Anderson hurt

Pinned down by tree

Bob Anderson, Salt Spring Island athlete and sports coach was seriously injured on Saturday afternoon when he was pinned to the ground by a falling tree.

He was rushed to Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria with internal injuries.

Anderson was assisting in the removal of a tree from the grounds of the Catholic church of Our Lady of Grace on Drake Road when the tree swung towards him. He attempted to run clear and tripped. The tree came down on top of him.

On Tuesday he was reported to be making good progress.

Bob Anderson is the Gulf Islands Terminal Agent for B. C. Ferries.

November 16 Big Day

BIGGEST ELECTION EVER FOR ISLANDS

- 30 CANDIDATES FOR 15 SEATS

Islands have never seen an election to rival the November 16 polling for trustees on school board and Islands Trust.

There are 30 candidates among the islands vying for 15 seats. On the Penders electors will name four local trustees

EARLY BIRD IS CHICK

A Chick was the Early Bird. Winner of the first $100 prize in the Salt Spring Rotary Club Grey Cup Luncheon is Romeo Chick, of Chemainus.

A member of the Rotary Club in the Vancouver Island community, Romeo Chick won the first Grey Cup prize of $1,000 several years ago. He has also won a subsequent prize in the annual program.

BUILDING REPORT COVERS NINE MONTHS

Year brings 170 new homes to Islands

Total of 170 new homes are rising on the Gulf Islands since the beginning of the year. These include 90 on Salt Spring Island and 80 on the Outer Islands.

In September there were 13 new homes on Salt Spring and eight on the Outer Islands.

Value of the new islands homes is estimated by the Capital Regional district at $4,471,017 for the first nine months of the year.

Of this total, $2,590,645 is the value of Salt Spring construction and $1,850,372 refers to the Outer Islands.

The values do not include plumbing and other minor permits.

On Salt Spring Island 12 mobile homes were approved. Only other island to see the construction of mobile homes was Saturna, with one.

No duplexes or multiple dwellings have been undertaken on the islands and one home was moved on Salt Spring and another on Galiano.

At the top end of the scale stands Salt Spring with its 90 new homes, 12 mobile homes, one dwelling moved and five commercial projects, to total 103 homes and five commercial structures.

Next in volume is Pender, with 36 homes and one commercial permit. On Mayne there have been 22 permits for single family dwellings and Galiano, 16. There were six on Saturna and one each on Gossip and Wise Islands.

Salt Spring saw the issue of permits for 13 single family dwellings, two mobile homes and two commercial buildings during the month of September. They were valued at $399,054.

In September the total value of Outer Islands permits stood at $165,900. These figures covered three single family dwellings on Pender, four on Mayne and one on Galiano as well as a mobile home at Saturna.

TWO ISLANDS TO VOTE ON SCHOOLS

There will be an election on two of the Gulf Islands on November 16 to name trustees to the Gulf Islands School Board.

School board candidates are listed as follows, with the names of the sponsors of each.

PENDER

Robert Russell - nominated by David W. Davidson and Alex MacKinnon.

SALT SPRING ISLAND

There will be no election on Galiano, where Mrs. Claire McAllister was re-elected on Monday by acclamation.

PRESIDENTS BREAK FAST SATURDAY

On Saturday morning presidents of Salt Spring Island organizations, or the nominees of island associations will gather in the Ganges Crest for the Presidents' Breakfast.

The breakfasts were established several years ago by the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce, when Spencer Marr was president.

Purpose is to enable community organizations to correlate their plans and programs.

The breakfasts have been suspended for several months and are being reinstated at the specific request of a number of community groups.

If attendance merits their continuation, they will become, once again, a regular feature of the Salt Spring Island calendar.

Saturday's breakfast in the Ganges Crest Restaurant will commence at 8.30 am.

CURTIS: SOCIAL CREDIT MLA

Hugh Curtis announced last week end that he is no longer a member of the provincial Progressive Conservatives and has joined the Social Credit opposition party.

Mr. Curtis was elected two years ago in a hard fight against the Social Credit candidate.

The provincial member announced that he believes that the Social Credit party is the only means of ridding the province of the present socialist government.

He announced his plans of serving the people of British Columbia by strengthening the Social Credit party.

It is not a sudden surprise move. Curtis has spoken of it for several months.

