EXPECTED SHORTLY

Police To Fly Around

— RCMP HELICOPTER

Helicopter police patrols are to be initiated on the Gulf Islands.

In a letter to the Islands MIA Hugh Curtis, Attorney-General Alex Macdonald recently reported the purchase of a "206 E Helicopter" which is expected to be in service "very shortly".

The attorney-general was writing to Curtis in reply to his May 23 comments on the disorderly visitors to the islands during the holiday week end.

The helicopter will enable the RCMP to make daily patrols to the islands and to respond immediately to urgent calls when required.

Referring to the unruly crowds on the islands over the holiday week end in May, the attorney-general noted that the holiday invasion of the islands is not a problem peculiar to these islands.

The problem arises from time to time in many parts of the province said Macdonald's letter and it is a problem that is difficult to control or prevent.

DELTA BAND BRINGS CONCERT TO GANGES PARK

- Photo by Richards

Delta Community Band came to Salt Spring Island on Sunday for the annual band picnic. The mainland musicians then played for more than an hour in Centennial Park with an audience of local residents and visitors.

Conducted by Bob Colquhoun the band offered a wide selection. The band includes youngsters and oldsters. They vary in age and activity and all musicians play for enjoyment. The concert on Sunday reflected their pleasure in playing.

The audience were delighted with the program and they said goodbye to the three busloads of visitors with some regret.

Spokesman for the band is Edgar Dunning, host of the CBC program on Sunday mornings, Neighbourly News, and newspaper publisher.

More than 100 band members and their families arrived on the noon ferry at Long Harbour and spent the afternoon in Ganges, to take the 4.40 ferry back to Tsawwassen.

TWO ROLL OFF BACK OF CAR

Freak accident in Moutat Park at Ganges sent one girl to hospital with lacerations on Sunday.

Two passengers fell from the back of a sports car driven by Vaughan Bannister, of Victoria. The car ended up in a ditch.

Damage to the car was less than $200 and no charges were laid.

SUCCUMBS TO BURNS

Hydro Accident Is Fatal

Ronald Owen Callaghan, who was burned in an accident at Parker Island on Monday, July 23, died in Victoria General Hospital on Tuesday, July 24, of injuries received.

A foreman for Hume and Rumble, a division of Commonwealth Construction, Mr. Callaghan went to Parker Island with John Ingram, a lineman, to do a job on the B. C. Hydro line there.

Mickey Green, of Stacey's Water Taxi, out of Ganges, took them over, and was with them at the time of the accident. Mr. Ingram summoned help from Galiano, and reported a grass fire which was the result of the high-tension line exploding when Callaghan went to work on it.

Chester Williams, one of the volunteer firemen, recognized a doctor on the way over to Parker Island, and asked him to help. Dr. R. M. Hill, of Ellensburg, Washington, immediately gave Callaghan medication, to relieve the pain. He was taken by a helicopter from there to Victoria, to the burns unit.

The dead man was born in Victoria in 1937. He came to Galiano Island with his mother (Turn to Page Sixteen)

FIRST PHASE IS PLAY AT FULFORD

SUMMER THEATRE PLANNED FOR FUTURE YEARS

Summer theatre opens this year for two days on Salt Spring Island. It is the pilot presentation of what the sponsors hope will be a regular summer feature here.

First presentation consists of one play, never previously presented, which will run for only two days. Based on the response to this year's opener, it is hoped to establish a summer theatre here offering plays, new and old, with courses in drama, writing and the down-to-earth problems of theatre.

Man behind the project is Stuart Margolin, who acquired property at the North End from Jim Spencer several years ago.

A Hollywood actor, writer and singer, he came here to get away from the less attractive features of his Hollywood home to his new, adopted home.

He sees in Salt Spring Island's future a recognized centre for the dramatic arts, where theatre would become an important part of the community.

Margolin is not alone in his dream of drama here. It's a dream that needs help. If he is to enlist the help and support of other professional entertainers, they have to be keen. The Hollywood star who comes to Salt Spring Island is making a donation of his time and his name to the summer theatre.

And that is the secret of success

This year has brought two Hollywood players, one a Canadian who went south, and a playwright who was originally an actor. Joshua Bryant and Margot Kidder will play the lead roles in a new play from Gardner McKay, who was once a successful actor. It is the premiere of his Sea Marks and McKay will probably come to the island to see it go over. Whether or not he will bring his pet cheetahs with him is another matter.

There is a link with all these theatre personalities.

A couple of years ago Stuart Margolin was one of the cast of the western, Nicholls. Margot Kidder was also in the show.

The link between Bryant and McKay is that the latter wrote the television play, "Me" and the former played in that show.

There's only one thing brings them together on Salt Spring Island for August 17 and 18 and that is Margolin's enthusiasm. If it works they, or someone else, will be back next year, and the next.

The play is a simple tale, says Margolin, but he wouldn't go into too many details. It's up to the audience to decide.

Islands To Be Dropped?

— REGION PLAN?

Big changes in islands administration have been considered by the provincial government.

Possibility that the islands will be moved out of the Capital Regional District has been suggested by Municipal Affairs Minister J. C. Lorimer.

The minister made the statement while touring Lasqueti Island, off Nanaimo, last week. He was told by residents of that island that they felt little benefit from their inclusion in the Powell River Regional District.

The islands probably shouldn't belong to the regional districts, he told Lasqueti islanders and he would be looking into it.

Island residents are not the only critics of inadequate representation by the regional districts, noted the minister. There are many small districts which have made this comment all over British Columbia, he commented, but the islands are in a different position.

Lorimer is touring the islands with the Municipal Affairs committee which visited the Gulf Islands early in the summer.

During the election campaign of two years ago and subsequently at various public meetings, the proposal has been made by islanders here, but it was not received with warmth by the provincial government.

Cautious islanders have been concerned over the future of hospital service if the islands should be divorced from the Capital Regional Hospital District.

Northern islands have sounded a plea for local consultation before regulations are imposed from outside. This has been a part of the Gulf Islands election campaigns for two years.

During the islands tour last week, Mr. Lorimer noted that he hopes to see the islands preserved as close to what they are now as possible.

All planning and major development has been held up by the provincial government until the touring committee has completed its tour.

