Walkathon Headed Up By Bill Arnold

Bill Arnold romped home first in the Lions Walkathon at Ganges on Saturday. Notable island athlete, Arnold made the eight-mile course in 51 minutes.

He was followed by 13-year-old Arthur Buitenwerf in second place and Jim Talman running third.

The walkathon attracted a lower entry this year.

With Ed Williams in charge of the event, it moved off to a brisk start at the Centennial Park at 1:30 p.m.

Arnold left his fellow walkers behind from the start, with a lead increasing every mile. The end of the line came in more than an hour later as the leisurely walkers made a comfortable four miles per hour.

Various walkers were in costume, with a sultan, Spaniard and a back-walker among others.

While many walkers carried a big burden of pledges, others had undertaken to back their own efforts.

Notable walker was the Cowichan entry in the David Roberts family team, Prosser. He made good time throughout the course

Three Sent To Hospital After Car Accident

Three persons were hospitalized when two cars were in a head-on collision at Fulford on Friday.

Grant Stevens, of Fulford, was driving towards Ganges in his small car when he met a Victoria car on a curve outside the Roy Lee home.

Police reported that the car driven by Terry Overholt, 3976 Wilkinson Road, Saanich, was travelling towards Fulford. It rounded a curve and crossed over the white line. The Stevens car pulled over to the grass shoulder, but the two vehicles met head-on.

Mrs. Stevens and Grant Stevens, Jr., were taken to hospital in Victoria. Mrs. Stevens suffered a broken leg and other injuries. Her son suffered lacerations and suspected internal injuries.

Grant Stevens, Sr., was cut about the face and head and was taken to Lady Minto Hospital.

Occupants of the Overholt car were less seriously hurt.

All victims are recovering. Overholt was charged with driving without due care and attention and driving without a driver's license.

WILL OWNER PLEASE STAND UP?

The Anglican rectory in Ganges is haunted -- by a pigeon.

Whenever the occupants open a window, this mis-guided but persistent fowl flies in, apparently under the impression that he lives there.

Apart from his not being house-trained, his habit of cooing loudly in his sleep, and taking an occasional noisy flight around the bedroom in the small hours in not appreciated.

He's a handsome bird, slate above, speckled breast, and white under parts.

Will the real owner please stand up, and come and round up his pe(s)t?

GAS EXPLODES

Fred Wallace, of Vancouver, was rushed to hospital on Saturday when he was badly burned as a result of a gasoline fire.

Mr. Wallace was burning brush at his summer cottage at Vesuvius Bay on Saturday afternoon. His fire burned low and he threw gasoline on it to help the flames, police reported.

The gasoline exploded, drenching him with burning fuel.

Neighbours came to his assistance and he was rushed to Lady Minto Hospital. Shortly afterwards he was transferred to Victoria, where he was later reported in "Fair condition."

PUBLIC HEARING APRIL 15

New Zoning By-law Ready

Proposed zoning by-law for the Outer Islands provides for 16 categories of land use among the islands.

There are three rural zones one forest, one multiple family dwellings, three commercial, four industrial and four water zones.

Completely new is the forest zone, whereby the land held for forest resources comes within the range of the zoning by-law immediately it ceases to be held for tree growing.

The rural zones cover a more extensive range of farm use as well as providing for more detailed residential uses than did the original by-law. First zoning by-law proposed for the Outer Islands was rejected by Municipal Affairs Minister Dan Campbell in December. The minister noted that it had been under fire during the election period and that he was not prepared to countersign it until it had more general support.

Specifications which appeared in the original by-law have been cut out: Regional Director J.N. Campbell, of Saturna, who expressed sharp criticism of the detailed specifications contained in the earlier presentation, has seen them disappear.

The Outer Islands by-law is similar to that already approved for Salt Spring Island, but it omits many of the detailed specifications and it provides for a greater freedom in the use of the land.

The new by-law does not define a guest cottage and it does not specify the dimensions of a wharf or float.

Both definitions in the earlier by-law were attacked by Mr. Campbell as meaningless.

Property owners of the Outer Islands will attend a public hearing at Port Washington on Saturday, April 15 to consider the new by-law.

Records Are Not Broken Here

March brought no record rainfall to Salt Spring Island. This year saw three-quarters of an inch of March rain less than last year.

The 1972 figure reached 6.42 inches, reports Observer H. J. Carlin. Last year's March rainfall was 7.18 inches.

The month ushered in, according to Mr. Carlin, by a snow storm, followed by rain and milder weather.

In many areas of British Columbia precipitation and temperature records were broken, he reported, but not here.

Maximum temperature of 57 degrees compared with a peak of 54 degrees in March last year.

Precipitation for both years was above average, noted the Dominion weather observer.

March came in like a lion and went out like a lion, with snow at both ends. The month ended stormy and windy.

POLE BURNS IN UNUSUAL ISLAND FIRE

Unusual fire brought out Salt Spring Island volunteer fire department last week when a B.C. Telephone Co. telephone pole caught fire.

The pole was a recent innovation, soaked in creosote.

It burned well until the firemen arrived.

Only indication of the cause was a spent Roman Candle at its base.

Chimney fire at Fernwood brought out the firemen, but no damage was caused.

Third fire last week as a grass fire at a Rainbow Road property. Fire was set to burn back grass, explained Fire Chief Dave Smith. The fire broke out of control.

BUS SERVICE MOOTED

New bus to Fulford is under discussion.

The Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce has proposed the service by Bill's Taxi

Only problem facing the chamber is the preferences of islanders concerned.

Residents of Salt Spring Island who are interested in such a service have been asked to write to the chamber outlining their views.

Proposed is a round-trip service between Fulford and Ganges and between Vesuvius and Ganges.

Islanders are asked to state their preference for days of the week and hours of the day.

They are also invited to suggest a satisfactory stop-over period in Ganges to enable patrons to shop.

