Aircraft Found Atop Mount Tuam

TWO VICTIMS OF CRASH FOUND DEAD IN WRECK

On Thursday the remains of a missing aircraft were found at the top of Mount Tuam. Both occupants were dead and appeared to have been killed instantly. The plane was a Piper Comanche which had left Vancouver on May 8 apparently heading for Victoria and had not been heard from afterwards.

Plane had struck a tree at the top of a ridge near the summit of the mountain. Damaged extensively by the crash, the machine then appeared to have pocketed across a deep gulley, taking off the tops of the trees as it headed for the ground near the top of the gulley on the other side. The plane was barely recognizable after the final impact.

The pilot apparently had no warning that he was flying too low and his radio was set in readiness to call Patricia Bay Airport.

Search had been instituted a week before for the missing aircraft and a passing plane from Comox reported the sighting. Bearing of the wreck was taken from the beacon atop the mountain and Cpl. Vernon Meyer of the Ganges detachment, RCMP, went in to investigate. The police officer located the wreck in the midst of dense bush and came out to call for assistance.

On Thursday afternoon an Air-Sea Rescue helicopter flew the police officer back to the scene of the wreck. He was accompanied by representatives of the department of transport and the coroner, Col. M. F. Peiler.

The remains of the occupants and their effects were winched into the air by the rescue plane and brought to Ganges.

Coroner is holding an enquiry as is the department of transport.

The crash is the third to be claimed by the mountain. The wreckage of the Piper Comanche lies within half a mile of the wreckage of a Hamden lost to Mount Tuam by the Royal Air Force at Patricia Bay during the Second World War. A Kit-tihawk flying out of Patricia Bay by the RCAF also lies in the bush of Mount Tuam.

Cpl. Vernon Meyer, RCMP, examines the wreckage of a Piper Comanche at the top of Mount Tuam. Two American tourists lost their lives in the crash.

DEATH OF MRS. PEARL REYNOLDS

Leaves 92 Descendants

Born in the American city about the time of the first great Seattle fire, Mrs. Pearl Reynolds of Ganges, died at Lady Minto Hospital on Wednesday, May 20. She was 89 years of age.

Matriarch of one of Salt Spring Island's largest and oldest families, Mrs. Reynolds leaves 92 direct descendants.

One of the most interesting old timers on the Island, Mrs. Reynolds had a wealth of stories of the past, not just of the Island, but tales of the early days of Victoria, "when the Dominion Hotel was a straight-up-and-down, box-like building".

She knew the late Dr. Helmcken, for her grandmother worked with him as mid-wife during the birth of a number of early Victorians, among them, all the Spencer babies.

Mrs. Reynolds would recall the day when the first Trutch baby was born in their own (Reynolds) home.

Far more exciting was the birth of her own sister, Lottie for Pearl's people travelled via a prairie schooner through the Uni-

SALT SPRING CENTENNIAL

School Board Gazetted 1870

In a decade of centennials another centennial passes almost without comment. Yet this year is the official 100th birthday of Salt Spring Island School District, now part of the Gulf Islands School District. The occasion was brought to light two weeks ago when the Superintendent of Education, in Victoria, S. T. Levirs, wrote to the school district board of trustees to note the incident.

The centenary is based on the 100th anniversary of the first

RODDICK SERVES AGAIN

Gulf Islands Joint Council had their annual meeting on board the "Sechelt Queen" on Wednesday, May 20, on the evening sailing, making it quite easy for all delegates to attend.

Unanimously elected chairman for a second term was Vern Roddick, of South Pender. Secretary is Mrs. M. Backlund, of Galiano.

Under discussion was the new constitution and by-laws, and after some talk, these will be referred back to the various councils for final approval.

Some delegates brought up the high rates of private telephone lines, and this matter will be looked into.

Next meeting will be held in July.

APPRAISES ROAD AT PENDER FOR NEW ADMINISTRATION

Accompanied by Eric Smith, department of highways, MLA John Tisdalle has made a tour of Pender both North and South to appraise the roads.

The Gulf Islands are now under the aegis of the Victoria highways department and a new assessment of needs and conditions is being made by Victoria personnel.

Hospital Job This Autumn

Work will start on the extension to Lady Minto Hospital this fall.

John Tisdalle, MLA for Saanich and the Islands, told DRIFTWOOD on Tuesday that he had been in close touch with the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service and that he was confident the start would be made "As soon as the hospital board can satisfy the department that the operating costs are in line."

His information, added Mr. Tisdalle, is that everything will be cleared up and ready in two to two and-a-half months.

Long delay has been experienced by the hospital board in the construction of a 15-bed addition to the hospital. It was approved by ratepayers two years ago.

FESTIVAL TEAM

Big day for the Valcourt Pro-Hardware bowling team is Saturday. Salt Spring team plays in the provincial Festival of Sports finals at Vernon. "We'll call you if we win," promised Phil Valcourt, "and it'll be colelect if we lose."

WHEN GALIANO CAME BACK

PHOTOSTORY by Mary Backlund

Dionisio Alcala Galiano discovered Galiano Island in 1792, he liked this particular island so much, he had it named for him.

He came with the Spanish explorers, and it must have been like a bit of paradise to wander among the islands, with not a living soul anywhere for miles.

Augustino Galiano and his wife Beth, again discovered Galiano, in 1970, 178 years later. They were excited to come, as excited as the Galiano residents who made them welcome.

It happened this way. Woody Fisher with his wife, Bobbie, was at a newspaper convention in Vancouver. They met Mr. and Mrs. Galiano there. Nothing would do but they visit the Island named after them... THEIR ISLAND.

And here was this charming couple. They live in Houston, Texas, where Gus is promotion manager for the Houston Chronicle, "Biggest evening newspaper in the U.S.A.", he claims.