FINE SEQUEL TO WILD WEEKEND

Sequel to a wild week end was enacted in Ganges Provincial Court last week when Lawrence Hickson, of Victoria was fined $50 for mischief.

Hickson was also ordered to make restitution for damage at Harbour House Hotel at the May Day week end.

Vandalism and hooliganism during that holiday week end has been the subject of extensive discussions with the provincial government over island policing.

COUNTRY FAIR SEEN IN FRAME OF TREES AND ROCKS

BIG ATTENDANCE AT FAIR

Attendance was heavy and steady on Saturday when the Anglican churches of Salt Spring Island presented their annual Country Fair in the grounds of the Gulf Islands Secondary school.

The fair was opened by former vicar, Archdeacon Ray Horsefield, who spent the afternoon meeting his former parishioners and other island friends.

The flow of visitors to every stall in the grounds was more substantial than the response to the vegetable contests. There were no carrots, long or short, for the longest carrot contest and personable potatoes are still pulling faces at each other instead of visitors to the fair.

Trophies offered as prizes will be held over for another contest.

Also introduced this year was the home produce contest which brought a few entries, but not as many as had been hoped for.

Noisiest stall was the crockery smashing project manned by George Heinekey.

The Victoria Summer Symphony Orchestra played in the entrance to the gymnasium during the afternoon.

Winners of the two lambs were Mrs. S. Hopkins and Mrs. Dorothy Gaffney.

In the baking contest prizes went to the following in the specified classes: bread, 1, G. Adams; 2, Ione Guthrie; 3, Mrs. I. Hall; special award was made to Mrs. Hanna for Swedish bread; cake, 1, Mrs. Charlotte Cooper; 2, Mrs. A. Thompson; 3, Mrs. A. Brown; pies, Mrs. C. Cooper; preserves, Mrs. D. James and Mrs. M. Howell; jam, Mrs. M. Miller; vegetables, peas, Alf Howell; beets, Ione Guthrie.

Picture shows the attractive combination of setting and the stalls on Saturday.

FIRES ON THE ISLANDS

BY MARY BACKLUND

During the past weeks there have been numerous fires on Galiano and the surrounding Islands.

Four fires on little islands were put out by the big water bombers, and two at Montague Park.

One of the fires at the park brought out the fire truck and several volunteers.

Again and again, we say that our islands are so tinder dry and plead with everyone to be careful. Some people obviously do not care. But we do!

We can only be so thankful to the people who bring the water bombers over quickly. It gives us such a greater sense of security, but we must try to be careful, so that fires will not get out of hand. Keep our islands green!

Canada does not have an official tree emblem although the Sugar Maple leaf is shown on many national symbols.

to be frank

It's not only that the park needs help, but the contribution to Salt Spring Island Centennial Park merits support. The park society is staging a membership drive. It is only from such drives that the society can raise the funds needed to operate the park and to serve the community. Most of the society's funds are derived from selling membership cards. The rest of us have joined... why don't you?

It's a sad story, the tale of the couple who were away in the far reaches of Washington State and beyond. They decided to buy a bottle of duty-free alcohol. None of your pickling 25 or 26 oz. crocks! They came home with a 40-ouncer after some delay in the purchase. They weren't certain for positive sure they had time to get it and still catch the ferry. Finally they boarded the late ferry with their duty-free snort. They carefully nurtured it across the water from Port Angeles, through the Vancouver Island communities and back to Salt Spring Island. Lovingly, Mrs. Tourist held the bottle in her hands... and dropped it. Forty ounces of duty-free liquor spread over the floor to mingle with the tears of the owners.

John Mastenbroek lives in Switzerland. When he looked towards a return to Canada and retirement, he turned his eyes far west of his native Ontario. He and his wife decided to take a good look at the Pacific province before making a decision elsewhere. His wife found a list of old girls. It was a capital list because they were Old Girls of her school. Among those mentioned was Mary Williamson, of Ganges. She wrote

Mary and explained she wanted to know something about the island. Mary Williamson sent her a couple of editions of DRIFTWOOD and a tourist folder. This week the Mastenbroeks bought their retirement property on Mansell Road, before hightailing back to Europe.

Back when Hitler was an odd German incendiary, back when the Pound Note was Powerful Paper, back when recycling meant pedalling, I was a motorcyclist.

It was a few days after Mr. Dunlop had invented his Flag-British tire and a few days before nuclear fission. It was even before the Japanese had looked seriously at motorcycles.

In 1933, or thereabouts, I was the proud owner of a Douglas "2 3/4". With my twin brother I invested almost exactly a half-dollar in sterling in the bike which had a silver coloured tank, rusty fenders, belt drive and a license number, OK 142. The first letter, "O" signified that the machine was licensed in Birmingham and the second letter indicated that the original registration was made in the year 1922, approximately.

The owner had no further use for the machine and we had seen it lying abandoned in his garage. We bought it for part of the price down and an understanding.

The brakes operated on the belt pulley for the back wheel and on the rim of the wheel exactly like a bicycle with hand brakes. The gear shift, and there were three speeds, came through the tank and moved through a horizontal quadrant. The motor was two-cylinder, a flat-twin with a

Newest venture in the islands offers patrols to keep an eye on property left unoccupied by very smooth torque and one which had been popular a few years before the construction of this machine as a despatch-rider's mount.

We pushed it home, bursting with pride. Too young to legally ride it, we had to find a private field in which to start it up. One of us rode and the other pushed until we came to the steep hill and both pushed.

The motor-cycle was halted in the yard, where it was placed on its stand and two small boys walked round it, stroking the rusty parts and exchanged very authoritative views on its history and its potential. We cleaned it, oiled the rust and polished the painted surfaces. The motor shone.

The machine stood there when the Master of the House arrived home. He took one look at it. "You can get rid of that thing!" he snapped as he walked into the house.

The order was like a death sentence. The sun stopped shining and the paint stopped gleaming. We spoke no word. For another half hour we walked around the ancient machine, stroking its sheen and awaiting its demise. It was the Dear Departed and we were the principal mourners. Part of our life was slipping away and there was nothing we could do to stop it.

Then the window opened and my father called, "There's a can of gas in the back of the car. You might as well see if the damned thing will run!"

That was how I started motor cycling. I have had about 40 or 50 motorcycles, mostly my own.