Potential users may write their views and send them to Bus Committee, Box 100, Ganges.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kearns, West Vancouver and Mr. and Mrs. M. Howe, Winnipeg, Manitoba, spent Easter week end with the E. K. Andrews, Ganges Heights.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY SETS PLANS

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Lady Minto Hospital was held on Monday, March 27. There were 32 present and the auxiliary warmly welcomed 5 new members.

Mrs. Scott Clark, who has been a longtime member of the auxiliary, and a very active worker, was made a life member by a unanimous vote. All present were sorry to hear of Mrs. Clark's recent illness.

The Thrift Shop should be opening in a few weeks, members were told. Space has been leased for the shop in the lower level of Moutat's

DEATH OF J. D. CLARK

John Daniel Clark, aged 72, passed away March 24, in the Lady Minto Hospital, at Ganges.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. on Friday, March 31. Interment followed in Ganges Cemetery when Archdeacon R. B. Horsefield officiated.

Goodman's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements

Store. The Thrift Shop committee are looking forward to a most successful year now that satisfactory accommodation has been found.

Last week several members of the auxiliary spent an interesting day at St. Mary's Priory.

Mrs. G. Layard reported on their visit and gave the auxiliary some interesting points on what will be required by the volunteers when the new extended care unit opens in May.

Harold Hoffman, hospital administrator, gave some of the members a tour of the new wing.

Next meeting will be on Monday, April 24, at 2 p.m.

Program On Indian People

The cultural, artistic and social heritage of North American Indians is one rich in accomplishment. Only in recent years, however, have these abilities and skills been recognized and then only as they were at the point of disappearing.

Because of the lack of knowledge of the province's first citizens, the Provincial Museum has endeavored to present a program guided by Indian staff members about little known aspects of Indian life.

On April 14, at 8 p.m. in Mahon Hall, Continuing Education, and Community Arts will co-sponsor an interesting evening designed to give an insight into the Potlatch custom and Ceremonial dances of the Kwakiutl and Salish people.

L. Souliere, a member of the Ojibway tribe of Ontario will be co-ordinating the program with Miss J. Laing of the Tsussie Reserve near Crofton. Mrs. Emma Hunt will also be participating and a fascinating evening is promised.

This will be free to Community Arts members and a nominal charge of 75¢ will be made to others.

DEATH OF MRS. DORA DORA SAWFORD AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Edith Dora Sawford died in Lady Minto Hospital on Wednesday, March 22, after a long illness.

She leaves her husband, Philip, at home, Cranberry Road; a son, John Philip, Orangeville Ont.; a daughter, Mrs. J. (Evelyn) Stinson, Terrace, B.C. two brothers, Albert Selby, of Don Mills, Ont. and Len Selby of Thornton, Ont.

Funeral services were observed on Monday afternoon, March 27, in St. George's Anglican Church. Archdeacon R.B. Horsefield officiated and cremation followed. Goodman Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Donations are invited to the Cancer Foundation, 857 Caldonia St., Victoria.

Packed red cells obtained from whole blood given to the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service by volunteer donors are used as an effective treatment for anaemia.

to be frank

By Richards

The Legion-Auxiliary took a beating on Saturday and it had nothing to do with them. They had already explained that they could not repeat their performances of previous years and offer refreshments at the Lions Walkathon. Lack of refreshments was in no way the fault of the hard-working auxiliary.

When a government department insisted that a tax return be filed indicating no tax liability, I endorsed it. "This appears a gross waste of paper and effort." Next mail brought it back I hadn't signed it!

Well known Ganges merchant read last week's advice in Driftwood to sound off with complaints against Local suppliers. On Saturday he left for a holiday in California. He claims it was a coincidence!

I take off my hat to two Salt Spring Islanders. They are Harry and Mary Williamson. When majority of those taking part in Alcoholics Anonymous are anonymous, themselves, the island couple are happy to share their problems. "We are alcoholics," said Mrs. Williamson, "and we want to help others who have the same drinking problems." She explained that the terms means anyone who faces a drinking problem. The Williamsons want to launch an effective Alcoholics Anonymous on Salt Spring Island if there are enough islanders to take part. They are planning a meeting on April 15 and a Vancouver speaker. But until they have some idea of how many Salt

Spring Island residents who might be interested, they are hesitating. Any reader who is interested in the service performed by Alcoholics Anonymous is invited to call the Vesuvius couple at 537-2322. It takes a lot of guts to take this stand in public and they deserve every support.

Robin Roper is alive and well and happy to be so. He was torn from his family last week when a report in Driftwood indentified him as Robin Johnson. Which he ain't! When he is not being confused in a news report, Robin is a member of the board of Central Hall Committee.

There was no holding Luke Harrison on Monday. He had found the Condor Inn on the ferry.

Advertising still pays. The Chinese Smorgasbord at Harbour House was booked up before the week had started.

Aspiring Ganges golfer holed in one on Thursday afternoon. Young Alec McManus shot his golf ball across the street and holed the glass door of Harbour Grocery.

Walkathons start at 1 p.m. On Saturday the Lions Walkathon started at 1:30 because some fool got the times mixed up. The fool was me!

Visitor to Ganges over the holiday was telling me that a business acquaintance was in Vancouver for a quick working trip. His contact in Vancouver suggested that they discuss their business over lunch. He agreed. His associate asked whether he had visited a topless restaurant. He had not. They went to one and he admitted the waitresses were not in the buff. They all wore shoes. After lunch they resumed their business discussions.

DEER WEIGHS IN AT 500 POUNDS

There'll always be a deer at Ganges. To Miss Betty Galt it is a very dear deer. It is almost a Scottish stag. Almost, because it is cast in iron.

The stag was cast about 150 years ago in Scotland. It is very similar in size and build to a Salt Spring Island deer, although the hindquarters are lighter, explains Miss Galt.

It now stands on her lawn all 500 pounds of it.