Gus is a descendant of the Choctaw Indians, in Missouri, and Beth is a native of Kentucky, and her delightful drawl was so refreshing.

But this Mr. and Mrs. Galiano will return to Galiano. Of this we are sure!

gazetting of the island school district.

There had been a school and a school system on Salt Spring Island before that time, explained Mr. Levirs, later, but the district was first gazetted on July 31, 1870.

This was the first introduction to the public school system as it is known today, explained the superintendent. The Public Schools Act was passed in 1872, establishing districts in the early pattern of modern administration. The island district was originally formed under the Common School Ordinance of Vancouver Island, before British Columbia was established.

On a par with the island school district were Victoria, Esquimalt, Craigflower and other historied provincial communities.

The district gazetted in 1870 is probably that which was formed, according to Flucke, in 1869 and consisting of John Booth, Abraham Copeland and Thomas Griffiths. First teacher to be named was John C. Jones, a colored man who had been teaching on the island for a time before this gazetting. Mr. Jones was also, in 1873, named among the first members of the municipal council of the Township of Salt Spring Island.

Eric Roberts mentions that John Jones was one of three brothers, all of whom were States university. John Jones was a qualified teacher with a teacher's qualifications from the University of Ohio, while brothers, William and Elias were arts graduates. His brothers left for the Cariboo gold rush.

Jones taught for about 10 years without a salary, although he was awarded $40 a month when the school board was established.

The early teacher who was engaged under "a temporary arrangement", according to F. Flucke, travelled around the island to various communities. Shortly after the provision of a school board this arrangement was curtailed and students were called on to travel to the teacher.

The next school problems arose at the south end of Salt Spring Island, when it was reported that over the three miles between Fulford and Burgoyne,

GARDEN

BY YELLOW THUMB

An excellent turnout, including several new members and guests, attended the last meeting of the Garden Club on May 20. Plans were discussed for the Garden Party to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. James, of Vesuvius Bay, on Wednesday, June 17 from 10 am to 1 pm. Members and guests who are interested in gardening are welcome.

For the benefit of new members, Mrs. James gave an illustration of pinching the tops off the new chrysanthemum plants which were supplied by the club. This should be done before May 24. The pinched-off top can then be planted beside the mother plant, and with luck, you'll have another 'mum.

We were then shown slides taken by Frank D. Artiss, of a trip which he and Mrs. Artiss took to parts of the southern United States. They left Winnipeg in February and the snow piled high on both sides of the street made us shiver. But not for long. A few slides later saw them in Arkansas, face to face with a stubborn looking mule, whom they dubbed "The Arkansas Traveller".

Soon the car was winding through the Ozark Mountains toward Louisiana. Here we passed through live oak forests, trees dripping with Spanish moss.

ted States and in Smith County, Kansas, U.S.A., her mother and family had to hide in a dug-out to escape hostile Indians. It was during such a time that Lottie first saw the light of day. One can only imagine what an anxious time that must have been under such critical conditions.

Mrs. Reynolds had left Seattle to come to Victoria, where she married the late Frank Reynolds. Mr. Reynolds was a native of Victoria and followed his trade of blacksmith there. He also farmed and at one time worked on the streetcars in the city.

The couple came to Salt Spring Island 66 years ago to live at Beaver Point. They farmed on the island and for many years Mr. Reynolds was engaged in various activities as well.

At the time of his death in 1947 he was sailing as ship's carpenter aboard the Estevan, the government light tender.

Their two eldest sons were born in Victoria and another six children were born on Salt Spring Island.

Mrs. Reynolds brought up her eight children on the island and most of them are well-known. Eddie Reynolds, Lloyd, whom we often see driving a tractor along the quiet roads, and Gavin, who runs the Beaver Point Saw Mill and is president of the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce, and there is Chester Reynolds. All are on the Island today. The four daughters are Mrs. Grace Simpson, in Port Angeles, Washington, U.S.A.; Mrs. Juanita Kaye, whose soft voice has answered Bill's Taxi for some years; Mrs. Vivian Rowe, of Victoria and Mrs. Lottie Cairns, Prince Rupert.

She leaves 29 grandchildren; 51 great-grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren.

We remember Mrs. Reynolds for her sparkling sense of humor and her bright outlook on life - she is going to be missed from the familiar Island scene.

The funeral service was held at the Ganges United Church on Friday, May 22, the Rev. M. V. Gilpin officiating and Goodman's Funeral Home in charge.

CLUB PARTY

Then along the "Azalea Trail", passing swamps alive with crocodyles sunning themselves in the bayous, and cypress trees with their massive roots spread out in water. New Orleans came to life with its old world atmosphere of French Quarter and beautifully wrought iron grill work. Then to Florida with its white beaches, orchids, birds of paradise, homes hung with masses of colorful bougainvillea, hedges of salvia and hibiscus.

Miami, with its profusion of poinsettia, royal palms lining the streets; parks alive with brightly hued parrots, and long legged flamingoes.

Then the travellers headed westward, to the majestic Grand Canyon; through cactus-lined roads, past vermilion cliffs to the massive white domes of Zion; then to the brightly colored cliffs of Bryce Canyon whose towers were caught in just the right light by Mr. Artiss' camera to bring out their unbelievable coloring of rose, vermilion and pink. It is rare that a photographer catches the right lighting to bring out the fantastic coloring of these exciting cliffs.

Then to Salt Lake City and the Mormon Temple, past rows of flowering shrubs featuring, among many exotic flowers, some peach-colored iris. Then a quick leap northward brought the wanderers back to Manitoba six weeks after leaving. But time enough for two new calves to be playing on green grass, calling forth the photographer's comment that something had been happening in Manitoba while they were away. Incidentally, the whole trip was made by car, camping each night. Mr. and Mrs. Artiss had no difficulty in finding pleasant camp sites and friendly companions wherever they decided to stop overnight.