PATROL SERVICE AND ALARMS

NEW SAFETY AGENCY LAUNCHED FOR ISLANDS

commuting or absent owners.

Gordon Simpson, of Gulf Coast Industries Ltd., at Fulford, is opening his newest business, Salt Spring Safety Patrol, on Thursday.

The patrol will provide regular checks of island property on a pre-arranged basis. Checks will be made irregularly, on a snap basis in order that no observer will have foreknowledge of when the next patrol will be due.

Sparking the new entry in property safeguarding is the steadily increasing incidence of breaking-in and theft from island properties. In addition, Simpson is a keen appliance technician and has launched his own agency for alarm systems of all kinds.

While the patrol is his basic business, the new service will also sell and install alarm systems. Two basic systems are fire and burglary. Others are available on demand.

The Patrol Service will install a fire alarm that will not only holler when a fire breaks out, but will call the fire department and report the location of than the 350 cc Douglas. It is less powerful and it is infinitely less solid and awe-inspiring.

But I am re-living that day when the Douglas stood outside my boyhood home in England. And I'm enjoying the memories of another era in another land in another world.

the fire without human assistance. Even if the fire destroys the source of power, the alarm will continue to sound the alarm.

Burglar alarms range from the simple shriek at the entry of strangers, to the very sophisticated system that permits the entrant to wander around the building while sending out silent calls for help, in the hope of catching him red-handed.

These alarm systems can be installed as part of the patrol service or they can be set up without using the patrols.

In the automatic alarm field, Gordon Simpson has a smoke detector for older people to go off at the first whiff of concentrated smoke. It doesn't wait for a fire to break out, it warns the people in the house even when the first smell of smoke is apparent.

Not all alarms are geared to fire or thieves. A system can be set up to warn the homeowner if the freezer is on the blink. As the temperature starts to rise, the alarm goes off and saves the expensive meat in the cold box.

The new patrol service is licensed and bonded by the provincial government. This licensing is done by the government through the RCMP.

Salt Spring Safety Patrol car is already to be seen in Ganges ready for the service to get underway.

Charcoal is made by slowly burning wood while restricting the supply of oxygen.

ISLANDS REGIONAL DISTRICT

When Municipal Affairs Minister James Lorimer spoke at a more northerly island last week he expressed sympathy with a criticism of the tenuous link between regional districts and isolated islands. The minister also suggested that he might be looking with sympathy at the severance of islands from existent regional districts.

Some islanders here have looked with favour on such a separation. There is probably still a feeling on Salt Spring Island among some ratepayers that they would welcome a link with Cowichan rather than with Saanich and Victoria.

The first question to arise from this proposal is the future of hospital care. Since 1967 islanders have been part of the Capital Regional Hospital District in order to make contributions towards the construction costs of regional hospital services and to enjoy those facilities when needed. Where would islanders look for hospital services if they leave the region and what hospitals would they support?

There are other obvious problems. If the minister were to include islands the length of Vancouver Island into one regional district we could find ourselves at the southern extremity, further from the administrative centre of such a region than we are today, with our administrative centre in Victoria.

We could find that other islanders might be as difficult to deal with as Victoria. We could find that archipelago ears are as tight-shut as regional ears.

An islands regional district with headquarters in Quadra Island or Lasqueti Island would serve the Gulf Islands here no more effectively than does the Capital Regional District. We might find ourselves out of the frying pan into the fire in terms of services and costs as well as convenience.

Before we jump in with both feet to embrace the minister for his shrewdness in agreeing with some of us, let us have a close look first!

Letters To The Editor

WASTE OF TIME?

Editor, Driftwood,
May I use your paper to reply to Mr. Low letter, in Driftwood July 26th, 1973.

If Mr. Low is correct, in his statement that for some people to become religious, is a waste of time, I can well believe you Mr. Low, when the kind of bread, that most churches are giving its congregations is sour. It is my belief, that the reason God's children are desiring or looking for other things is because you and other ministers are not giving them, what they are looking for.

May I say, Mr. Low's letter this week is a great improvement to past letters to Driftwood. Now, may I suggest he go a step further, in his next letter, give these starving souls an invitation to his church.

Perhaps, as a new minister amongst us, he may have the thing they are looking for.

A farmer does not give his stock bad food, but gives them the best he can buy. You are the shepherd that God has sent to feed his sheep. Feed them, Mr.

Low, with God's word, not with something that does not satisfy.

Once again, may I remind him of God's words to Peter, "Lovest thou me, then feed my sheep."

So far, Mr. Low, you have only given the sheep an address in which to write, should they so desire. Now, why not an invitation to your church which is the Community Gospel Church in Ganges.

S. Ingles,
R. R. 2,
Ganges,
July 28, 1973.

STALL CLERKS ARE ALL BUSY AT COUNTRY FAIR

TWO ISLAND FAMILIES ARE UNITED

Ganges United Church was the setting for a double-ring ceremony at 1:30 p.m. on July 14, when Angela May, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brigden of Fulford Harbour exchanged vows with Donald Bruce, only son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Funk of Vesuvius. Reverend Fred Anderson officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in ivory satin and lace. The gown, made by the bride, was fashioned with long bouffant sleeves ending in wide buttoned cuffs. The gown featured a buttoned front closing to the hemline, with a gathered skirt falling to a four-foot train, all edged in ruffled lace. Her floor-length heirloom veil, borrowed for the occasion from Mrs. Gladys Slingsby, flowed gently from a beaded Juliet cap of ivory satin to match the gown. The bride walked down the aisle to "The Hawaiian Wedding Song" played by Phil Sawford on the organ.

Angela was attended by Mrs. Gillian Theisen (nee French) as matron of honour and Miss Darcy Saunders as bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of mauve nylon crepe with empire styled waistlines and long bouffant sleeves gathered to flaring cuffs. The floor length dresses had a gathered flounce at the hemline. Contrasting boleros in royal purple velvet made a striking picture. Matching hats in mauve crocheted straw with floppy brims completed their ensemble.

Teresa Govenlock, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Her dress, styled similar to the bridesmaids', was lime green nylon topped with an olive green velvet bolero. Her matching light green hat had a circle of daisies trailing down the back, making a very picturesque flower girl.

The bridesmaids' dresses were made by the mother of the bride, assisted by the girls. The flower girl's dress was designed and made by her mother Mrs. Beth Govenlock.