Former chairman of the Capital Regional District and former mayor of Saanich, Curtis had a wide acquaintance with his riding before coming to provincial office.

Islander among winners

Frank Gelmetti, of Schooner Way on North Pender Island is in the running for a quarter-million.

Mr. Gelmetti holds ticket No. 3337595 in the Western Canada Lottery. He is one of the eight finalists who will win, at most, $250,000 and, at least, $25,000. The final draw will be made on Saturday Nov. 2 in Winnipeg and the event will be seen on television, at 4.30 pm.

The event will be a half-hour special on CBC and the host will be Monty Hall.

SCHOOLS COSTS UP BY 30%

Gulf Islands School District budget is up by 30% this year.

Without going into details, trustees of the district last week agreed that the budget is inflated in the face of inflation.

Almost every source of supply is "grossly inflated", reported Finance Chairman E. R. Dixon.

and one school trustee.

At Salt Spring Island two local trustees and two school trustees must be elected.

Saturna, Mayne and Galiano will elect two local trustees for each island.

In addition to the balloting, voters on Salt Spring Island will also be invited to approve a half-mill increase in recreation levy to provide for augmented facilities.

Candidates named for the Islands Trust are listed as follows, with the names of their sponsors. Each candidate must be nominated by two citizens.

These are the candidates for the Islands Trust on each of the islands, with the names of their sponsors:

AFTER PRELIMINARY REPORT

Alternative class to be analyzed

Preliminary report on the alternative class at Salt Spring Elementary school is a question mark.

On Wednesday afternoon last week trustees of the Gulf Islands School District heard a report from acting district superintendent Ted Kellow that the class is not accomplishing what it set out to do, that it's not clear what it set out to do, but that there is no reason why it should not work.

The enrolment stands at 15, when the minimum enrolment acceptable is set at 20, he reported. In addition, the original written outline of what the class was intended to accomplish is not sufficiently clear. The philosophy should be more clearly established and the meaning of terms used in the establishment of the class should be precisely laid out.

"There are things that are good," noted the superintendent, "and the basis is a good one."

Report will be passed to the assessment committee for a final report to the school trustees at their next meeting.

The superintendent explained that the trustees could readily establish a clearer basis and continue the class on clearly defined terms.

Decision will be made by the board after the committee has considered it.

Committee includes the superintendent, the class teacher, Principal R. D. McWhirter, Trustees Sheila Fraser and Nonie Guthrie and Doug Rhodes. Mr. Rhodes represents the parents whose children are attending the alternative system.

ED RICHARDSON CALLED BY DEATH

Retired pharmacist who had worked hard in the Salt Spring Island community, Edward Alexander ("Ed") Richardson died peacefully at his Vesuvius Bay home on Tuesday, Oct. 22.

Mr. Richardson was a familiar figure in Ganges, where he put in considerable time at Ganges Pharmacy.

He was a charter member of the Salt Spring Island Lions Club and a past president of the Salt Spring Golf and Country Club.

He came to the island from the mainland, where he had previously engaged in community affairs. He was a past president of the Kinsmen Club and had served as a Rotarian in Chilliwack.

Ed Richardson was in his 75th year.

He leaves his wife, Margaret ("Peg"), at home and a brother, Robert, in Vancouver.

Donations were invited, in lieu of flowers, to the BC Cancer Fund, 1900 Fort St., Victoria.

Funeral arrangements were by Goodman Funeral Home, in Ganges.

ARTISTS SHOWING IN CITY

Display of island skills opened in Victoria last week. It will close on Saturday.

Richard Hawbolt is exhibiting his pottery in conjunction with a showing of Shari Street photographs at the Potters Wheel in Nootka Court, on Courtney St.

Both exhibitors are from Galiano and both are widely known in their respective fields.

BURGLARS SAW OFF PADLOCK

Burglars armed with a hacksaw forced their way into a Salt Spring Island cabin and stole chainsaw and a pair of binoculars.

The Collins Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rush was the target of the thieves, last week.

They hack-sawed through the lock at the top of the road in order to reach the cabin, reports Mr. Rush.

RCMP at Ganges are investigating.