The quarter-ton cast-iron stag has a history. Many years ago her grandfather Cameron left his home in the Scottish Highlands for Canada. He was followed by the iron stag to Goderich, in Ontario. There it graced his grounds until his death.

Later the casting was moved to her father's home in Goderich. Subsequently it stood outside the hospital in that Ontario community.

When Miss Galt's parents came west to Vancouver Island, the Scottish stag was not far behind. He sailed from Lake Huron, through the canal and St. Lawrence, along the coast to Panama and up the west coast to Ogden Point.

He is a well-travelled stag.

On Monday the heavy stag came out from Victoria and took its new resting place on the Galt lawn.

It was a fitting place. He was shipped out as a lawn ornament when he left Ontario. He could not be listed as statuary because he is hollow, and an ornament travels at a cheaper rate. Miss Galt stroked the smooth cast iron animal. "I just can't believe he's here," she said in wonderment.

IT WAS HER LIFE

There is no large family group to pay their last tribute to Eleanor Harraway. Mr. Harraway had no children and her family is dispersed.

Yet, the elderly Ganges woman will be missed by hundreds. Not for anything she possessed, but for her constant eagerness to help.

Mrs. Harraway lived for service to others. She had nursed the sick and she had helped the injured, but her life in latter years centered around first aid to any who needed it.

On Monday she died quietly and alone, to be mourned by many.

Firemen, ferry crews, ambulance drivers: they will all remember her work.

But the real beneficiary will never know her. He is the injured man whose life is saved by her instruction. For years to come there will be someone in the crowd in many places who can come to the rescue of the injured to ease his suffering. And it was Eleanor Hilda Harraway who passed on the message of aid to the injured.

What better epitaph could she have earned?

THEY DID WELL

Unexpectedly large crowds of visitors in the brilliance of Easter exerted a heavy burden on the ferry service to the islands.

The service bore up admirably under the load.

While islanders around the Gulf reflect on the number of visitors here, they should reflect on the traffic pattern which was handled very efficiently from the first holiday sailing to Monday's return to normalcy.

If the ferry authority can keep it up, the year looks bright.

Letters To The Editor

FORUM ON WILLS

Editor, Driftwood,
I have read with great interest your report of the recent forum at the Mahon Hall, Ganges.

One point as reported seems to need correction. It relates to the statement that upon the death of an executor concerned with the estate of a deceased person, the heir of the that executor assumes the duties of the executor.

This is not so. The duties are performed by the executor's executor presuming that the executor has a valid will and the executor designated is alive and competent.

If no valid will exists or the executor designated is either incompetent or has predeceased, then the legal representative, usually the administrator or administratrix, will be appointed by the Court.

One further point requires correction. It is the statement that all wills require to be probated. This is not so, since in very modest estates and particularly where there is a surviving joint tenant of real property, bank accounts, etc. the obtaining of probate is not essential.

Neither of these points subtracts from the merit of bringing to the fore the wisdom of consulting a competent adviser concerning a will.

FOOD PRICES

Editor, Driftwood,
Please allow me to reply to your Editorial in Thursday Driftwood, March 30, 1972. "you spend a dime"
No matter these days how much you spend, you come home with very little for your money. You say some islanders shop at our local stores some go out of town. I think if I were a store keeper, I would want to know, what I was doing wrong, and why were these people going elsewhere. It is my opinion that most of our local store keepers don't care a damn for their customers. They know you have to buy food for the home along with other things you might require.

Oh yes they will gladly put come-on-suckers-sales. Of course they don't call it that!

Yes, they will have a big smile for you when you walk in the door. Believe it or not they will allow you to walk all over the place to collect what you need. They also believe in giving old age pensioners lots of exercise. The sugar will be on alley 1 this week - next week on alley 4. The salmon on alley 2 will be on alley 1. He will wait at the check-out, put your goodies in a bag, with a smile for you if you spent over $5. Mind, I said your goodies in a bag, not your dollars, they go in his till.

Yes, by all means, if you are not satisfied tell your store keeper.

He will only laugh at you and will add a few more cents to eggs, coffee, tea, or whatever you need most. But don't give in: holler at him all the more, and after you tell him you will no longer deal at his store, you will become the biggest rat he ever saw.

I complained to the manager of a store about some paint one time. After keeping me waiting one month for a reply, he was very polite to tell me, that his man was away on holiday and as he was an expert on paint would be glad to look after my requirements on his return from holiday. Of course, I never got the paint nor have I dealt at that store since.

I have asked some men why they do not complain.

One said to me he did not worry about high prices, he was paying cheap rent, so could afford to pay a little for his food.

Another could not care less, if it's too high he walks out, by so doing helping Mr. storekeeper to keep his high prices.

We, the public are to blame. We demand the best meat, no bone; no fat. If you want hamburger you can get it at 78¢ per lb. Ask why it is so high. He will tell you he is only putting in half the amount of bread that he used to.

Our good mothers and good wives want everything wrapped in fancy paper and put in a nice box if you please!

Yes, madam, we are pleased to serve you.

Yes, Mr. Editor, we are glad we have our local store but I fail to see where this gives Mr. Storekeeper the right to rob me.

They will go to church on Sunday and rob me on Monday. You see, Mr. Storekeeper believes in putting on the cents, the dollars will roll in themselves.

In closing, Mr. Editor, I see no hope for the peoples of our home town, to get together and demand control on prices, food etc. as well as wages.

Now, Sir, after taking this time out to write this letter, I am wondering if you will be bold enough to print it, or will you make the excuse, that you cannot print it as you might be held for libel.

S. Ingles, R. R. 2, Ganges,
April 2, 1972.

ARE YOU SUFFERING FROM ZONITIS?

Much has been written about regional zoning, and it looks as though more will be heard on the subject as time goes by.

But, I wonder if there are individuals or groups of people who have actually suffered hardships or loss as a result of being zoned, or perhaps are suffering only anguish at the moment because zoning is zooming in on them.