The bride carried a trailing bouquet of variegated ivy centred with white lilies and sweet peas, augmented with lace and mauve ribbon.

The matron of honour and bridesmaid also carried trailing bouquets, one of pink rosebuds with rose coloured ribbon and one of mauve gladiolas with lavender coloured ribbon. The flower girl carried a small white basket of pink sweet williams. Her older sister, Karen Govenlock, carried a basket of fresh rose petals to scatter for the happy couple as they left the church. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Jean Anderson and Mrs. Connie Arnell sang "Love One Another" and "Let There be Peace on Earth", accompanied by Mr. Sawford. The newly-weds left the church to "The Wedding March" by Mendelssohn.

For the occasion the mother of the bride chose a floor length dress of mint green lace over nylon, featuring bouffant sleeves and tight buttoned cuffs. With this she wore white accessories. The mother of the groom chose a floor length dress in a floral print, with contrasting white accessories. Both mothers wore similar corsages of lavender clematis.

Donald was supported by his cousin, Kerby Funk, of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. Martin Ogilvie of Ganges and Roland Theisen of St. Catharines, Ontario, were the ushers.

Brent Van de Castele of Seattle, nephew of the groom, was the ring-bearer, carrying an heirloom cushion which belonged to the bride's great-grandmother. The cushion was of white velvet, with lavender ribbons to tie the rings.

The bouquets, corsages and colourful boutonnières were all artistically styled by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Dorothy Edwards.

The church was decorated with gladiolas, fox gloves, and other summer flowers, the helpful work of the groom's family.

At the reception at Fulford Community Hall over 150 guests sat down to a snorgasbord cold plate, prepared by family and friends. Our thanks go to Trevor and Pru Wheeldon who artistically decorated the hall with crepe paper streamers and ribbon flowers.

The Master of Ceremonies was Spencer Brigden, brother of the bride. David Thomas, uncle of the bride, gave the blessing. Robert Thomas, another uncle, was the photographer.

After cutting the wedding cake, daintily decorated with tiny mauve and green flowers by Mrs. Daisy Gear, the couple handed out pieces of cake to all the guests.

The bride's going-away outfit was a brightly striped hot-pants suit, accented by a corsage of white daisies with mauve ribbons. After a short honeymoon into the interior, the happy couple returned to Salt Spring to make their home on Vesuvius Bay Road.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. S. Govenlock, Karen, Teresa, Gordon and Diana from Jordan River; Mr. and Mrs. A. Jefferies, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood and Laura from Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. S. Brigden from Chemainus; Mr. and Mrs. D. Morton, Mrs. E. MacDonald, Miss M. Olynk from Duncan; Mrs. V. Burnson and Debbie, Grandpa and Grandma Ewen from Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. R. GALIANO

Rev. and Mrs. Tom Wilson have returned home to Comox with their three children, after spending several weeks holidaying at the Vicarage on Galiano.

During his stay, Mr. Wilson conducted services at the churches of St. Margaret of Scotland and St. Mary Magdalene, Mayne Island.

Misses Brenda Harding and Rosemarie Morie of Port Alberni spent a week visiting Brenda's father, Roy Harding recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Platt motored to Powell River to spend a few days with their daughter and her family there.

Hugh Lawrence and family, of Vancouver, spent a few days at the Montague campsite. He tells us that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lawrence, who lived on Galiano for many years, are now residing in the Christian Science Home in Victoria.

Mrs. Mary Hawkins and her mother, Mrs. Flora Lee, are spending the summer months at their cottage "Activista", on Burrill Road. Mrs. Lee is 101 years of age, enjoys good health, and visits from her old island friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Clark of North Vancouver, are vacationing at their cottage on Burrill Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Bellhouse slipped quietly away from Galiano recently; they sold their home, and will spend some time in the interior for the present.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Neale had to cut their vacation short last week when Mr. Neale got a bad case of summer 'flu.

NATIONAL RESOURCES GROUP ASKS FOR DELAY IN DEBATE ON INSECTICIDES

While congratulating the Provincial Government for establishing a Royal Commission of inquiry into the use of pesticides and herbicides in British Columbia, a Man and Resources community interest group has asked the commission to provide more time for citizens to make submissions to it.

At a Victoria meeting, Derrick Mallard, known in British Columbia for his participation in environmental matters, pointed out in a motion "that most citizens groups are unable to respond in the one-month period... especially during the holiday season."

A three-month postponement of the inquiry was requested.

The meeting also asked the commission to give "ongoing attention" to questions of pesticides and herbicides and to "be prepared to receive submissions from time to time from interested parties."

"We call upon all Man and Resources groups and other concerned associations to support this resolution."

Man and Resources is a national program sponsored by the Canadian Council of Resource and Environment Ministers for the purpose of obtaining "grass-roots" responses to resource-use problems and solutions in Canada.

COMMUNITY COMMENTS
 by Jim Wilkinson

July 30, 1973.

1. Disappointed to learn that the Hearings for Agricultural Land Designation will be held Off-Island - on the advice of the Capital Regional Board's Attorneys. I always thought our elected representatives were running the Capital Regional Board, not the lawyers.
2. Where do your tax dollars go? This Spring, when the Capital Regional District budget came down, it was shown at 2.5 million dollars. Six years ago, the Regional Board's Staff consisted of two people. Now there are thirty-nine people on Regional payroll, with a telephone bill of approximately $15,000 shown in the budget figures. The Regional Government has become Big Business.
3. Minutes of Meeting of Capital Regional Hospital District Board of June 27, 1973, involving two pages of important issues, i.e. the expenditure of large sums of money re hospital acquisitions and By-laws, etc. which I believe should have taken a fair amount of deliberation - it is noted that the meeting was called to order at 4.05 pm and adjourned at 4.15 pm., with all motions carried.
4. Thank you "Candid" Temple, C-Fax News, Victoria for your comments and concern - I am truly enjoying this summer on beautiful Salt Spring Island.

Keep informed.

Jim Wilkinson.

MARSH WORLD by ANGUS SHORT Ducks Unlimited

FIREFLY — These interesting insects are members of the Lampyridae family and are not flies but beetles, with unique light-giving properties. The greeny-yellow light is generated in the rear body segments of the male and glows alternately bright and dim as the insect flies about. Females are flightless and emit a lower intensity light from a single abdominal segment. The wingless larvae which also produce light are commonly called glowworms. Fireflies are often seen at night along the borders of marshes, dozens of their tiny "lanterns" flickering among the reed beds.