FLIGHTS INCREASE BETWEEN ISLANDS AND TWO CITIES

Effective Monday, June 1, Victoria Flying Services will increase their schedule to three flights daily, except Sunday, between Victoria, the Gulf Islands and Vancouver.

For the time being the afternoon Sunday flight will remain unchanged.

Monday to Saturday, for Vancouver, flights will leave the Gulf Islands at 8:30 a.m., 12 noon and 4:30 p.m. Return flights depart Vancouver at 9:30 a.m., 1 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Monday to Saturday, for Victoria, flights will depart the Gulf Islands at 10 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 6 p.m. From Victoria flights leave at 8:00 a.m., 11:30 a.m., and 4 p.m.

The Sunday flight leaves the Islands for Vancouver at 4:30 p.m., and for Victoria at 6 p.m. Flight from Vancouver at 5:30 p.m., from Victoria at 4 p.m.

The schedule will remain in effect until further notice.

Passengers embarking at Ganges are advised that since the removal of the tanker barge from the government wharf, aircraft will dock at the main seaplane float, reached by going past the post office and Moutat's shed, and turning left to the ramp.

"OPEN LETTER TO MR LOFFMARK"

'tis so nice of you to have taken time out from your very busy schedule and honoured us with your presence at our LADY MINTO GULF ISLANDS HOSPITAL. I noticed that you were aware of our friends who are (of necessity) "enjoying" the convenience of their stay in the beds placed (of necessity ???) IN THE CORRIDOR! I am thankful that you were also aware of our hospital staff and the "Tender, Loving Care" which they (in their individual way) administer. My deepest thanks are given to YOU because you have SEEN the NEED and will now see that our LADY MINTO GULF ISLANDS HOSPITAL has AT LEAST---FIFTEEN MORE BEDS --- (IMMEDIATELY!--- ???)

Respectfully Yours,

"A VOTER"

to be frank

By Richards

Islander with a university degree and a private flying license went to the armed forces recruiting centre in a nearby city. The young graduate student had strong links with the air force and looked to a career there. He was informed that his studies had been in the wrong direction. The only qualification acceptable to the air force, or its helicopterized equivalent, was in engineering, said the recruiting officer. Furthermore, the chances of getting into the air force as a pilot without a Services College background were minimal, he was advised. This is an unhappy pattern. It brings into the forces what Aneurin Bevan once condemned in English suburbia, a "castrated community". The worst was yet to come. After assuring the youthful Canadian that there was no room for him in the Canadian armed forces, they advised him to seek an engagement with the United States Air Force. Seems that the recruiting pattern in the forces could do with a good overhaul.

Vern Meyer, in charge of the RCMP detachment at Ganges, has some good experience to take with him when he goes to North Vancouver in August. Last week the lanky police officer walked into the dense bush at the top of Mount Tuam armed with a compass. He made two forays before coming up against the wrecked aircraft he was looking for. He'll be the only man in the North Van detachment to go out to a car accident armed with only a compass.

Two teachers played hockey last Saturday. When the Salt Spring Island teachers showed up in force to pour concrete for the boat launching ramp, missing were Rob Dunn and Ted Harrison. According to Tom Hareus they were playing hockey, but even he admitted that they justified their absence. The two took a team for the track and field meet at the University of Victoria. They left in the early hours of the morning and brought back their team with some honours at a later hour.

When Bob Akerman complains of a cracked rib, he is not protesting that age is catching up with him. It ain't... it's youth that caught up with him.

Listening to George Heinekey reminiscing about farming. He was thinking back to the department of agriculturist who forecast the future. Day will come, said the official, when there will be no raw milk sold in B.C. How do you tell the difference between raw milk and pasteurized milk, asked the analytical farmer. It says what it is on the bottle cap, came the answer.

DEATH OF MRS. HELEN FLETCHER AT LADY MINTO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Helen Fletcher passed away in Lady Minto Hospital on May 16. She was 83 years of age.

Resident of Salt Spring Island for the past 23 years, Mrs. Fletcher was born in Essex, England. During the First World War she was nursing with the V.A.D. in England and met her husband, who was overseas with the Canadian forces.

She came to Canada in 1918. During her residence on Salt Spring Island Mrs. Fletcher was closely identified with the Social Credit League and was one of its first supporters here. For many years she had been an active member of the Anglican Church Women and in recent years of the Old Age Pensioners' Organization.

She leaves her husband, John, at home and two sons, William Duncan, San Jose, California, and Neil, Courtenay and a daughter, Agnes, Mrs. J. W. Baker, Ganges; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

GANGES

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Foulis are in Vancouver this week to attend the graduation ceremonies of their son Robert J. P. Foulis who will receive his Master's Degree in Sociology from the University of British Columbia.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dermott Crofton last week end were their son and daughter-in-law, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Patrick Crofton with their daughters Marietta, Virginia, Susanna, and Tessa from Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, West Vancouver were guests at Arbutus Court last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mout are home again after spending a week's holiday in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Friele and family, Seattle spent last week end at their summer home on Sunset Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, Vesuvius Bay were visitors last week end of their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Knight, Victoria.

CENTENNIAL COIN CONTEST

J. B. French of Fulford Harbour, proved himself a determined artist when he decided to compete in the provincial centennial coin contest.

Mr. French saw the announcement of a contest for the design of a centennial dollar and promptly decided to enter. He figured out carefully what the coin might be and then drew it carefully.

This first effort was returned to him for its failure to comply with the regulations. It was not drawn on the requisite paper or to the required size.

