit. She has just returned from a visit to England. Sister, Mrs. Joan Walker is a frequent commuter to her home nearby, and will soon take a trip to Portugal later on this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker, of Vancouver, come over nearly every weekend to their neat home on Whalers Bay. This weekend their guest was Frank Reid, also of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hale have returned to their home on the island after a pleasant trip to the Peace River country, and points away up north.

Miss Kay, and "Puck" of West Vancouver, spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Patmore, who are holidaying in their summer home on Rip Point.

Mrs. Sophia Rustad is presently in Seattle, visiting her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rice.

We are happy to hear that Mrs. Flo Bellhouse is feeling much better, and is convalescing for a little while in Vancouver before returning to her home on the island.

FULFORD
 We seem to be losing so many old friends these days that it becomes a little sad at times writing the news. Frank Smith has gone and there are many of us who thought a lot of him. Mrs. George Wells slipped away last week also, and we were talking to her at the recent Flower Show in Fulford; that's two funeral services close together and to the relations who survive we extend our sincere sympathy. Also to the Silvester family, - Bertha (Mrs. Silvester) passed away last week after a long illness, adding the third funeral so close together.
 Several Beaver Point citizens have taken a new look at their black-topped road, and come up with indignant comments that if they have TWO MILES of black-top, it's a darned short two miles! One wonders why they can't have the whole road done, it's only a matter of five to six miles, but perhaps this will come about in the near future.
 However, it wasn't my information you know, I only send in what is given me, but the information I got seems to have been a mile short, so poor little Beaver Point road has less than one mile of blacktopping which was put down last year. Don't we have fun?
 As there is a Fall Workshop gathering of the Women's Institutes in Colwood on Oct. 9, the local W.I. meeting will not be held this month but on the second Thursday in November at the home of Mrs. Gil Thornley. Some of our members are attending the Workshop.
 The R. Lees and C. Lees are visiting members of their respective families in Saskatchewan for a few weeks, staying with Miss Ronda Lee and Colleen (Mrs. Soule).
 Visiting Mrs. A. Bennett, Sr., for a few days is Mrs. M. Reddie of Fortia. Mrs. Reddie is a former Salt Spring resident of Burgoyne Valley. Happy Indian Summer to her! — B.H.

FERNWOOD
 BY JESSIE SAYER
 Mrs. A. Thompson, who is a patient in Lady Minto Hospital, was more cheerful after a surprise visit from her daughters, Mrs. Margaret Gerrits and Mrs. Jean Finken, of Kirkland, Wash.
 Mr. and Mrs. DeLong are still enjoying their holiday in the east, having phoned from Ontario to Mrs. Waterfall to report and ask how things were in Fernwood.
 The writer returned home on Tuesday from New Westminster bringing Mr. and Mrs. Lars Ostby, followed later by Mrs. J. C. Aitcheson who enjoyed the fresh air and sunshine.

CHERRY TREE INN CHANGES FACE

Dick and Hazel Randall of Langley are making favorable headway on their new home at Cherry Tree Place at Mayne Is. The site of the former Cherry Tree Inn has an entirely new face and instead of one building, there are now five homes with several others coming along in the not too distant future. His friends are looking forward to seeing his slides of Mayne. Hazel caught a fish out in the Pass the other morning so now she knows the summer people didn't get them all.

to be FRANK

Benign, warm and friendly, I sit in my favorite chair, reading my favorite book. The dog is a mile away, where he belongs, shedding his infernal feathers on the floor of the kitchen. My mind is filled with the joy of living and in a moment of insight I see myself: calm and cool as under all circumstances; benevolent, beloved, helpful and friendly; warm to my children, a guiding light to my wife and a friend to my neighbour.

Life is, indeed, beautiful. That radio is a damned nuisance and I call in a reasonable manner to one of my family to switch it off. They are already on their feet; I am not.

This quiet is beauty. I relax. An air of peace and harmony settles over me like a blanket of celestial warmth.

The dog sneaks in to share the warmth and I throw my book at him; not in a spirit of evil vengeance, but because he must learn who is master. I call to my family to pick up my book. After all, I'm resting and they are not. Besides, the dog is their pet, not mine.

Once again peace descends upon my household. Every gentle sound echoes softly through the house.

The clocks tick away sleepily. I hear the dog scratching a new flea and a fly buzzes at the window. All is quiet. All is peace.

A whisper comes from the kitchen, scarcely loud enough to penetrate my pensive mind.