MUSING

Sit now and then in your easy chair, and let the world go by -
 Just what is the goal you hope to achieve, on earth, before you die?
 Is it your wish to be famous, to be known the whole world over?
 Or will you settle for simple things, like the scent of the purple clover?
 Would you have men revere you in awe at your wondrous skill?
 Or would you be content to sit and heed the cry of the whipoorwill?
 Some of us must be famous, there's something driving us ever,
 But I'll be content to stand and applaud the workers so strong and clever!

DIVISION 8
 Spurs 3; Rangers 0, at home.
 Without a doubt the best game of the season to date.

The Spurs played like a winning team and it's just as well they did. The Rangers had some very fleet-footed youngsters able to dribble the ball well and if our boys hand't worked together, the score would have been very different.

The group of spectators, the largest we have had, saw the Spurs playing position well and enjoyed some very good passing plays.

Watch this space for the names of the boys who will receive their badges for team-spirit and sportsmanship.

PROVINCIAL REPRESENTATION

Gulf Islands once again have a Social Credit member to speak for them in the provincial legislature. With no effort on the part of voters, they lost their Progressive Conservative member and gained a Social Credit supporter overnight.

Mr. Hugh Curtis, who wrested the Saanich-Islands seat from the Social Credit party in the last provincial election and took it on behalf of the Tories has now changed his allegiance to Social Credit. A number of his supporters in the riding have changed with him.

Mr. Curtis was unlikely to find himself in the government benches while he remained a member of the two-man, now one-man, Conservative party. While elections are any man's guess, it is likely that the Islands member will find himself in the government benches after the next election.

Mr. Curtis has been mooted as a prospective Social Credit member for several months. In making the switch he explained that he felt that the New Democrat government must be defeated and that the Social Credit is the only party capable of making the government in an election.

He is also supporting the widely-held theory that the resuscitation of the Tories was a temporary return from the dead. In the last election Mr. Curtis and his party leader, Dr. Scot Wallace were the first two Tories to take their seats in the House for two decades. The once-powerful provincial party had lost its image at the collapse of the Coalition government and, with the rise of Social Credit, promptly lost its membership.

Mr. Curtis has stated that he will fight to have his views impressed on Social Credit policies. Two decades ago Social Credit was fighting to impress its policies on Conservative supporters.

The coincidence almost takes the islands back to the fifties. It was in the early fifties that the islands were part of the Nanaimo provincial constituency and that Dr. Larry Giovando relinquished his Conservative party membership and became an independent. Thus the islands were once the last stronghold of Conservatism in a rapidly Social Creditizing province. This week it proved to be the last but one. Oak Bay holds the former Islands record.

There is no doubt but that if the Social Credit party forms the next government, then the islands will be well-represented and may well enjoy the distinction once again of being represented by a cabinet minister.

Letters to the Editor

DAY CARE CENTRE

Sir,
 At a recent meeting of the S.S.I. Day Care Society, we agreed, through the courtesy of your paper, to answer some of the criticisms, implicit or explicit, levelled by the well-meaning or ill-disposed, at Day Care Centres in general. This is not a political issue. One party may well be more aware than another of people's needs, but Day Care Centres exist all over the world under many forms of government, from extreme left to radical right, proving a universal need.

Day Care Centres are not run for the convenience of parents who wish to escape responsibility for their children. Day Care Centres are set up and maintained for the benefit of children, providing scope for socialization impossible for most children in the home. They contain equipment for play, exercise and creativity beyond the reach of most families. They are staffed, not by commissars, but by well-trained, concerned, loving child experts who can be of the greatest help to parents, many of whom are too engrossed in the daily problems of living to be totally aware of the problems or potentialities of their young children. Surveys prove that children exposed to organized, well-informed pre-school activity adjust better to the public school situation than those who go straight from the home environment to association with a large number of other children in an unfamiliar setting.

Most of us have cherished a mental picture of the ideal family: devoted husband and wife, mutually supportive and jointly caring for their children in an atmosphere of love and awareness of each other's needs. Some of us have shed our rose-coloured glasses; others have had them rudely removed. We are aware of the realities of life. We know that many parents do not appreciate the needs of their children. We know that many young parents are unable to cope with their own problems, let alone those of their offspring. We know the rising incidence of single parents who are unsupported in their efforts to raise and provide for their children. We know the increase in the numbers of battered children. Those of us not in these unfortunate situations are still aware that other, specially trained people, can contribute to our children's well-being and welfare. If the home could ever be the single source of nurture and sustenance, there would be no need for any other services... schools, clinics or churches, for example.