A lesser man might have given up, but not Mr. French. He drew his design to the required pattern and then got down to it and drew another.

He now has two entries in the contest.

Five segments of the coin are set out to depict five prominent activities of British Columbia, logging, fishing, tourism, hunting and mining. In the centre of the coin is a Union Jack surmounting the provincial flag. This was the first proposal.

Second pattern is less extensive and depicts Douglas, Mackenzie and Bennett around the provincial coat of arms.

Both drawings include the words, "British Columbia, Canada, 1871-1971".

"It isn't so much the money prize," explained the island artist, "It's the honor."

GIANT AUCTION

On Saturday, May 23, a huge crowd gathered in Galiano Hall for the Gigantic Auction, proceeds of which will go to Confederation Park, Centennial Project '71.

Master auctioneer Tom Carolan worked hard to sell almost one hundred articles, ranging from bicycles, tables, pictures, bales of hay, umbrellas, beds and washing machines.

Mrs. G. H. Snell and Mrs. J. Thomson and Arthur Platt, Jim Dunn, were in charge of refreshments; many people worked hard to make this night the big success it was.

More than $400 was raised. Tom's helpers were W. H. Bud Day and Mrs. M. Backlund.

Maury Lupton and Hank Knudson also helped during the evening, and then delivered articles to the buyers.

WHY ARGUE---IT'S ONLY HALF THE PICTURE!

Television is the first to come in for the Canadian national clean-up. Or perhaps it is the last. From outside the television business the ruling seems quite logical. If a Canadian enterprise, so closely linked with the Canadian home, seeks to be predominantly American, perhaps it should move and beam its message across the border.

From the outside of the industry, nauseated or stultified by the pattern and often bored to slumber by the content, the critical Canadian viewer can see no danger of deterioration.

But why stop there?

Probably the only publication printed in Canada with a 100 per cent Canadian content is Hansard. Next in line are weekly publications, both the simple production such as this and the nationally read weeklies, or periodicals from further east. These are essentially Canadian. Majority of Canadian publications carry editorial comment, opinions and reports purchased in the United States.

Proportionately, more Canadians read of "our president" than nationals of any country headed by a president.

What of school books? For every Canadian folk hero the Canadian child learns of a dozen from the United States.

We are not preaching anti-Americanism. But if one branch of government is planning to emphasize our individuality, then why not extend it?

Ottawa has sold the Canadian magazine industry to the United States. The national capital is having second thoughts about getting rid of the television industry at the same time. It is time Ottawa decided whether or not this is to be a pattern of Canadian living or merely the political scratching of a slight itch on the Canadian screen.

Galiano

BY MARY BACKLUND

Mr. and Mrs. Don Day, of Victoria, spent several days with relatives on Galiano. They brought in two beautiful mares from Alberta, and they will be kept at the Day ranch on the Island for now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ripley have arrived home to the Island following a year spent in the east; Mr. Ripley now has his discharge from the army after 20 years' service, and they will be spending lots of time here from now on. They will reside on the mainland; Mrs. Ripley is a daughter of Mrs. I. A. Murphy.

Bill Bamford spent several days at Peaceful Valley, while doing some work at the property at North Galiano, Alcalá Point.

Bernard Stallybrass spent the week end in Vancouver, where his wife, is at present in Willow Chest Centre. She is comfortable, and it is not known at this time just how long she will be there.

Mr. and Mrs. D.A. New have returned from the Historical Conference in Nanaimo.

We have word that Bruce Good is now living at Courtenay on Vancouver Island. He has bought a comfortable home, and likes it a lot. He is in his glory with all of the fishing streams nearby. Bruce and his dad, the late Lancelot Good, pioneered the beautiful property at Montague Harbour in 1945. His many friends will be pleased to hear he is doing well.

Lions wine and cheese party will be staged on Friday evening at Gulf Islands Secondary School.

The party affords guests the opportunity of sampling various types of wine.

The cheese is to clear the palate between wines, in order that there is no holdover from the previous wine.

Light and Lively

- SQUARE DANCING -

BY MARY SYLVANDER

Light and lively best describes our square-dancing last Saturday evening. The Salty Wheels square dance club played host to a large turnout of dancers from Ladner, the "Tunnel Twirlers".

Between 30 and 40 of their members came to Ganges, to join our group. Their caller, Burt Harvie, and our own caller, Bert Barber, shared the calling, and did a grand job, keeping us happily dancing without interruption until nearly midnight. Then we were served delicious refreshments, prepared by Nan Ruckle, assisted by the Refreshment Committee. The dancing was carefree and happy, and afforded the most fun we have had in a long time. The two callers, and the two groups called and danced in perfect harmony. We are grateful indeed to Burt Harvie and his Tunnel Twirlers for their visit here, and to our own caller, Bert Barber, for persuading them to come. We are invited to pay them a return visit in the fall, to which we are all looking forward.

The next square dance of the season will be given by the Salt Spring Squares on Saturday, May 30 at Fulford Hall, to the calling of guest caller, Doug Anderson. All square-dancers, members and guests are invited to join the fun.

SCHOOLS

there were 21 children, half of which were of school age and that parents were asking for a school.

The date of the formation of the school board has been questioned. After the brief announcement in a recent issue of DRIFTWOOD, W. M. Mouat, a resident of Salt Spring Island for 85 years, queried the year. He explained that the historians have recorded the first school board in 1869. Both Flucke and Roberts cite that year as the first of organized school boards here. In the provincial records the date stands at July, 1870.

There has been no official announcement of any formal recognition of the date revealed by Mr. Levirs.

STRAWBERRY TEA WHEN

STRAWBERRIES ARE RIPE

BY OLIVE MOUAT

When will the strawberries be ripe, do you suppose?