If so, I would be pleased to hear from such readers. Also, it would be interesting to hear from readers whose living standards have improved under zoning regulations.

CHOIR TO SING AT GANGES

Salt Spring Islanders will have the opportunity of hearing some fine choral music on Sunday, April 30, when the Choir of St. Catherine's Anglican Church, Capilano, North Vancouver, visits St. George's at Ganges.

They will sing at the 11 a.m. service, which will include a number of anthems. The choir will be under the direction of their organist and choirmaster, Peter Chappell.

Lovers of good church choral music will make a point of hearing this excellent choir.

The preacher on this occasion will be the Rev. Angus Cameron of Lundavra, Anglican chaplain at Royal Jubilee and Queen Victoria hospitals, whose ministry is supported by Salt Spring island parish.

FULFORD

BY BEA HAMILTON

Starting off with sunshine, Easter Sunday was perfect if a little chilly, windwise.

Church bells rang out early at St. Mary's and St. Paul's, Holy Communion at one, Holy Mass at the other, and lots of cars lined up, which meant a good congregation at each place of worship.

St. Mary's beat St. Paul's by half an hour as their service started at 8:30 A.M., the Roman Catholics, at 9:00 A.M.

So we all turned out with the flowers, the birds and the sunshine, with over 40 attending St. Mary's. It was a delight to see so many of the young people and children taking part; Mrs. Abbott was back at the organ and Easter hymns rang out.

And as it was great to see Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mossop back. They are visiting Salt Spring friends over the week-end and will be returning to Hope after Easter.

The Red Cross Drive will be starting this month of April says Mrs. R.H. Lee, who handles the drive for the South End, March is usually the Red Cross month but through a mix-up, things got shunted ahead. So don't be surprised to see Mrs. Lee on your door-step. This is a very necessary and worthy cause. It is a well known fact that many people wouldn't be alive today without the help from this organization.

Many thanks to all who helped with the recent W.I. drive to sell tickets for the Easter Hamper and a special thank you to the owners of Ben's Lucky Dollar Store who allowed the W. I. members to sell tickets in a corner of their busy store.

On Thursday, March 30, the winning tickets were drawn by Ben Greenhaugh Sr; and the lucky winner, George Lampier, who, bless his heart, had bought a whole book of tickets! Here's hoping he enjoyed his Easter dinner!

Second prize was a picture and this was won by Mrs. Daisy Gear. Congratulations to both winners and again, thank you, one and all, for taking a chance. Sorry you all couldn't win.

Mr. and Mrs. Freethy of Victoria, and a friend, Mr. Mitchell, and Mrs. Freethy's mother, all spent the day on the Island before returning to Victoria via the Vesuvius-Crofton ferry.

ELECTION PICTURE

FIRST HAT IS N.D.P. SHERWOOD'S

Eric Sherwood is the first man to throw his hat into the provincial election ring.. It is a New Democrat hat and Sherwood is the NDP nomination for the provincial seat of Saanich and the Islands.

North Saanich businessman, he operates a television and radio service, Sherwood is a veteran of two air forces. He was a wireless-operator-air gunner in the Royal Air Force and an electronics technician with the RCAF.

Sherwood doesn't take his service lightly. Not only has he served in two himself, but he has three sons currently engaged with the RCAF.

The new New Democratic candidate started out in England. He grew up in the Yorkshire centre of Sheffield, where he graduated from high school to enter the steel mills. For four years he worked with steel until he enlisted with the RAF.

He found himself a long way from the Sheffield steel mills. His first posting as wireless operator-air gunner took him to Nairobi, in Kenya. When the Second World War broke out, he was moved to Sudan, where he served for two years in the Abyssinian campaign.

Defective vision gounded him and he spent the next two years in Egypt as radio man.

When he was posted home he married in Scotland and served with the RAF through the war and on until 1954, when he transferred from the RAF to the RCAF.

In his new service he went to Germany until 1958, subsequently serving 10 years in Canada at Downsview, Labrador, Vancouver and Winnipeg.

In 1959 he became a Canadian citizen.

He came out as a warrant officer and moved west again to settle on Vancouver Island, in 1967.

Even as a civilian, he couldn't escape from the air force. For the next four years he instructed the Sidney Air Cadet Squadron in Electronics.

He is a Legionnaire, president of a Saanich rate-payers' association and active in an agriculture and recreation group.

For kicks he plays the piano, and tennis and "most sports when I have time."

This week, Mr. Sherwood is looking askance at agriculture in the province. Describing the government's handling of farming and agriculture as "appalling neglect" he is advocating a New Democrat policy of a land bank to hold farm land for farming.

He is calling for lifting of education costs from the land and the elimination of succession duties, from farms passing within the family and retained for farming purposes.

On Saturday evening Mr. Sherwood will visit Salt Spring Island to attend a pot-luck supper in the United Church Hall.

He will be accompanied by Islands MP Tommy Douglas and other members of the party.

The evening's reception is open to the public.

End of season for Mayne Island Cribbage Club was celebrated in style by a sumptuous banquet held in Mayne Inn on Tuesday, March 28, with 34 members and guests present.

Ladies' high average was Eileen Forster and Ladies low average, D. Campkin; Gentlemen's high average was recorded by D. Griffith, and low score, F. Adams.

Perfect attendance was chalked up by R. Aitken and E. Piggott. Perfect scorers were, ladies, E. Forster and gentlemen, Scott Leach. High average score for the season went to E. Forster and Low average to H. Adams. Two hidden number prizes were won by Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Burgess. H. Hampshire donated a basket of fruit and a ladies prize.

Two donations of $40 were given to the Agricultural Association and the

GIFT TAX HAS LAW GROUP WORRIED OVER FUTURE

Canadian Bar Association in Vancouver is worried over the new B. C. Gift Tax.

The association has warned residents of the province that the act provides for very sweeping powers over gifts made in and out of the province.

Among the implications of the new act which the association lists are the taxability of jointly-owned property and the liability on baby bonuses.