We are concerned, I repeat, with the good of the children. We believe that most children benefit from the company of other children. We believe that visiting between homes is not as beneficial to a young child as being care for, perhaps as little as one or two days a week, in a well-structured, specially designed environment with specially qualified people.

It is precisely because we know the importance of the pre-school years (the Day Care Society came out of the 0-6 Study Group) that we on this island are trying, in spite of an obstructive bureaucracy in Victoria, to establish a Day Care Centre here. We are not in the business of compelling parents to send their children away from home. We are hopefully going to provide additional opportunities for any children: those whose parents need additional support, and those who realise what benefits their children will obtain from attending a Day Care Centre.

DON'T FEED THEM!

Sir,
 I am extremely saddened today, to see that I still have two hummingbirds in my garden. These little birds should have flown south nearly two months ago. I feel that these are juvenile birds, without the developed migratory sense of the adult birds, who have been trapped by the hummingbird feeders that I see still hanging in so many places. The best intentioned people in the world (who profess to love hummingbirds!) are going to doom the species to extinction with these gadgets. These two in my garden will never go south, they will die here some frosty night.

What most people do not realize is that young birds very easily become accustomed to coming to a feeder and the parent birds do not teach them to find food in flowers, thus when the flowers stop producing nectar with the coming of fall and the birds migrate, as nature has been dictating for thousands of years, some of these young ones with a false sense of security, stay behind and will die. This is a subject I feel very strongly about. I think I have made myself unpopular with many friends and acquaintances by speaking out about hummingbird feeders. In the early spring when the birds first come I think they benefit from a feeder if the spring is cold and wet, as the past one was. Once the flowers come out I think the feeders should be put away till the next spring. The natural diet of hummingbirds is not refined white sugar and water. It is nectar of various kinds plus aphids, mosquitoes, small spiders, pollen, etc.

There are so many things that can be done to attract the hummingbirds: plant a wild red currant bush, a trumpet vine, a honeysuckle vine, a summer jasmine, a basket of fuchsias in a shady spot, a tub of geraniums or salvia in a sunny spot, a tub, bed, or border of petunias or a row or teepee of scarlet runner beans (these last not only give the grower delicious green beans for the season but also produce their scarlet blooms until the end of summer, and the hummers love them).

(Mrs.) Mary Mollet,
 Fulford Harbour,
 October 24, 1974.

DEPTH OF COMPASSION

Sir,
 I'm writing this in the hope that you will publish it and thus allow me to publicly express the deep gratitude of my wife and myself to all those who rescued and assisted our daughter Janet when she broke her leg while visiting Mayne Island Oct. 13.

As you reported in your Oct. 16 issue, Janet was injured when she fell, and her young friend went for help but was unable to recall the exact spot where Janet was waiting, unable to move. It took hours of searching by the Mayne Island Fire Department and a number of volunteers to find her.

So we offer our thanks to Fire Chief Paddy Lambert, Al Brau, Ken Smith, Colin McKenzie, Ian Cocker, Fred Bennett Jr., Bob Poole and Nigel Phillips, and the others who assisted but may not have been named in the Driftwood, plus the doctors and nurses at Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital.

We feel that the actions of everyone involved showed not only skill and persistence but a real depth of compassion that is all too rare in the world.

Sincerely,
 Tony and Dorothy Eberts,

THREE NEW BUSES NEEDED

Three new school buses will be needed on Salt Spring Island over the next three years. Bob Marshall, trustee heading the transportation committee told Gulf Islands School Board last week that the buses on Salt Spring Island are old and have a big mileage. They are also running out of parts.

Trustees also heard from Trustee candidate Mrs. Ann Foerster that Saanich School District recently took delivery of a school bus after waiting two years for it.

FRENCH DRIVERS, PERFUME AND

Bright summer and a quick view of another world was Ivor Cawker's holiday this year.

Ganges postmaster and his wife took a quick trip to Europe by charter line. They left Vancouver in company with about 448 other passengers on a plane and landed in London.

After a cursory check of the British capital, they looked to the rural areas and headed out to Penzance in the south-west corner of the island. That was good. They landed in the community on "half-day closing". Even the hotels were closed. After some effort they found a good hotel and enjoyed their experience of the pirates' haunt of Cornwall.