The berries will be early, because we had such a mild winter...but it's been so cool these last few weeks that the berries will be late.

I phoned someone who sells them and all she said was, "June".

Conveners for the Strawberry Shortcake Tea, to be held the last week in June or the first week in July, depending on when the strawberries are ripe, are Mrs. Frank Artiss and Miss Olive Mouat. Promising to help are Mrs. L. Summers, Mrs. S. Claibourne, Mrs. J. Paton, and Mrs. E. Parsons.

Why do we hold a Strawberry Shortcake Tea this year? Two reasons: we see all our good friends; the church foundation must be repaired and that will cost dollars and dollars and dollars!

Before all the discussion about the tea got under way, the President, Mrs. John D. Reid, opened the meeting by reading part of the purpose of the United Church Women: (a) To deepen understanding of the nature and the purpose of the Church; (b) To encourage growth in Christian knowledge, understanding, faith and experience through worship, Bible study and other means of grace; (c) To secure commitment to, to encourage study of and participation in the mission of the Church in the congregation, the community, the nation and the world; (d) To provide opportunities for fellowship.

The devout and thoughtful devotional period was based on the theme, "Love as brethren". The missionary study was divided between a summing up of the study relating to Canadians of Indian parentage and an introduction of a Christian approach to the problems of French-English relationships as found in Canada.

It was decided that the June meeting would, weather permitting, take the form of a picnic in Centennial Park, starting at 1 p.m. with a special invitation to newcomers to join the oldtimers.

The meeting closed with hymn singing led by Mrs. L. Summers and Mrs. F. Anderson, followed by the Mizpah Benediction. Refreshments were served by Miss J. Overend.

YOUR SCHOOL BOARD

QUESTION CORNER

DID YOU KNOW....

That your School Board is ready and willing to answer any questions that may be asked of it, and the questions and replies will be published in this newspaper?

DID YOU KNOW...

That if you are seeking proof of your birth, and if you went to school in your early years to schools on the Gulf Islands, the School Board Office may be able to help you. Enquiries can be made to 537-5548.

DID YOU KNOW...

That your District was formed in 1870 and will be 100 years old on July 31st, 1970.

DID YOU KNOW...

That your School District is unique in the Province in that with one or two exceptions, it offers (with an enrolment of less than 800) the following:

- Dormitory
- Kindergarten
- District Library service
- Bus Transportation
- Elementary, primary, secondary supervision
- District counselling.

MAYNE

BY ELSIE BROWN

The mystery of the missing DRIFTWOODS has now been solved. They ended up in Victoria, so we hear. Arrived this morning so postal authorities are exonerated. Lots of interesting news items, - too many events to give adequate coverage. Written accounts would be appreciated. According to statistics weeklies are more widely read than dailies.

Just about all the property owners must have been over for the long week end judging by the attendance at the Improvement District meeting held at the hall Saturday, May 16. Congratulations to Gordon Ducklow who was elected trustee!

The office was vacated by Bill Morson, active in the Improvement District for many years. The meeting was chaired by John Rainsford.

Not too well attended was the showing of the films, Columbia River Dam and Nanaimo Bath Tub Race by John Tisdalle, MLA for Saanich and the Islands assisted by his projectionist Bill Crabb. Both films were well worth seeing but it is hard to get people out during these lovely warm days, and islanders have been pretty busy with their various community affairs. A fall showing might be better patronized. A nice change from TV. The color and sound were excellent.

Glad to hear Roy Betts is making satisfactory recovery in Lions Gate Hospital in North Vancouver after a heart attack. He is expected home the end of the week. Sophie has been commuting to North Vancouver during Roy's stay in hospital. Son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Sharlene will be moving to the Rectory shortly.

Visiting Mary Kline over the long week end were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Murrell of Vancouver and nephew and his wife, Ed and Diane McFarland and family Dean and Becky of Surrey.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. von Kries and small son Carl of Seattle were over to spend the long week end at their summer home on Bayview Drive. With them were Dr. von Kries' mother, Mrs. M. von Kries and his aunt, Dr. A. von Gabian of Bavaria. They plan to spend some time visiting in the U.S. and Canada before returning to Europe. We welcome them to the Gulf Islands.

Spending a short holiday in the USA recently were the Gordon Ducklows of Mayne Inn. In charge in their absence were Ann and Bob Sauerberg. Gordon will be busy with the paint

RAILWAYMEN MEET FAR FROM RAILWAYS

A group of railway personnel met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tolan at Galiano over last week end, to relax and have a pleasant time fishing and golfing where no train ever runs.

Mr. Tolan is the legal counsel for the Burlington-Northern Railways; he and his family live in Seattle, and spend holidays and week ends at their home on Active Pass Drive.

The guests were Mel M. Scanlan, vice-president of Burlington Northern; Clarence Larsen, vice-president, and Gus Cobb, assistant vice-president, pricing, Burlington-Northern all from St. Paul, Minnesota; Larry Kaiser, assistant vice-president and regional sales manager of Seattle, and Stewart Davies, director of pricing, Burlington-Northern, Seattle.

The party was joined by Bill Cowles, Salt Lake City, Charles Gabler, Seattle; Wayne Fuller, Seattle; Martin Foster, Wenatchee; Mel Kasen, Portland; Bill Bush, Tacoma; Burt Osterman, Seattle and Erwin Rosenzweig, Longview, Washington.

This group flew in by private jet plane to Victoria airport, then by Victoria Flying services right to Tolan's beach. They dined at Galiano Lodge, and spent the rest of the time resting and enjoying their first visit to Galiano.

brush making streamers advertising our Walkathon. Joyce Mitchell has been distributing signs and Fred Hansen, bumper stickers. David Bradley and Wynn Minty, correspondence.