"Watch it! The old grouch is

OFF TO COLLEGE

Geoffrey G. Hett, Special Counsellor for Gulf Islands and Saanich School Districts, has been granted a year's leave-of-absence, to continue his studies at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

He has been accepted in the doctoral program in Counselling Psychology and worked during the summer months in order to accelerate his studies towards his degree of Doctor of Psychology by 1970.

Openings in the doctoral program are at a premium and the choice is very selective.

During Mr. Hett's absence, his position will be filled by John C. Nuttall, B.A., M.Ed.

As well as teaching and lecturing in the United Kingdom and Canada, Mr. Nuttall has held positions in diagnostic, clinical and educational psychology. Mr. Nuttall's main area of professional interest has been in retardation and other physical and emotional handicaps in children.

GARDEN CLUB TO DRY FLOWERS

BY YELLOW THUMB

Do you know how to dry flowers?

This will be the interesting topic for our next Garden Club Meeting, at United Church, Ganges, 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 15.

Mrs. P.G. James will illustrate the process, and bring us samples of flowers already dried. There are many interesting ways in which dried flowers can be used, and this should be a particularly interesting and useful discussion, especially at this time of year when the growing season for flowers is just about coming to a close.

on a misery trip!"

There's no shortage of work in Williams Lake.

A week or so ago Tommy Carolan of Galiano went up to the stampede city for a quick trip.

It took him longer to get there than he spent in his former home town, but he learned a lot in a short time.

Meeting a Lakeman in the railway station, he fell into conversation and was given a lift to his hotel.

His volunteer chauffeur was looking for someone to work his ranch, Tommy learned.

"I meet every train to look for workers," explained the resident of the northern interior, "Do you want a job?"

COUNTRY FAIR IS SUCCESS

BY DOREEN MORRIS

The first Country Fair held on Salt Spring Island was sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, assisted by Legion members of Branch 92. It was a great success. The fair was held in the Legion Hall on Saturday, Oct. 4 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The question "What is a country fair?" was soon answered as you walked into the hall to see a dressed lamb donated by Ted Akerman waiting for someone to guess its correct weight. An autumn and country theme was carried throughout the hall and workers at the various stalls

CAR FIRE

Volunteer firemen on Salt Spring Island were called out to a car fire on Saturday when the upholstery of a car owned by N. Lister, Scott Road, was found to be burning.

Fire was extinguished with some damage to the seat cushion.

joined into the country atmosphere by wearing large farm straw hats.

Stalls were loaded with garden produce, jellies, jams, and chutneys, home made pies, breads, cakes, chickens ready to be plucked and popped into the oven, and boxes of home made candy as well as knitted articles, needle work, aprons and many other attractive miscellaneous articles were sold before closing time.

Two ladies tied in guessing the correct weight of the Salt Spring Island lamb which was 34 lbs. 4 ozs. The winners were Mrs. M. Barber and Mrs. Fred Morris each receiving half of the lamb.

Winner of the quilt made by L.A. members was Spencer Man and guessing the correct number of caramel candies in the jar was won by Mrs. M. Barber.

GO AHEAD AND BURN!

All burned up? Go ahead. The fire season came to a close on September 30 and burning permits are no longer required. Garden rubbish, household refuse or old DRIFTWOODS can now be burned in the open.

FIREMAN ALL SET FOR DANCE ON FRIDAY

BY ELSIE BROWN

Volunteer Firemen are busy making preparations for the annual ball at the Agricultural Hall, Friday evening. Some of them are looking like the cat that swallowed the canary and no doubt have some bright ideas up their sleeves to entertain the guests at their Hawaiian Style party. Fred Hansen hasn't been available for other commitments so we hope all his hard work is appreciated. Dancing is from 9 p.m. - 2 a.m. with Bill Lovatt Combo providing the music.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Next Monday is a holiday. It is the annual Thanksgiving holiday. Originally an occasion for voicing thanks for the past harvest it serves to enable workers to express their gratitude for a day off.

Result of the holiday will be general closing of commercial and banking establishments, government offices and industry.

It exerts a considerable strain on the resources of a small weekly newspaper and publication is usually late after such a holiday.

The Galiano Islander didn't want a job. He left town the next day in case a job should catch up with him.

Kids' pranks are usually annoying; sometimes costly. Many are amusing and a few are inexpensive.

Last one I came across went with a big box. The youngsters got a large cardboard box and put it in the middle of the road. Then they hid. When a car came along most drivers stopped. A few edged around it.

The driver would stop, get out of his car and walk towards the box.

As he did so the children would haul on the string they had tied to it and the box would move away from him, leaving the road clear without any help.