If a husband-and-wife team purchase a jointly tenanted house under a mortgage agreement, reports the association, each mortgage payment must be reported, even though it may not be taxable. Half of it represents a gift to wife from her husband. Penalty for failure to report is a $10 per day fine.

Each child allowance' cheque paid by a mother into a trust fund for her children is a taxable gift, warns the B. C. branch of the association.

Even Christmas and birth day gifts must be reported to the government, concludes the lawyers' protest.

COUNTING DEER

Herbert Spalding is back at Little Bay from Summerland, and son, David and his wife Isabel

With David he was engaged in a preliminary count of white tails, from Rock Creek to Christina Lake.

Mule deer must be counted later. They are still in the high timber country and won't be down to the spring range where the young grass is, until the snow begins to melt.

BAPTIZES HIS GREAT-GRANDSONS

Easter Sunday was a notable Easter for Archdeacon G. H. Holmes, former Anglican rector of Salt Spring Island officiated on Sunday at the baptism of two great-grandsons. Four great-grandparents took part.

Members of the Holmes family from all parts of British Columbia came to take part in the Easter Christening ceremonies and to enjoy a family reunion.

On Sunday afternoon the family gathered in St. George's Church when Jamie Douglas Thornton and Warren Scott Smith were christened.

Jamie is the son of Maureen and Douglas Thornton, of Port Alberni. He was born December 10, 1970. Warren's parents are Elaine and Roy Smith, of Victoria. His birthday was June 10, 1971.

Also present at the ceremony were great-grandmother

Mrs. Holmes and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nevers, Chilliwack.

Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holmes, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornton, Chilliwack and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, of Ucluelet were also present.

Others present were Mrs. A. H. Holmes, of Richmond; Beth Chatwin, Mrs. Joyce Parsons, David Parsons, of Ganges; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Chan and family, of Kamloops; Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Toombs and Laura Toombs, of Duncan; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dargatz and Mrs. T. Thornton of Sardis; Sheryl Busswood of Port Alberni and Mr. and Mrs. Colin Nicholson and family of Victoria.

A family reception followed at the home of Archdeacon and Mrs. Holmes.

DANNY SCOONES SCORES AGAIN

BY CULTUS COULEE

Danny Scoones, student at UVIC, achieved one of his top chess triumphs when he captured the Saanich Spring Open Tournament last week.

The former island student scored five victories and one draw in the six-round event, at the Gordon Head Association Hall.

Danny, 18, reads PRAVDA and translates the Russian Chess news for the Victoria Club.

"He reads Russian books and translates them" says Olive Auchterlonie, "The Glade", of her grandson. "He can read it as quick as a wink. He's always studying."

Glen and Paula Bedry of Vancouver spent a few days with Paula's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Waterfall.

Lin Sayer, of New Westminster, spent the Easter weekend at the home of his parents while Bo Sayer and friend, Dale Nicol arrived after the holiday rush.

Mrs. A. Thompson entertained grandchildren and nieces from Duncan to keep her happy and well occupied over Easter.

Gary Robinson who taught Danny chess during wet winter lunch hours at Pender School, won't be too surprised when hearing of his ex-pupil's accomplishments.

TWICE WAS TOO MUCH FOR VISITOR RUNNING OFF ROAD

Twice was too much when a visiting Victoria motorist left the road at Fulford, near the A. D. Dane property.

Vehicle driven by Sidney James Boyte, of 3131 Qu'Appelle St. Victoria, ran off the road about 3 a.m. on Friday, March 31.

The car was brought back to the road with the help of another man. The incident had damaged the front end.

Boyte continued his journey towards Ganges. As the car crossed the Fulford Bridge the car ran into a power pole.

Boyte was charged with driving without due care and attention.

No one was injured.

GULF ISLANDS BRANCH

LEGION SAYS VETERANS ONLY

BY LEGIONNAIRE

There was a good turnout of members at the regular meeting of Gulf Islands Branch 84 of the Royal Canadian Legion at Saturna on Wednesday last week.

At our last meeting members had protested the withdrawal of the decal on membership cards giving a members years of service with the Legion.

The branch decided to sell the grave in Royal Oak Cemetery, given to us in memory of our late comrade, Dr. B.J. Hallows, formerly of Saturna Island, by his daughter.

There was some tentative discussion about the reformation of our Ladies' Auxiliary, defunct for twelve years.

Some discussion also took place on members' views on the ultimate fate of the Legion. We all realize that, unless we have another global war, which God forbid, the numbers available for membership must steadily decrease, even when one includes ex-members of the P.F. and Militia, who are now available as potential members. At present, there is considerable discussion as to whether we should open our ranks to the non-veteran.

We also wish to call to the attention of all our membership that we shall again be providing the judges and other officials for the annual sports meeting of the local elementary schools.

We trust that all members who can turn out will do so, and help the children to have a good and interesting time.

Much of the rest of the meeting was devoted to more or less social affairs. The president stepped down from the chair, and asked Art Ralph, as our senior, and only charter, member, to officially present Legion awards to two of our members.

These were a Past President's medal to our Immediate Past President, J.H. Dought, and a Past Officer's medal to the late secretary, for the many years he held that office, in this branch, and in the former Sayward Islands branch, for a number of years prior to the second war.

Comrade Ralph, on behalf of the branch, then made a special presentation to the President, in honour of his many years as secretary-treasurer, welfare officer, and public relations officer of the branch, of a tobacco humidior and pipe.

The President then resumed the chair to make a further presentation, of a type that always causes a certain amount of sadness, as it was being made to one of our members who is leaving the branch and the area to reside in Vancouver.

The recipient was Maurice Littler, who has been a branch member for a good many years, and Sergeant-at-Arms for a number of terms. The gift was a cigarette lighter, with the Legion crest.

The next branch meeting will be near the end of May. Notification of the exact date will be given later.

Comrade Alan Lockie will act as Sergeant-at-Arms until the next election of officers in September.