TENTATIVE FARMLAND PLAN

Agricultural land or land which could be made suitable for farming purposes must be so designated under the terms of the Land Commission Act, fought vigorously by the opposition parties at the spring session of the B. C. Legislature this year. Committee is working on Salt Spring Island to establish the rules to be applied to island land.

Consisting of the Salt Spring Island Advisory Planning Commission and members of the Salt Spring Island Planning Association and the Salt Spring Island Farmers' Institute, the committee is examining the terms of the act and applying those terms to the island. Recommendations made by the island committee are merely advisory. The committee has no administrative powers. It will advise the Capital Regional Board of its recommendations and the board may or may not adopt them in its recommendations to the provincial Land Commission.

On Thursday the island committee agreed on three resolutions.

Its views and recommendations should be communicated to the Advisory Planning Commission on each of the other islands. Members agreed that the islands are a unique area within the Capital Regional District. They all share the same problems and those problems are dissimilar from any facing the remainder of the Regional District.

The department of agriculture should be asked to re-survey the 10,000 acres tentatively slated for designation as agricultural reserve on Salt Spring Island. The present map, with its scale of 1:50,000 is not sufficiently precise for the clear establishment of boundaries, the committee feels. The committee asked that designations made on the basis of the present map be considered tentative.

The committee also recommended that the need for urban expansion of the three villages on Salt Spring Island be recognized but with some protection for agricultural land already in the vicinity. The original planning map shows the villages as expanding in a circular pattern. The new committee feels that this should be corrected to an irregular boundary to allow for exclusion of agricultural land from the urban area.

The residents of Salt Spring Island will be introduced to the new proposals this month.

Very large scale maps will be displayed in the high school gymnasium at Ganges from August 3 to August 15, inclusive, reports Director Marc Holmes.

The display will be closed on Sundays, Aug. 5 and 12. Throughout the period there will be a committee spokesman present to explain the maps and to listen to comments from the public, from 9 am until 4 pm, said Mr. Holmes.

Any islanders who have comments on the designation of his property will be invited to submit a report. Forms will be provided whereby residents can submit such comments. They will be asked for the legal description of the property involved, explained Mr. Holmes and islanders coming to the display in the school are asked to bring that information with them in case it should be required.

Any resident who feels that his land is improperly classified as to its agricultural potential should submit a report, urged Holmes.

"Such cases will be checked and reported to regional or provincial officials," he told DRIFTWOOD.

Committee working on the land designation project includes Trevor Wheeldon, Salt Spring Island farmer-lawyer. His name was omitted from the original list of members.

1. Soils have no significant limitations for crops.
2. Soils have moderate limitations restricting the range of crops or require moderate conservation practices.
3. Soils have moderately severe limitations restricting range of crops or require special conservation practices.
4. Soils have severe limitations restricting range of crops or require special conservation practices or both.

Large scale maps showing every detail of the mooted Agricultural Land Reserves on Salt Spring Island will be on display in the high school gymnasium at Ganges from August 3 to August 15. Islanders are urged to visit the school and ascertain into which category their own property falls.

NOTE:

If a property is less than two acres in area it is not designated farmland wherever it might be located on the island.

Shaded areas include all categories of farmland proposed for designation as agricultural reserve on Salt Spring Island. The original map shows the various categories of land, but the camera did not distinguish between the colours. The categories are to be seen in the key at the top of the page.

Salt Spring Island includes 5,500 acres in categories 2 and 3 and 3,500 acres in category 4. The island committee has recommended that category 4 be eliminated from island maps on the grounds that efforts to irrigate any borderline farmland would jeopardize domestic supplies of water on the island.

Map is published by Driftwood as a guide and not an accurate indicator of boundary lines of mooted agricultural reserve land.

MAYNE BY ELSIE BROWN

Back on the island after a lovely holiday in Alberta, wild rose country. In spite of the superb scenery it will have to go some to beat Beautiful British Columbia. Travelling conditions were excellent and the old Chevy never let us down once. In spite of threats by friend husband to sell car and travel by bus or train (what am I saying?) I expect we will still continue to motor to the many points of interest to be seen in all the provinces of Canada.

First a thank-you to neighbors who tended the garden in our absence and minded house plants. The deer did get away with our roses but we can't complain, since that is the first time that has happened. Thanks Betty and Marguerite.

We saw a great difference in the work done on the New Horizons program, our Miniature Golf Course, under construction adjacent to the hall. Those responsible are Ward Drummond, Paddy Crawford, Gordon Hart and Les "Pop" Reimer. The 18 holes have been carefully laid out and interesting hazards are being incorporated. Fred Dodds is in charge of the project and there have been quite a number of "sidewalk superintendents". The course will be officially opened by Tommy Douglas, MP for the Islands at the Annual Fall Fair, August 18. A tournament will follow and is being looked forward to with a great deal of anticipation.

Work at the Museum at the former Mayne Island Gaol is progressing favorably. The surrounding area has been cleared and a fence built. Helping with the project are Ron Pither, Don Anderson, Laurice Mitchell, Bill Evans, and Georgie Jack. A few items still needed to complete the "furnishings" are: 2 - 36 inch mattresses, a male mannequin (to serve as prisoner), show cases with glass doors to house artifacts, any item with historical significance. All items loaned will be carefully guarded. Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Another New Horizon project which has been most successful is the Silver Maynes gardening venture. About 20 of the members staked a claim on the former Wilbert Deacon farm and proceeded to cultivate, sow, irrigate and generally do what needs to be done in a vegetable garden. A really worthwhile activity and the bountiful crop is a credit to the hard workers who were responsible for this first community garden.

FALL FAIR NEWS

Committees are hard at work making preparations for Mayne Island Annual Fall Fair which will take place on Saturday, August 18. A few items to keep in mind - will all those who have won cups or trophies at last year's fair please see that they are returned to the hall by August 15 or 16. Entry forms must be left at the hall not later than August 15 or 16. Entries must be at the hall before 10 pm, Friday, August 17 and paintings before noon, Friday.