To add to the long list of prizes for the Fun-Walkathon June 27 there will be a Walkathon Cup presented to the person bringing in the most money. Fred and Margaret Bennett report at least 10 prize categories: First gentleman, first lady, first couple, oldest (local), oldest (off-island), first boy, 12 or under, first girl, 12 or under, youngest to finish, costume prize for 18 and up, costume for 17 or under and others.

Visiting the Bill Piggotts, Miners Bay over the week end were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Piggott with children, Derald and Shelby of Campbell River. Other recent visitors have been newlyweds, daughter and son-in-law Colleen and Willard Glover of Port Alberni.

FASHION SHOW

Fashion Show will be featured at Gulf Islands Secondary School on Thursday evening, when a variety of clothing will be displayed by the young makers.

There will also be a display of industrial arts and fine arts.

HOCKEY NIGHT ON SALT SPRING ISLAND

Hockey banquet on Saturday brought a record number of people to Fulford Hall after the announcement that everyone was welcome. The visitors were welcome, but there was not a leaf of salad to be found after the big crowd had been fed.

The banquet is the rounding out of the roller hockey season and it is the occasion of trophy presentations, when the more than 30 cups and trophies are distributed among the youthful players.

On Saturday the master of ceremonies was a graduate of the association. Terry Slingsby started out as a hockey player while he was in school here. Later he became a coach and on Saturday he took over the annual event.

Mr. Slingsby looked back over the development of roller hockey on the island as a winter sport. He reviewed the keen interest shown year after year and introduced the awards.

Guest speaker was Maurice Jones, of Ganges, former director of recreation at Powell River. Mr. Jones spoke of the need for organized recreation and the contribution to the youth of Salt

Spring Island by the roller hockey association.

There is a constant and increasing need for organized recreation, he explained. He looked to the day when there will be a hall of sufficient size at Ganges to support a Ganges hockey centre as well as at Fulford. It is up to islanders to get behind any recreation project and support it, he urged.

Every player named and every participant in hockey received a roar of approval, supported by piercing whistles during the evening.

Special award was made to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kyler and Mrs. Kit Moulton in appreciation of

TWO WRITERS

BY CULTUS COULEE

Mrs. Mary Coleman is back at Windsong, Armadale, after three weeks in California. She was at Walnut Grove, outside San Francisco, with Rosemary and her husband, Bob Watts; and made contact again with Megan, Robbie, Meredith and John. Soon she leaves for Duncan, to visit her lawyer son, Michael, his wife Barbara, and young Charles. Mary Garland Coleman and Michael Garland Coleman, belong to the Victoria branch of the Canadian Authors' Association. Michael's "Evensong" in the Spring number of The Lyric, published in Breemo Bluff, Virginia, was the second of his poems in this magazine.

Last summer, The Lyric printed "Sumphony" which won him first prize and $100, in a college contest open to all American and Canadian students.

Michael had already won four prizes in the annual Alberta Poetry contest; and third prize in the sonnet class; appearing in the same numbers as his mother, who has won honorable mentions but no money!

While at Bedwell Harbour Customs, Michael, when things were slack, began writing poetry, and it became a habit.

On Mothers' Day, on CBC's Neighbourly News, "In Praise of Brown" was read, verse Mary Coleman had written for her mother, Mrs. Harold King, Vancouver, and which had appeared in the Sidney Review. The CBC program had previously included another of Mrs. Coleman's poems.

Big doings for Christopher Coleman. Just 16, and at St. George's School, Vancouver, he spends week ends with his mother at Windsong, - when he's not off at a cricket match. With 14 St. George's boys and about 85 from V.I., Chris joins an Expo charter flight to Tokyo, then trains to Osaka; July 8-30, with five days in Korea.

Mrs. Coleman's aunt, Mrs. E.D. (Madge) Casseday, has sold Twin Trees, next door to Windsong, to the Craig Coyles of Vancouver. Mrs. Casseday is renting the home of the late A.C. (Sandy) Crawford, whose widow, Dorothy, now lives in Victoria.

Mrs. Connie Swartz back at Clakili, after a week in Vancouver. A highlight, Un Ballo in Maschera; a first, for VOA, in its tenth season; with Pauline Tinsley, England's greatest Verdi soprano, on her first visit. Ulica, superbly sung and acted by Vancouver's Audrey Glass, was the role in which Marian Anderson broke the colored sound barrier, at the Met in 1955. Feelings were so intense, that the audience cheered and stamped an ovation, before she'd sung a note.

Also a Festival of the Arts at Coquitlam Centennial Recreation Centre, with paintings by world-known Quebec artists, Suzor Cote, Riopelle, Dallaire and Pelland; and jewelry, pottery, weaving, woodcarving, by Quebec and local artists; et puis, la cuisine francaise!

Ted and Gladys Brooker, back at Hope Bay, after two months in England. They were going to a Fiddler on the Roof matinee at Her Majesty's Theatre. They had prolonged lunch to the limit, and footsore and weary, pushed on to Regent Street and sanctuary at B.C. House. In the reading room there were only two B.C. papers - DRIFTWOOD and the SIDNEY REVIEW. They fell on DRIFTWOOD with glad cries and pored over news of home.

Earlier this month Pender Island branch 239, of the Legion sponsored an evening of slides, at the Port Washington Hall. In the absence of president Alex MacKinnon, past president Dave Gardner arranged the program (Turn to Page Eight)

PENDER ISLAND TRIUMPHS

OUTER ISLANDS SPORTS DAY

BY ELSIE BROWN

Pender Island school won the Parent-Teacher cup for high average at the Sports Day meet held on Mayne last Friday at the school grounds. Galiano came second; Mayne, third and Saturna, fourth.