Back to London was back to France, for that was their next call. Mrs. Cawker's forebears hail from France and they gradually visited her family's home.

The Ganges couple rented a U-drive and found the French drivers had changed very little from reports of old. They followed the crowd, going round in circles until they found where the rest of the traffic was heading. In Paris they found a very ancient hotel, of several centuries' history. The accommodation was excellent.

recalls Ivor, except for the climb up a spiral metal staircase to the toilets and baths.

The hotel spelled the European continental pattern: no television or radio. Prices were not out of sight and in Paris they were paying about $22 for the room.

Tragedy struck in Paris. There was no radio, no television, no comprehensible newspapers and, hence, no report on the Russian game.

The couple looked at everything and drove everywhere. From Paris they set out for Marseilles, where they met Mrs. Cawker's relatives. It was the time of the international trade show in the southern port and it put the PNE in Public meeting to consider ne

What services are needed on Salt Spring Island?

A meeting has been called for Friday, Nov. 1, at 8 pm in Room 4 of the high school, by the local interim committee on Human Resources. All islanders are urged to attend and express their opinions.

For the last few months a group of Salt Spring residents have been meeting as a transitional group to start community participation in the development of a program of needed services for the island.

This was in response to an initiative of the Provincial Department of Human Resources, which, last year, introduced legislation creating local community boards to develop local community plans for social services, and then administer these programs at the grass roots level.

The Salt Spring interim committee has spent time and energy exploring ideas and possible projects which might fill local needs and find support in the community.

As someone already familiar with many of these needs, and well trained in the field, Mrs. Annabella Savage was asked to form the trial committee and she in turn helped to select a group consisting of Agnes Bacon, Sherrill Cook, Steve Anderson, Dr. Bill Schoichet, Hank Schubart, Geoff Martin, Norma Barrington and Michael Hogan.

Workshops for the handicapped, day care for children, the food co-operative, transportation and other help for older people, and housing for low income residents were some of the topics considered.

As the discussions progressed, it was evident that, in order to have the projects funded by the department there would have to be some legal entity created, such as a non-profit society, to receive and dispense funds.

On & Off The Island

M. Robert and Vivienne La-Pointe, of Longueil, P.Q., visited over the week end with the Jeff Cues at Greenspring Farm.

Miss Rita Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rogers, attended the wedding of her brother, Earl Rogers at Kamloops. Also attending were Misses Bonnie Buitenwerf and Janeke Buitenwerf. John Hill of Whitehorse, Yukon, was recently home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill, Churchill Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Underwood and daughter, Barbara, of Langley, were visiting their relatives on Salt Spring Island during the week end.

Mrs. Stanley Rogers slipped and broke her leg last week. She was treated at Lady Minto Hospital and returned home with a cast on her leg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McRae of West Vancouver were visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Humphreys over the week end.

Mrs. M. Acheson, of Ganges is a patient in Lady Minto Hospital.

Bob Anderson is a patient in the Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria.

Guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stevens, Quebec Drive, for the last month was Mrs. L. Wynne of Llandudno, Wales.

After going up in the mountains to Mrs. Cawker's ancestral home, they visited a number of features of the French community. A glass factory was of interest and minimal expense. Not so the parfumerie.

None of the members of the interim committee felt he wanted to undertake the formation of such a society without a mandate and terms of reference from the community at large. It was therefore agreed that a public meeting, well advertised, should be held to let Salt Spring residents be heard, to elect a permanent committee and to work out their own program.

Representatives of the provincial Human Resources Department, Regional Director, Al Molberg and Regional Social Worker, Les MacDonald, will be present at the meeting to help answer questions and provide information.

a place like that," he warned Salt Spring Island Rotarians last week. "It comes expensive!"

Less of a strain was buying ham rolls.

Ivor Cawker was intrigued with the French idea of a ham sandwich. They take a long loaf and cut off about half of it. Then they slice it, stuff it with ham and put it together. He was near to drooling over the recollection.

"It's a good meal and a filling one," he told Rotarians.

They rid themselves of the Renault U-drive in the south of France and visited Monaco. Princess Grace was out, he reported.