Those who haven't picked up their entry forms at the stores may get them by contacting Mrs. Marjorie Haggart 539-2283.

The usual refreshment booths games, contests, interesting displays, etc. will be featured. Many and varied articles will be among the exhibits.

Valuable prizes may be won and all are welcome.

Remember the date: Saturday, August 18, 1:30 pm.

NEW HUNTING REGULATIONS ARE NEAR READY

The 1973-74 British Columbia Hunting Regulations have been printed and are now being distributed throughout the province.

Copies should be available from all Government Agents and licence issuers in the next few days.

Dr. James Hatter, Director, Fish and Wildlife Branch, stated that there are several changes in the regulations from last year and he urges all hunters to study the regulations before proceeding to hunt.

The monarch butterfly stores poisons in its body tissues which can make certain bird predators ill or can even kill them.

Quick, let me sketch this evening ere it dies!
Capture perfection for all time to be.
This beauty, though it fades before our eyes,
Will never fade in the heart's treasury.
Smooth is the water, but not mirror-smooth,
It still retains a life that is its own.
There, where a log drifts in the current swift,
And here and there a silver ripple lone.
Yet it is like a mirror, that has caught
And held reflected all the sunset glow.
Each rosy cloud sees here its counterpart,
And every green-decked island hill also,
Their beauty held in shining waters cool.
One rosy snowclad peak (no longer white)
Is dominating all the lovely scene
In this still golden hour before the night.

MPS AGAIN AFTER CLOSE FIGHT

TAKE PLAY-OFFS IN FAST VICTORIA GAME

Salties have taken the roller hockey play-offs in Victoria after winning every game. They have lost no game this season.

On Saturday, the All-Stars put up a good fight to make the last game of the play-offs the best of the season as the score seesawed back and forth, keeping the fans on the edge of their seats to the final whistle of the game.

Two fast goals by the All-Stars to start off the first period gave the Salties a real challenge and made all the players get in and dig to tie the score by the end of the period.

Only one goal was scored in the second period to give the Salties a 3 to 2 lead.

The Salties went ahead 4 - 2 early in the third period but the All Stars came right back to tie it up. The Salties finally came through with 2 more to finish the game 6 to 4.

Paddy Akerman was top scorer for the game with 4 of the goals to his credit. One each was scored by Rick and Karl Kitchen.

Assists went to Bernie Reynolds, Rick Kitchen and Karl Kitchen. All the Salties worked hard for this game and all deserve a pat on the back. The team thanks all its faithful fans for making the trek to Victoria to see the games and give their support and to everyone on the island who has helped out in any way, thanks again.

NOT MANY LIONS AT PICNIC ON SUNSET SUNDAY

Lions picnic was held Sunday, July 29, at the home of Norman Moutat on Sunset Drive.

The small turn-out had an enjoyable time. The children, in particular, enjoyed playing in the water.

There was one couple from as far away as California and Ross Blandie went home happily waving a Salt Spring pennant. The picnic supper was enjoyed, in between dodging wasps, reported a Lioness.

SATURNA

BY PAPAJOHN

Over for her holidays in her cottage on Bonnie Bank Road was Stella Coutts. She had her daughter Randy with her husband and Craig Robinson. Fred Robinson and his family were here as well. It was a gay week end for Stella.

Should have had this in several weeks ago but lost my notes. Taimi Hindmarch came home from a holiday in her native Finland. The Lutheran Church in Finland make a festival of St John's Day and Taimi had the pleasure of attending several services. The only trouble she found her Finnish was a little rusty but she had a grand visit with relatives. Wish I hadn't lost those notes, as Taimi had given me a very interesting account of her trip.

The Women's Bake Sale was a huge success, the goodies disappeared in short order. Uncle Art Ralph missed getting a pie by a few seconds. We managed to get some buns but you had to move fast to get what you wanted. Main trouble is that our Women's Club don't charge enough.

Jim and Louisa Gal Money had Lou's brother "Bubs" and wife Marg over for a visit. Then her twin brother Lloyd Cunningham arrived to visit with his son, Don. There were Cunningham's all over the place, but as Bubs and Lloyd are very old friends of ours we had a real gabfest talking over old times and old friends.

When Joe VanEssen went to go home last week end he found that his teenage daughter Debbie and her friend Brenda Stark had persuaded Al and Marg Kerr to let them stay there for a week. Marg took them into Sidney one day and they spent their spending money on presents for Marg and Al. Think the hosts enjoyed the week as much as the guests.

Across the creek from us Gwen and Dave Welch have built a nice new wharf. They come over in their own boat from Vancouver Island. Last week they brought over a sack of their own new SPUDS and are they delicious!

Two other young ladies who are old friends are Mary Dickey and sister Jean Grant who are spending their holidays at son Grant Dickey's cottage. Grant can't come over just yet as he broke a bone in his ankle so these young gals have to batch it.

The Colin Robertson Family from Toronto who have a cottage on Boot Cove are out for the summer again. At least their are no blackflies or mosquitoes around Boot Cove so guess the long trip is worth it, eh Colin.

Jack and Evelyn Saunders had a houseful, daughter Martha Brooks from New Brunswick and her family of Stephen and Michael. Daughter Kathy Saunders and son Jim Saunders, the happy occasion was to celebrate Jack and Evelyn's 40th wedding anniversary. So Steve and Myrtle Maskow who are perfect hosts had a small surprise party for them on Saturday night, with a few of our neighbors. Our Community Club Pres, in his own inimitable manner made an appropriate toast to Jack and Evelyn.

Tracy Pillsbury has her daughter Lucinda Buchanan with her for the summer. Also as guests last week she had two old friends from Los Altos, California for welcome visit, Dr. Earl and Ruth Anderson.

Walter and Daisy Bavis have their son Jim and wife Jody over for a holiday with their family, at Narvaez Bay. There is lots of wood to cut around there, Jim, so we hope you don't get too many blisters!

Alec and Emily (the house painter de luxe) Close had son Wayne with his wife Marg and granddaughter Krista over. She is cute but son Wayne won't be bringing her over too often if you keep him mixing cement, Alec. Also visitin' with Alec and Emily are Sandy and Molly Boyd from Vernon.

Every car on the island is the same color, a dusty brown. They are resurfacing the road from the wharf to Lyall Harbor, and the one consolation is that the buys causing all the dust are about the same color at the end of a day as our cars.