Lois Crocker, of Galiano, won the trophy for high scoring girl and Michael Burdett, of Pender was the trophy winner among the boys.

In charge of running the events were members of the Gulf

Islands Branch of the Canadian Legion. Besides the races for the various age groups the program included high jump and broad jump, ending with a relay race.

Mrs. Edith Imrie headed the committee of mothers who prepared the food served at noon to the school children as well as the many visitors who attended from the other islands.

Mrs. Pearl Brau was in charge of transportation. All the organizations of Mayne Island contributed towards the purchase of the refreshments which included ice cream and two lovely big cakes. Very much appreciated by the students as well as the parents.

Special guests were Mrs. J.R. Sturdy of Salt Spring Island, secretary-treasurer of the Gulf Islands School Board, and Miss Betty McArthur, primary supervisor of the school district.

Almost 100 students attended the sports meet and there were nearly as many visitors.

David Bradley, Mayne Island school teacher and his students would like to thank all those who helped make the event such a successful and enjoyable occasion.

A special thanks to the members of the Legion for their invaluable assistance.

CHURCH GROUP IS BIG LOAD FOR ISLAND WATER SERVICE

Bob Sauerberg's Water Taxi was filled to overflowing last Wednesday when some of the members of St. Mary Magdalene congregation set sail for Galiano to attend a joint meeting of the four churches, North and South Pender, Galiano and Mayne.

Prior to the meeting held at Mr. and Mrs. Donald New's summer place "Heartsease", a picnic lunch was enjoyed on the waterfront overlooking Active Pass and Mayne Island. Before leaving, the ladies of Galiano served refreshments to the visitors.

It's summer and while the sun shines the horse-shoes fly.

FORMER SALT SPRING ISLANDER

LIFE AT DUNCAN BAY

I arrived here in 1918, with a six-month-old baby. At that time, I was the only woman in camp (which was a large American Logging company). It was a railroad concern and logs were brought out on flat cars for some miles to the water, then ready to be made up into booms.

The scenery here was beautiful as our houses, which were not fully modern then, overlooked the water. Our only road then was a trail through the woods.

At that time our only means of transportation was by the company's gas boat to Campbell River, five miles away. Later on the Union Steamships "Lady Cynthia, Cowichan and Camousen" called in twice a week. By then there was a wharf for them to land. We were indeed thankful for that!

There being no stores at Duncan Bay, it meant ordering supplies from Vancouver once a month. The prices were a lot cheaper than they are today--orders ranging from $30 to $35, including freight charges.

After a few months, more women arrived but some did not stay too long. As they said, "We are used to city life, and this place is too dull for us."

In 1920, my second son was born, at Campbell River, which was only a small hospital then. As it was in the evening, I was taken over by gas-boat. Union boats only called during the day.

As the boys grew older, I took them for picnics by the water, where they enjoyed making rafts, then paddling around on them. In the summer, usually on Sundays, we went by row-boat to a sandy beach a few miles away, as it was very rocky where we lived. There, they had a good time, paddling around in shallow pools, and we trawled for salmon on the way home.

After I had been in Duncan Bay about five years, there were rumours that some day a highway would go through. This seemed like a dream to us, but nevertheless, it proved a reality.

I have never been back, but I hear the place has prospered since the early days.

During my years there, there was considerable excitement with bears roaming quite close to our houses. In fact, I had seen plenty while out picking berries. They seemed quite harmless, but only as long as one did not disturb the cubs. I had a bear cub for a few weeks and he became very tame. His mother had been shot by mistake.

We also had a visit from a cougar early one morning. He was after our dog, and as I opened the back door to let the dog in, who appeared but the cougar! Needless to say, I let out a yell, and thought I had scared him away, but a short time after, I heard a shot and the cougar was captured.

This is the end of my story at "Happy Days" at Duncan Bay.

and beguiled the ladies to provide food; and Dave Bartlett produced the travelog.

The audience worked its way from central Australia, across to New Zealand; to England and Scotland, through Europe; clung to the Matterhorn; dodged the rain in Spain, and on to Bombay. Then to B.C., snow on Garibaldi; the Cariboo, Long Beach, and rain forests on V.I., finishing with art shots of seagulls and silver beach logs touched by sunset.

Dave Bartlett, manager at Bedwell Harbour Lodge, had shown slides in six Vancouver schools, and in April, to the PTA at Port Washington.

A grandson of Squire James Bartlett of Adelaide, South Australia, Dave is a branch off the family Bartlett Pear tree, his grandfather having originated this tree.

TICK! TICK!

A DELICATE OPERATION

BY BEA HAMILTON

I have performed my first operation on a tick - that nasty little varmint that crawls up the grass blades or some such weed, and waits for you or some animal to brush by, then drops off and catches a free ride and, he hopes, a free meal.

Well, one little old tick got too fresh with my sister Mabel (Mrs. Davis) and as I came in the door, she called out, "Bea, is this a tick on my arm?"

I took a look.
"It is, but it's not ON, it's IN," I remarked.

This was interesting, for I had heard Mrs. H. G. Scott, of Pender Island, lecture on the best way to get rid of a tick. Mabel remembered too and she rushed off for some alcohol and some cottonwool.

I started to operate on that cotton-pickin' little black pest. Alcohol we dabbed on - "We are supposed to leave it on a minute or two," I said. (To get the insect good and drunk I presume?)

He was hanging on like a leech, of which he must be a kissin'-cousin.

However, Mabel made it very clear that she didn't want to leave that blood-sucker on longer than could be helped so I grabbed the black pirate and tried to turn him anti-clockwise, as prescribed.