They came back on the first leg of their journey home by train to Frankfurt. The journey was boring and the train was full. In the German city they had reservations at the Hotel Victoria, which was good. They were in the midst of Pornogrovia where no restaurant had made its home. So they settled for beer.

The journey to England was across the stormy Channel and it was a storm for real.

Back in London they found Carnaby St. and became authorities on the way-out clothing district, even take other visitors to see it. They did not report buying any way-out modes. The traveller certainly didn't wear anything startling when he addressed his fellow club-members.

Final highlight of the holiday was a few days in Cardiff, where is located the largest shopping centre in Britain, with about 150 stores in the same mall.

Then it was a flight back to Vancouver and home. -F.G.R

MIKE CLEMENT NOMINATED AS

FIFTH ENTRY IN TRUSTEE RACE

Fifth entry into the Islands Trust election on Salt Spring Island is V. H. "Mike" Clement, of Rourke Road.

Clement is a quantity surveyor and appraiser who has spent the past quarter-century in the construction industry. He retired to Salt Spring Island two years ago with his wife, Josie and since retirement has been working all over the province.

Mike Clement served in the British army during the Second World War until 1943 when he sustained an injury while serving as a gunner in the Royal Artillery.

An insurance man training as an actuary before the war, he learned surveying with the army. He entered the construction industry during the later years of the war and was engaged in the construction of the Mulberry Harbour floating dock used in the invasion of Normandy.

He studied quantity surveying and other aspects of construction at the University of London. He had already done an extension course in commerce at the same institution before the war.

Later, in 1951 he took an appraisal course at the University of Southern California and he did a further course at the University of Washington in 1960.

In the late sixties he switched from taking courses to instructing and offered courses in quantity surveying and estimating at the BC Vocational School as well as courses in Estimating for the Mechanical Trades at the Vancouver City

V. H. MIKE CLEMENT

College.

Biggest project he has been associated with, recalls Clement, was the erection of 30,000 new houses in England at the end of the war. The 30,000 homes were built over two and a half years.

In latter years he has supervised building projects, always primarily concerned with the financial administration.

Living in retirement on Salt Spring Island he has been commuting to north Vancouver Island to supervise construction of a recreation complex. In addition, he is associated with Aage Villadsen in the planning of the Lions Recreation Complex.

Mr. Clement has been active in community affairs in various parts of the province. He was one of the sponsors of the Saanich Voters' Association many years ago, near Victoria.

Mike Clement explains that he came to the island because he liked the atmosphere and that he feels that the amenities of the island must be safeguarded. Keenly aware of the demands of conservation, he believes that his professional experience can be put to good use if he should be chosen as a local trustee for Salt Spring Island.

WORKERS ARE LISTED

Takes a lot to stage play

BY BUILLE LIBRESCO

A play is many things, not the least of which is all the work that the audience never actually sees happening. The production of "Harvey", scheduled to be performed by the Salt Spring Players, November 20 through 23 proves this!

Myriad activities, with many islanders participating, are taking place backstage in order to support the cast and provide our community with a funny, sophisticated, fantastic tale about a very tall, very elusive rabbit.

Mahon Hall, the setting for this production, will have a new interior face, thanks to a crew who painted; and clean window hangings, thanks to Lillian Johnson, who stomped the dirt out of the old blue curtains, in her own bath-tub.

If backstage is busy, so is up front. The players, who have been rehearsing several times a week, are going into Act III, learning lines, and gestures and perfecting their timing, so crucial in a comedy.

Here follows a list of the people working on Harvey.

Yvonne Toynbee is director Her assistant is Margaret Cunningham.

Cast includes Gwen Hind-Smith, Ron Pithky, Harvey Hendrickson, Lanny Howard, Michael Doherty, Susan Talman, Pat Desbottes, Dave Phillips, Brian Smith and Margaret Howell.