The President thanked the Saturna Ladies for their assistance with rations, hour or so of serene enjoyment.

The Women's Bake Sale in the Hall on Saturday was a grand event. The delicious luscious savory buns, cookies, pies, bread and cakes were sold out in no time.

SATURNA

BY PAPAJOHN

Our annual meeting last Monday was well attended. After the usual quarterly business was attended to, azure Anne Bavis, our president, handed over the gavel to the nominating committee.

With our favourite Padre, Rev. J. Dangerfield as recording secretary, this writer conducted the election of officers.

The following were elected unanimously: president, Walter Bavis; vice-president, azure Anne Bavis; elfin Elsie Dangerfield; treasurer, Jack Vincent; directors, Jim Money, Jim Campbell, Benny Begon and Rev. John Dangerfield.

At this juncture it was pointed out what the wish of the members was. It was their wish that they have the company of a lady, so mirthful Mellonie Gaines was elected without a nay.

At this point the meeting was handed over to the new executive and the following committee Chairmen were appointed: fire department, Jim Money; barbecue, Jim Campbell joint council, Bob Hindmarch and Johnny Gaines Cemetery committee; as this is a permanent appointment Walter Warlow continues to chair it. Other committees will be appointed later.

Devilish Donna Begon gave a wonderful report on the fire department. Finances dare good; we have two fire trucks now and we don't owe anyone any money the only thing owing here is the thanks of the the Community to those of Jim Money's fire department who have worked so hard to achieve this goal.

Our Community Club finances are in very good shape and a vote of thanks was given to the outgoing executive. Another vote of thanks went to our Women's Club for their donation of new tables and chairs to the Hall.

Our Regional Board member, Jim Campbell outlined some of the work(?) that has been done and a date was set for a meeting in the Hall to brief him on what we want to do at a Regional Board Meeting on Pender Island, Saturday, April 15.

Our favourite Padre, Rev. J. Dangerfield, has announced that the Choir of St. Mary the Virgin, Oak Bay, with organist Charles Palmer will give their annual presentation of Easter music in our St. Christopher's Church on Saturday, April 8. They will arrive on the noon ferry and after luncheon in the Hall will have the service at 2 P.M. Everyone is invited to join in this beautiful service. Come on out and have an albums are proof that Mrs. Bea Freeman and Hope Jennens, her daughter, really made it, and filled "the unforgiving minute with 60 seconds' worth of distance run."

Shopping in Oxford Street the first day in London, they called at B. C. House and walked into cousin Captain William York Higgs, (ex-Kloshe beach) and wife Ida, last seen at Pencillwood, South Pender!

From Hazelmere Village, in Surrey, Ralph Hennens and wife Jennie came to London to show the Canadians around. They were taken to "The Great Waltz" running three years at Drury Lane.

Westminster Abbey was the most significant visit for Mrs. Freeman. Mrs. Jennens' prize was the Tower with eye-boggling jewels and centuries-old armour, even for children.

They spent a week at Wexford, 80 miles south of Dublin, with Mrs. Hugh Fuller, niece of Mrs. Freeman's husband, Richard McGusty who died on South Pender. Moya McGusty Fuller, like her late uncle, raises hunters, show and race horses.

The Penderites drove over heather hills, by stone cottages and whitewashed houses, past miles of stone walls.

In England, they also found the endless walls built during the potato famine to make work for the Irish.

Near Chichester they found the Roman Palace excavation with its mosaic floors.

The Bosham Saxon church and the tomb of Canute's daughter, Catherine, 1088 appeared as well as Battle Abbey from Norman times.

"Father and cousin Leonard Higgs used to go there," recalls Mrs. Freeman.

For her, the highlight was Ore Place, Hastings, the Sussex home of grandfather Thomas Spalding.

Here Arthur Reed Spalding grew up with the children of his step-sister, Amelia Spalding Higgs. There was John of Gaunt's ivied tower, (where the

SALTY AND SIMONS

BY LILIAN HORSDAL

Salty is a familiar little chap to all DRIFTWOOD readers. Salty is the epitome of the sayings and doings of islanders. He came into being the year Art Simons and his family moved to Salt Spring.

Like all individuals this little character is becoming difficult to deal with. At first, because of the newness of the environment and the freshness of the novel viewpoint, he was very amenable, requiring little of the artist's time. His creator would never be able to do political cartoons because by their very purpose, they must children found wrens' nests and hid from Grannie!), and remains of the castle.

In 1886 Arthur Spalding came to South Pender, later joined by Leonard, Mabel and Winifred Spalding Higgs.

Impressions? "People in the shops were very thoughtful," says Mrs. Jennens. "Police and taximen always helpful. Everyone so polite."

Mrs. Freeman noted "Churches and steeples, everywhere. People value their land, where they have lived for centuries. There is no waste; everything is planned and nothing is hit-and-miss. Clean houses in well kept gardens look out on healthy horses, cows, pigs and sheep. The flint on the roads is like our agates.

"What they undertake, they do well. Hydro and phone lines are underground. A few highways and arteries, otherwise most are narrow, winding roads. There are trees everywhere and they cherish every one. Homecoming made one feel more than ever the tragedy of losing our roadside trees."

"Oh, to be in England, Now that April's there."

hurt. Art Simons is too sensitive and gentle to voluntarily hurt anyone.

Prior to coming to Salt Spring the Simons family lived in Gurnaby, where Art was a member of the night school staff, teaching art. This he found frustrating.

Then they were Youth Hostel parents for a season in the Rockies.

It was after this experience of living in the woods and knowing the limitless freedom of natural surroundings that they realized they couldn't go back to being city dwellers.

Salt Spring offered all the needs of a growing family, and since Art and his wife, Margaret, had spent a holiday in Vesuvius they decided to come here to start their new life.

Since that summer of 1966 they've built their own house, a most attractive and homelike spot with a lovely view out over the harbour.