He was clinging for dear life and "OUCH, it hurts!" grumbled Mabel.

So I got a pair of tweezers, a tick is very small, and then I took a good grip on the beastie and started twisting him like taking a cork out of a bottle. At the third twist he was still hanging on and Mabel said, "Get it out but don't break him!"

Then on the fourth wind, out he came, having given up the ghost by that time, I should think. But it was quite a tussle! Now the tick lies in a small plastic medicine bottle - I'm not sure why but probably to show the others so they will know a tick when the twain shall meet in the garden.

Don't worry - you'll know him! He has a sharp little jab that pricks, and very clinging ways. Once his hooks are in, you cannot pull, shake or knock him off. Get him on a jag and twist him anti-clockwise just as carefully as you would un-screw a cork from a vintage wine bottle. If you have trouble, call the doctor, or me! I'm now what I consider to be an expert tick-twister.

This must be tick season so mothers with small children (or big ones) better give a nightly inspection if any complain of a sudden itchy spot. It might be that cotton-pickin' tick; and he is dead serious when he lays a claim out on your anatomy, for which he has no respect; he'll dig in anywhere.

So, be on tick to catch a tick. Then tick it off with vigour. A dab o' booze to make him snooze, may save your precious figure!

FIRST WAR VETERAN DIES SUDDENLY AT GANGES HOME

Harley "Ted" Van Welter passed away suddenly at Ganges on May 18.

Resident of Salt Spring Island for the past eight years, he had previously made his home on Mayne Island for more than 20 years.

Hotel employee at Ganges, Mr. Van Welter was a fisherman for many years at Mayne Island. He was a native of Ontario.

Mr. Van Welter was a veteran of the First World War. He leaves his wife, Em, at home; a son, Leslie, in Victoria and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the church of Our Lady of Grace, Ganges on May 22.

THIRTY ENTRIES FOR MATSON CUP AT SALT SPRING

Play for the Matson Cup commenced Sunday, May 24 at the Salt Spring Island Golf and Country Club with thirty entries playing under ideal weather conditions.

Winner of the Mac Mouat (low gross) Cup was Bob Raguin and Carl Simpson won the V. Case Morris Cup (low net). The sixteen men who qualified will play for the Matson Cup with the first round to be played before or on June 1; 2nd round, June 6 and the finals June 14. The remaining 14 players will continue playing in flights.

Thursday, May 21 14 lady members of the Salt Spring Island Golf and Country Club travelled to Chemainus to play a friendly match against the ladies of Mount Benton Golf Club. The Salt Spring Island ladies lost the match but are looking forward to a return match in August when the Chemainus ladies' team will come to Salt Spring.

Launching Ramp Moving

Boat launching ramp at Ganges came a mite closer on Saturday when a group of volunteers poured cement for the roadway down to the sea.

ISLAND
GATHER

A meeting of church committee members from four Anglican churches on the Gulf Islands met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. New, at Rip Point, on Wednesday, May 20 with the new minister, Rev. O.L. Foster, in the chair.

Following a luncheon, they discussed affairs of the church, and basic expenses, and plans for the future.

From St. Mary Magdalene, Mayne Island, were Mrs. A.M. Jones, Mrs. George Slinn, Mrs. Elsie Brown, and Don Vigurs; from St. Peter's and church of the Good Shepherd, Pender, Mrs. Mildred Pert, Alec Gray; from St. Margaret of Scotland, Galiano, D.A. New, Mr. and Mrs. C. Morshead, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maier, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Platt.

Mr. Foster at present lives on Pender Island, holding regular services at all four churches. He and his wife are not strangers to Galiano; they have been spending holidays on the Island for the past ten years, and have made many friends there.

TISDALLE TO SHOW
FILMS AT PENDER

On June 5 John Tisdalle, MLA for Saanich and the Islands, will speak at Pender, where he will also show films.

Mr. Tisdalle has planned appearances on various Gulf Islands. He was at Mayne recently, but his projected visit to Salt Spring Island clashed with another activity here.

There was a strong academic air about the project when it proved that 13 of the volunteers were island teachers. Mike Byron, Phil Chiddell, Dave Chase, Peter Grain, Tom Harcus, Don Hartwig, John Korrisson, Allan Marsh, Bob McWhirter, Al Sencio, Ron Stacey, Glen Woodley, and Tom Wright were the workers. They were accompanied by Jim Stewart, of Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce, who supplied a truckload of equipment and a lot of information.

As well as teachers there were students, including Mike Stacey, Doug Stewart and Hal Wright.

The volunteers ran about 12 tons of concrete. In the absence of ready mix from any source they mixed it all by hand. Ground conditions were very poor, with a constant flow of water to wash away the wet mix.

FERNWOOD

BY JESSIE SAYER

Mrs. E. Burr returned to Fernwood after a pleasant visit to the home of her niece Mrs. O. Potter and Mr. Potter of Whitewood, Sask.

The writer accompanied son Lin and grandson, Bob, back to New Westminster to attend May Day and the Tri-services Tattoo. Although Friday was showery, the 100th May Day went off beautifully and was televised by CBC. The drills and May pole dances were performed by hundreds of children. On Saturday there was a long and colorful parade, composed of many floats, bands and marching units. There was an afternoon and evening tattoo, the latter being the most colorful under the floodlights, especially the sunset ceremony. The majority of the participants were from 12 to 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Ostby, of New Westminster, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Flostrand, of Burnaby came over to spend a few days at the Sayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Blackstock of New Westminster spent several days at their cottage on Fernwood Road.

PAVING

Paving contract on Salt Spring Island has come to an end. The contractors, Dawson Construction have left the island with their heavy equipment as Salt Spring drivers travel on a three-quarter million dollar blacktop.