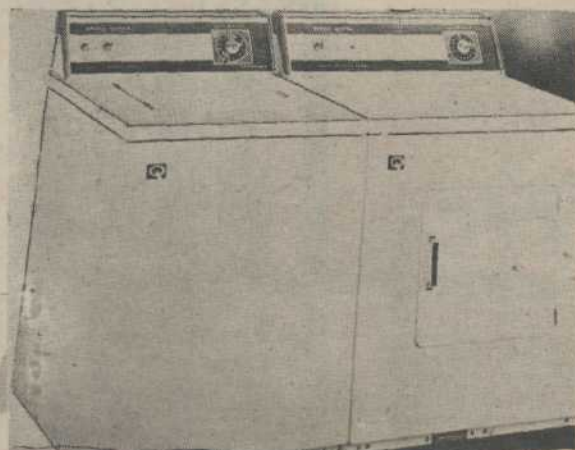

Charlotte Keeping is set designer; Jean Anderson, stage manager; Catherin Faulkner, tickets; Wilf Peck, stage carpentry and lighting; Jessie Peck, props; Martin Ogilvie, lighting; Don Cunningham, photography; Reg Keeton, stage carpentry.

Jean Rowell, Prue Wheeler and Annette Keeping are looking after make-up. Betty McIsaac is in costumes and Guille Libresco, publicity.

Nigel Desbottes is engaged in carpentry; Lillian Johnson, sets, costumes; Tom Toynbee stage carpentry; Norman Hind Smith, programs; Theresa Rooke, sound effects and Hans Plumbeck, stage carpentry.

VILLADSEN ADDRESSES ROTARIANS AT GANGES

FIRST PHASE OF COMPLEX LOOMS INTO SIGHT

Recreation complex at Central, on Salt Spring Island, will be started this year.

First project for the new centre is a soccer pitch.

Aage Villadsen, former president of Salt Spring Lions Club and author of the recreation complex, explained his club's plans to Salt Spring Rotary Club last week.

He spoke of the progress made so far and expressed the warm gratitude of the Lions Club and the community for the support given by Rotarians.

The Rotary Club has given the major part of the proceeds from its annual Grey Cup Luncheon to the recreation project.

Mr. Villadsen explained that the first projects will be the soccer field, parking area, club house and toilet facilities and two tennis courts.

He also reported on the generosity of island people in providing services for the centre. Allan Hardie had offered his services in the preparation of a topographical map of the property, said Villadsen. Only provision was that the Lions Club would pay the crew. When the crew learned of the arrangement they promptly donated their time, said the Lions speaker.

Mike Clement laid out the plan of the property and made no charge for his services.

The project will provide a quarter-mile track with the soccer field in the middle. There will be space for baseball, both major and minor. Also in the plan is a swimming pool, skating rink and curling rink.

Including club house and toilet lets the projects will have cost $66,700, said the speaker.

The Lions are applying for recreation grants from the province and from Ottawa.

The Lions Club has paid off $13,000 so far, Rotarians were told, and there is still $4,000 in hand. In donations of labour, contractors are offering another $3,000 and supervisor of the ground work will contribute another $3,000 in wages. When the provincial government pays for the Lions ambulances on Salt Spring Island there will be another $6,000 in the kitty and the Lions will build the club house, representing another $2,100 in donated labour.

All these things have to be added up, explained the sponsor of the complex, in order to match government grants.

The club has asked for an LIP grant amount to $18,932. In the meantime the Lions have a basic monthly cost of $300 to raise to meet interest charges. Lions Bingo meets a substantial part of this cost.

"Before we hand this project over to the community for a referendum," explained Aage Villadsen, "it will help to have something already done."

If the community should decide that it does not want to build a sports complex, there will be a sports field and facilities already in use, he added.

Biggest cost is the skating rink, he explained.

The Lions Club is planning to present the community with the sports field and limited facilities. If the rink and swimming pool are to be provided, they will be undertaken as a community project and financed out of taxes.

The speaker had some information on that aspect of the project.

Cost of these facilities have been estimated at somewhere between a million and a million and a half, he explained. That was the picture when the community of Osoyoos looked for a rink. The community supported a referendum for $350,000 and then found no contractor would look at it.

Sponsors of the rink in the Okanagan community decided to go it alone.