When they toured Europe on bicycles it was with the same enthusiasm they pour into all the projects in which they are involved.

Unfortunately, it isn't possible for an artist to just paint his own works--he must also have a job for economic reasons. So it is with Art Simons.

GALIANO

BY MARY BACKLUND

Easter on Galiano Island was the biggest holiday-time in history.

We now have the bigger "Queen of Sidney", and it is jammed to the gunnels with people, and more waiting, to come over to the islands on every sailing.

Literally hundreds seem to pour off the ship. Parks and homes were filled with happy holiday makers. Seems like the summer commuters have all come over and there are cars and trucks and campers at every house.

We spotted guests for Dr. and Mrs. Les Robinson, (who will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Ross Parminter ... Mr. and Mrs. Dan Calleberg, with their three children, from Lake Cowichan, and Dr. and Mrs. C. Knight, from Consort. Alta. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Gladman, of Victoria, are visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw.

Mrs. M. Colvin, and children, spent a few days with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Riddell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shackelton are up from Fremont,

California, they have just returned from holidays in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Zala have left for a two week holiday in Hawaii. In their absence, Eddie Bambrick will look after their Corner Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, of Victoria, and their children are spending holidays at their new "Evergreen home", which is approaching completion, at their property on the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. David New, with their four sons, of Richmond, are over visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. New.

Mrs. Chester Williams was home for a few days. She is at present staying in Vancouver to be near her husband who is in hospital still. Ches is in the Fairview Pavilion of the Vancouver General, and is in a complete body cast still. He is quite cheery, says his wife.

18 Years Drilling Experience on Gulf Islands

THE HAT WAS TOP PRICED

BY CULTUS COULEE

There was more unbridled laughter at Port Wash Hall, Wednesday, March 22, with painters reacting to their own and other's work. The Maquinna hat worn by Hope Jennens over her long braids, was a conversation "piece de resistance" - resistance to efforts to capture its woven quality.

Legend says a descendant of the Chief makes a few copies of his hat: That Alberni and Gold River each has a hat maker: that the bark for weaving comes from the north side of the cedar.

Victoria Museum has a few samples as well as a picture of the Chief wearing one. Cream colored whales and canoes are worked into nutmeg brown bark. People gingerly fingering the hat, nearly drop it when they hear it cost $60!

Come shearing time, the Jennens take wool from Canned Codfish Bay to the Cowichan Trading Co. in Victoria and couldn't resist the collector's item. The man who sold it would now love to buy it back! Fat chance!

President Ora Symes did a portrait of the hat, with profile of the wearer beneath it.

Dot King completed a sensitive oil of Mrs Bea Freeman.

Other brush and pencil people Diana Pollard Beegan, Nell Bradshaw, Ann Henshaw, Connie Swartz. While Mrs Ethel Edmark surveyed the scene from the sidelines.

New owners now have taken over the store at Sturdies Bay, the "Galiano General Supplies", which was opened almost two years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knudson. Hank and Mary worked long and hard hours to bring groceries and supplies to the Island, opening early in the morning, and staying open late at night. Their plans are not sure, for the present they will stay on at Galiano. Both are active in community affairs.

New owner is Ron Burdett, of North Vancouver, who has a summer place at Mayne Island. His wife teaches at U.B.C., and will commute to the Island. They have a son and daughter.

Mr. Burdett is anxious to carry on with the service that is already established at Sturdies Bay.

OBITUARY

SAWFORD: Mrs. Edith Dora Sawford passed away March 22, 1972, in the Lady Minto Hospital, Ganges. Survived by her loving husband, Philip, at home; one son, John Philip, Orangeville, Ont.; one daughter, Mrs. J. (Evelyn) Stinson, Terrace, B.C.; three grandchildren; two brothers, Albert Selby, Don Mills, Ont.; Len Selby, Thornton, Ont. Funeral services were held 1:30 pm, Monday, March 27, in St. George's Anglican Church. Archdeacon R.B. Horsefield officiated. Cremation. Good man's Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Donations may be made to Cancer Foundation, 857 Caledonia St., Victoria.

ROD AND GUN CLUB AT GALIANO SETS DATES FOR SEASON

From the Galiano Rod and Gun Club come some dates to remember, the annual trophy shoot will be held on April 16.

The annual fishing derby will be held on July 29. It is one of the biggest affairs for this lively club. Hank Knudson is in charge of the fishing derby. This will be followed by a dance at night with a live orchestra.

CHURCH IS PACKED

Easter services at the church of St. Margaret of Scotland were conducted by Rev. O. L. Foster, with his wife at the organ.

The church was filled to hear the traditional Easter message, and to sing the beautiful hymns.

One pew was filled with three generations of the New family. Donald New is a staunch member of the church.

SAILORS

Island sailors set out for Saanich on Sunday to take part in the Elk Lake regatta. There were six Salt Spring Island sailboats to take part.

The Elk Island Sailing Association had formerly invited the Salt Spring Island Sailing Club to take part. They did.

Canada's highest temperature, 113 deg. F, was officially recorded at Midale and Yellow Grass Saskatchewan, on July 5, 1937.

EASTER PARTY AT GOLF CLUB

Galiano Golf and Country Club was gay with Easter flowers and decorations for the party on April 1.

The committee worked hard to make this most successful, complete with the lively music of the Darling family, and piano stylings of Jack Bickerton.

One of the guests came from far-off Lucia, in the West Indies. George Phillips is the winner of a scholarship that brings him to Canada, and he spent the weekend with friends on Galiano.

subsidize it, we could have our ladies go over to Victoria and feed the next session and then they might accomplish something.

Em Coombs is sure glad to see his wife Lacy Laura home. While Lacy's daughter, dashing Diann Bertram, was in hospital Laura had to look after Chris and Richard. Granma Laura says "if you want to lose weight just look after a couple of grand-children for a few weeks".