TWO ACCIDENTS AT GALIANO DURING PAST WEEK

There were two car mishaps on Galiano Island during the past week. Both involved only one car, and one man was sent to hospital.

On Monday night, Henry Head was driving to the main road from Galiano Lodge way, and he made a complete turn around the power pole, his car coming to rest right on top of a truck, which was parked in the Chevron parking lot below the top road. Some damage resulted to both vehicles.

On Sunday morning, a small car went off the road near the Gustin home on the North End Road. Driver was taken to hospital, but no further information was available at press time. Car was wrecked.

HOW CAN I???

Q. How can I improvise a surface level when I want to make certain that a piece of furniture or large appliance is standing level?

A. Use an ordinary glass measuring cup that has markings on both sides. If this cup is filled with water to any one of the marks, it will show that the surface is level when the water contacts the marks on all sides.

Q. What is a quick and easy way to deal with pencil marks on wallpaper?

A. Best and easiest is with an art-gum eraser.

Q. How can I clean stained kid gloves?

A. Ordinary cleaning fluid will usually do a good job, but if none is at hand, you can use some cuticle remover.

Q. How can I make a better job of repairing loosened legs on chairs or tables?

A. By adding a small amount of sawdust to the glue you're using.

Q. How can I clean a suede jacket?

A. Best of all is professional treatment. But if you want to try it yourself, one method that is often effective consists of rubbing the suede thoroughly with a mixture of equal parts fuller's earth and alum, then following with a good brushing.

Q. What can I do about light scorch stains on linens?

A. Sometimes the rubbing of a cut onion over these stains will solve this problem. Follow by soaking the linen in cold water, then laundering.

Q. How can I clean a suede jacket?

A. Best of all is professional treatment. But if you want to try it yourself, one method that is often effective consists of rubbing the suede thoroughly with a mixture of equal parts fuller's earth and alum, then following with a good brushing.

Biggest news at this end of Saturna is the return of Art Waldron to the Lighthouse; he has been away for a month. When asked why he didn't phone several friends while in Vancouver, he had 1,000 reasons. I'm still waiting to hear even one. The Chapman family and a new helper, Ron Ginter by name, have been keeping the light burning brightly while Art has been gone.

Guests of the Chapman family are daughter, Corinne and husband, from Vancouver.

Summer season is in full swing at East Point, with visitors coming from everywhere. Visiting Les and Hilda Crosby are son, Alan and family from San Diego, Calif. The family are wife, Janet and children, Jeffrey, Mark and Angela. For two weeks Les has had his annual diet of fish, fried, boiled or stewed. I expect he is glad to go back to pork chops and hamburgers.

The Vincents recently returned from a wonderful trip, on which they visited Jasper, Banff, Winnipeg, Toronto and Montreal and a lot of Canada in between. They are entertaining Mrs. Teresa "Pat" McCarthy, from Sacramento, and Mrs. Dot Griffiths of Santa Barbara. Both their visitors went home singing praises of island life.

Doug and Betty Collins entertained at the cocktail hour to celebrate their new "addition". Doug has added a sundeck to their cottage. It is the first

Frank and Loretta Tomlin have arrived with their boat, which has just been overhauled and a diesel engine with outboard drive installed. They will spend summer at their home. Frank will, no doubt, be out fishing while Loretta tends the garden.

Jon is busy with Canada Games, where he is one of the technical advisers. Shelagh was also here for a week end from the Vancouver General Hospital. Then came son Matthew. Wish he'd stay away! Rest of the East Pointers are all having a fine summer so far and if the weather stays as it is there will be some fine sun tans when the time comes for those summer people to return to their winter homes. Our only gripe so far is the transients who come to the island for a day or two and light open fires, anywhere they happen to squat. All this island needs is a forest fire at this time, so let's all be careful.

Just heard a good piece of news: Wendel Peake is home from hospital after undergoing a major operation.

Dr. and Mrs. Radke are entertaining Mrs. Radke's father from Newcastle, Australia. He will be leaving soon for home and, needless to say, he has enjoyed his visit to the islands.

AT GALIANO HALL

PLANS LAID FOR SEVENTH SHOW

Arrangements for the seventh annual Arts, Crafts and Hobby Show were finalized at the monthly executive meeting of the Galiano Club last week.

Vice-chairman Corrine Snell will be general convener, assisted by committee members Mrs F.E. Robson, Mrs. J. Bickerton, Miss Jean Lockwood and Mrs. M.

Backlund. Mrs. Lorna Tweedale will supervise the hanging of the paintings, which form the nucleus of the event.

Spinning and weaving with island wool will be demonstrated by members of the Weavers and Spinners Guild, and it is expected there will be a good display of ceramics from local potters such as Richard Hawbolt and Charles and Kathleen Partington.

Work on sanding and refinishing the community hall floor is now completed.

The committee heard a progress report from the sub-committee under Arthur Platt who are studying the feasibility of establishing a new community centre. Reports are still coming in from local builders on the condition of the present hall, together with estimates of the cost of bringing it up to standard. Letters have been sent to all community organizations asking for their view as to the most important requirements for such a centre. The findings and recommendations will be presented to a public meeting early in the fall.

A People's Market will be held in the hall on Sunday, August 12. The Galiano Club will be handling the bingo concession at the Lions Galiano Fiesta on August 18.

Fernwood

BY JESSIE SAYER

Mr. and Mrs. David Parrish of Vancouver, spent a short time visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Griffin, who took them on a tour of the island and enjoyed a picnic at Ruckle Park.

Tom Smith, accompanied by his son, Gerald and daughter-in-law, Patricia, all of Calgary spent a pleasant holiday at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. Adams of North Beach Road.

They all travelled up Vancouver Island for a few days then came back to Fernwood to relax and enjoy the sunshine and activity on Trincomali Channel. The channel is really busy at this time of year with yachts and freighters.

The sympathy of the neighbourhood is extended to Mrs. Jackson Butler and family in the sudden death of her husband on Friday evening.

Most of Canada's forests came in after the last ice age, only 15,000 years ago.

PASTOR DAVID G. LOW

A few years ago I participated in a religious survey, where we asked a cross section of today's society some religiously based questions to determine the trend of religion today.