Bob and kidding Kay Close have two boys interested in music so they have helped them form a rock group called "The Road". Steve Wilcox is the band leader, on the guitar; Sam Captropa, rhythm guitar; Steve Bergen, bass guitar; Doug Worall, drums; Brian Close, drums and Garry Close manager.

These boys will be over here Thursday, April 8. They will be practising in the hall on Friday and on Saturday night will give a rock concert in the hall. Bill Lawson and Benny Begon will be helping Bob handle all the arrangements.

Adults are welcome to attend, but this is a teenage event and we hope that everyone will have a good time.

Among the many East Point people visiting this weekend the only ones we know about are Dick and naughty Nancy Harrower with their family.

At this end of the Island we have on Bonny Bank Road, Bev and enchanting Eileen Campbell; and Cliff Sacker. In the valley are Lloyd and misty Myrt Stewart; Tom and decorative Dot Maytum. Lloyd and Tom with two of their Hastie Cartage trucks sure brought over a bunch of lumber and you name it goods.

At Boot Cove are Bill and kittily Kay Ashdown with their family; Jack Rush was also over with a new chain saw preparing to do a lot of work.

Married in Ganges United Church on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Mitchell.

Mrs. Mitchell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Earl, of Hundred Hills, Ganges.

SALTY

(From Page Eight)

He does the outdoor advertising for Mohawk Oil Company, a 100% Canadian company with whom he has worked since its inception. It requires a lot of travelling but always he knows he will return to his island home where he can live and breathe in its natural environment. He hopes he won't need to teach again.

He has had a one-man show in Vancouver and exhibited many times in Burnaby. Soon he will have a show at X-Kalay, but has quite a time keeping enough paintings for a one-man show since his paintings, like his SALTY ANNUAL, are very popular.

Mr. Mitchell is a Staff Sergeant in the United States Air Force, stationed in Honolulu.

The couple will live in Honolulu after a short honeymoon. Rev. Fred Anderson officiated at the ceremony. — Photo by A.M. Sharp

The Light Touch By H.J. CARLIN

A young husband found his bride sobbing convulsively when he got home from work. "I feel just terrible," she told him. "I was pressing your new suit and I burned a big hole right in the seat of the trousers." "Don't worry, dear," he consoled her. "Remember I got an extra pair of pants with that suit." "Yes," she replied, drying her eyes. "And it's lucky you did. I used them to patch the hole."

A friend of ours shaved off his beard because it made him look too young.

Island Champs For Third Year

Salt Spring Elementary School girls' team won the Mid-Island Basketball championship staged at Duncan for the third straight year.

A very small team, this year, they upset their bigger opponents with their quickness and aggressive play.

In the first game against Drinkwater School the local girls, behind some good shooting by Debbie Woodley, won 15-7 without being seriously pressed.

The semi-final against Cowichan proved to be very lopsided.

Jenny Byron, Margaret Anderson and Cathy Anderson pressed the Duncan team into many errors and turnovers, allowing Debbie Woodley and Kathy Taylor to drive for 10 points and 7 points respectively. The final score was 22-4 for Salt Spring.

The Championship game saw Salt Spring girls pitted against Maple Bay. After an even first quarter Salt

Spring girls rallied behind the defense of Joan Mostad and Kathy Taylor to jump repeatedly made fast break sorties to the Maple Bay basket.

TEAM LINES UP AFTER VICTORY

in front 11-5 with Jenny Byron scoring 3 fast lay-ins.

At the start of the second half Salt Spring began to get on top. Playing an aggressive man-to-man pressing defense and sometimes falling back into a strong 3-2 zone Salt Spring never allowed their opponents to settle into a rhythm. As Maple Bay wilted, Debbie Woodley and Margaret Anderson began to score from inside. Easing up and substituting in the final minutes Salt Spring kept their opponents off-stride as Cathy Anderson

The final score was a 23-15 win for Salt Spring. Co-captains Debbie Woodley and Kathy Taylor accepted the trophy for Salt Spring.

PLAYERS SET OUT ON PLAYS

(BY STROLLER)

There will be a meeting of the Salt Spring Players in Central Hall on Wednesday, April 12, at 8 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to make plans, and do some initial casting, for the summer shows.

As the core of the programs, two short musicals are planned, one based on episodes in Salt Spring's colorful past, and the other with a more modern setting. To these will be added skits and instrumental and other musical numbers, as available.

People of all ages are needed. If you like to sing but aren't interested in acting, or vice versa, come along. If you dance, play an instrument, or are a whizz at turning out rhyming couplets or doggerel verse, we need you. If you have talented relatives or friends coming to visit during the summer, we'd like to hear about them.

If you can't attend the meeting, call Virginia Newman at 537-2637, or Olive Clayton at 537-3259.

WALKATHON

DRIVING COURSE APRIL 17

Driving conditions have changed over the past years.

"That's why we are offering a defensive driving course through Continuing Education," says Olive Layard.

This course of lectures was devised by the B.C. Safety Council. They are recommended for all drivers, however good they may think they are, said Mrs. Layard.

The course is offered to drivers new to the roads or to drivers who have a license all their lives.

Instructor is Jake Javorski, who has presented the course in previous years.

Classes are planned to start on April 17 and drivers are urged to register as soon as possible to ensure an adequate enrolment.

Fee is $10.

Information is available from Mr. Javorski, at 537-2832 or Mrs. Layard, at 537-5455. On completion of the course candidates receive a certificate. This is recognized by the Motor Vehicle branch as a criterion of driving skill.

SATURDAY LACROSSE DAY HERE

Saturday is lacrosse day. On Saturday boys on Salt Spring Island will be invited to register for the Cowichan Valley League, reports Geoff Howland.

Registration will take place at Ben's Lucky Dollar from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Fee is $5 and candidates are asked to bring their birth certificates.

Byron; girl, 10-12, Janet Roberts.

Oldest walker was John Finch and the youngest, Dave Roberts, Jr. Most original costume was Brenda Mouat.