Two very interesting questions we asked were: (1) Are you a Christian? and (2) How do you define or become a Christian?

The majority of people figured that they were Christians but 50% of them didn't know what a Christian is or how you can become one. Most of the rest answered one of the following: Join a church; Be baptized; Live a good life; Obey the ten commandments; Go to church regularly; follow the teachings and example of Christ.

All of the above are things people either do or try to do. They reflect the idea that eternal life in heaven is a reward to be won.

Jesus said that you have eternal life if you get to know Jesus Christ, the one God sent to earth. (John 17:3) In Romans 6:23 eternal life is said to be a free gift. A gift is something you don't work for. In Ephesians 2:8, 9 we find the reason that God will freely give us eternal life if we accept Jesus is so that we cannot boast or say we deserve God's love and salvation.

If you are trying to earn or merit your way to heaven you can never be sure that you have achieved your goal because if you're honest with yourself you will realize that you are not good enough to measure up to God's perfect standards.

Knowing that man has tried and failed to completely measure up to his standard, God sent his son Jesus to die, so that no matter how bad or good we may be or think we are, we can all obtain eternal life and thus become true Christians.

Christ paid for eternal life by His blood, and now He offers it to us as a free gift. By simply recognizing our need of a Divine Saviour and by accepting God's payment for our sins and our salvation, the matter of our eternal destiny is immediately resolved.

"Behold I stand at the door and knock, if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in." (Revelation 3:20)

CAPITAL REGIONAL SUMMARY

REVIEW OF LAND ROUTINES

BY JACK FRY

By now, a lot of people have probably become thoroughly confused about such things as the Environment and Land Use Act, the Land Commission Act, the freeze and subsequent thaw on subdivision and construction on farm land, and the agricultural land reserve plan, and this is probably a good time to present a brief summary of what has transpired.

In the first place, the former Provincial Government brought in an Environment and Land Use Act in the winter Session of the 1971 Legislature, authorizing the establishment of an Environment and Land Use Committee which would consist of a number of cabinet ministers. This committee was given the responsibility of ensuring that all aspects of preservation and maintenance of the natural environment were fully considered in the administration of land use and resource development. The committee was also authorized to make recommendations to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council regarding any matter relating to environment, development and land use.

A new government elected in August, 1972, appointed its own cabinet ministers to a newly constituted Environment and Land Use Committee.

Acting upon a recommendation initiated by the Honourable David Stupich, Minister of Agriculture and a member of this committee, the cabinet passed an Order-in-Council which was approved on December 21st, 1972, by the Lieutenant-Governor, to the effect that "... from December 11, 1972 and henceforth until further order... all subdivisions of farm land, including all lands deemed by the Committee to be suitable for cultivation of agricultural crops... be prohibited."

On January 18th, 1973, the Lieutenant-Governor signed a second cabinet order which defined the intent of the previous order. At this time, it was decided that the development freeze applied only to farm land two acres or more in size and to non-agricultural development on such land.

Developments proposed for agri-

NEW HIGHWAY ENGINEER FOR ISLANDS DISTRICT

New district engineer has been touring the Outer Islands by Department of Highways helicopter. He is George Harper.

quarters staff in Victoria; George Harper, new Superintendent of Saanich District; Doug Erickson Foreman at Galiano Island; Eric cultural purposes would now be permitted, as would any other development which had been "substantially commenced before the 21st day of December, 1972." Persons who felt aggrieved by the government's actions were now also permitted to appeal directly to the Environment and Land Use Committee.

On June 4th, 1973, another cabinet order signed by the Lieutenant-Governor amended the January 18th order, to the effect that one single family dwelling per lot could be built on agricultural land; providing it would be eligible for the Home Owner Grant. This meant that if authorization to subdivide had been obtained prior to December 21st, one single family dwelling could now be built on each lot within that subdivision, without having to go to the cabinet committee for permission.

Meanwhile, of course, the government had introduced and amended a Land Commission Act, which was approved by the Legislature and later brought into effect (with the exceptions of Sections 8, 12 and 16 which have yet to be proclaimed) by proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor in Cabinet Order No. 1662/73 dated May 18th, 1973. This Act authorized the establishment of a Land Commission, to be appointed by Cabinet and to be responsible for fostering the preservation of farmland, including the designation of agricultural land reserves. The Land Commission Act also requires each regional district in British Columbia to prepare an agricultural land reserve plan to be submitted to the Commission for its consideration.

The Capital Regional District Board decided at a regular Board meeting on May 23rd to instruct its staff to proceed with the preparation of a land reserve plan under the provisions of the Land Commission Act. On June 11th, members of the Land Commission met with members of the Regional Board and member municipalities to discuss procedures and techniques related to this undertaking. At its regular meeting on June 13, the Regional Board then decided it would prepare a draft land reserve plan, refer it to the member areas for their examination and then consider whatever changes might be suggested from the member areas, prepare a by-law regarding the adoption of a land reserve plan, hold a public hearing and possibly make further revisions to the by-law, then bring the by-law before the board for reconsideration and final adoption, after which it would be forwarded to the Land Commission.

NO NIGHT CAMPERS, PLEASE!

Parks branch of the department of recreation and conservation is looking askance at Mouat Park in Ganges.

In a letter to the Joint Sponsored Committee at Ganges, enquiring into park disorders, the department has criticized the cost of maintaining the park.

Cost of maintaining 15 camp sites at Mouat Park seems out of proportion to the worth of keeping them for the type of park user attracted to these parks in recent years.

The park would be better taken over by the Capital Regional District and operated as a day-park only, with no overnight camping, the committee was told.

Heading the committee is Jim Wilkinson, of Mobrae.

BY MARY BACKLUND

With the greatest of pleasure I went to the biggest tea party in British Columbia, held at Government House, on July 18. I was there with about 3,000 other invited guests.

Lieutenant-Governor Walter Owen and his charming wife shook hands with all of us, and we were glad to have a cup of tea, some sandwiches, and walk around the grounds, to see and be seen.

Most of us found some shade from the boiling hot sun, and listened to the music of the Naden Band. It seemed to me that styles were much more formal this year, with many more ladies wearing hats, and men in formal morning suits. The scarlet and gold of the R. C. M. P. uniforms stood out well, blending with soft colors of the long gowns of the ladies.