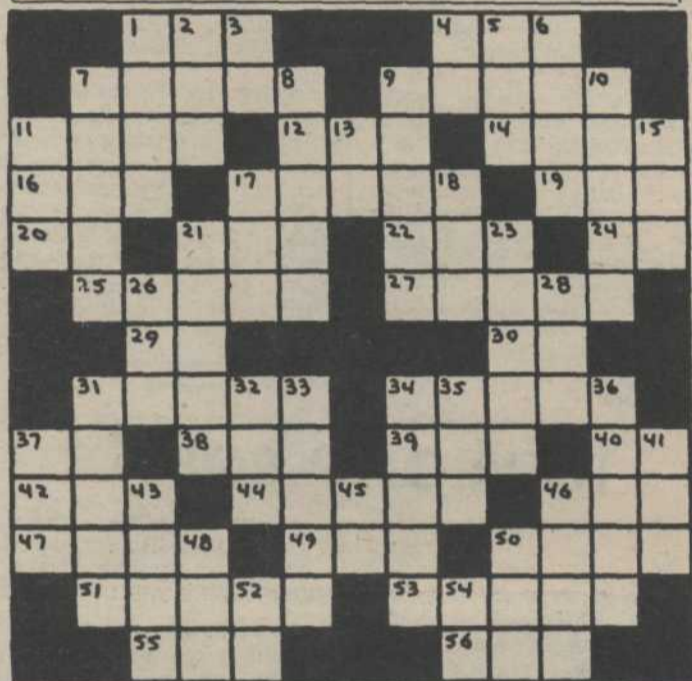

They acquired steel buildings which may be erected without further recourse to an engineer. They purchased an ice plant which had been removed from a rink where a larger machine was needed. The community hired its own steel erectors and local plumbers under took the extensive pipeline work.

Osoyoos got its rink for the price it could afford to pay, explained Villadsen. "If a community really wants to do something about it it can," he concluded.

It is gratifying to find that there are still people who will do something for free, commented Charles Baltzer.

WEAVERS AND POTTERS PLAN

Checking out the new loom are, left to right, Josie Utley, Lilian Beauchemin, Instructor Kathy Dickerson, Jessie Peck with the instructor's young son and Isobel Merston who is threading wool.

Salt Spring Island Weavers Guild has appointed Josephine Utley as co-convenor of the exhibition and sale on November 9 and 10. Weavers and the Salt Spring Potters Guild are conducting the display at Mahon Hall, Saturday and Sunday, November 9 and 10.

Mrs. Utley joins Jesse Peck, Katie Schlegl and Maggie Schubart making arrangements for this pre-Christmas event, which will be open from 10 am to 4 pm each day.

The weavers have recently purchased a new four-harness floor loom and, co-incident with its arrival, have participated in a workshop with Kathy Dickerson of Victoria whose creative approach to her craft has attracted international acclaim. Some items emerging from this workshop will be available at the November sale.

Three members of the Potters Guild have now built their own kilns for high-fire stoneware, and pots from these kilns as well as from the numerous electric kilns already in use on the island, will round out the offerings on view.

SINISTER MAN WHO SHAVED

A sinister man is one who shaves off his moustache. Trustee Nonie Guthrie told her colleagues on the Gulf Islands School Board last week that she had met an old acquaintance during an education workshop. That acquaintance no longer sported his moustache. "He used to be a very swinging fellow," she commented. "But now it looks like he's been sucked into something... it looks sinister."

MODERNISE WITH PROPANE

BY BUNNY JORDAN

The shores of Salt Spring Island appeared on the horizon were a welcome sight to one who had been absent now, for seven weeks. Those seven weeks included many adventures and visits to eight different European countries and the struggles with as many currencies.

Many relatives of Mrs. R. A. Jordan were visited, as she and her sister, Mrs. G. R. McKay, of North Vancouver, journeyed through England.

Rural England remains somewhat unruffled as it busily, but quietly, continues to go about its business in much the same way as it has down through the years. Quaint old homes dating back to the early 1500's, somewhat up-dated, offered warm hospitality as the Canadian visitors journeyed through Lincolnshire and Yorkshire.

Leaving England for the Continent, a tour group was joined and history came alive as various centres were visited and side trips taken.

Local culture became part of this holiday when Austrian folk groups entertained and Italian musicians fascinated the visitors in their traditional fashion.

From mountain tops in Switzerland to drifting along the canals in the Venetian gondolas, the fascinating beauty of the old world unfolded. The old buildings of many centuries holding their own amid 20th century construction of the modern day with a lighter side of entertainment offered when night life of Gay Paris startled some of the group.

Variety, the trip did offer and many vivid recollections of sights seen will linger for a long time.

As vital as holidays are, familiar terrain and environments are a welcome sight as bulging suitcases are hauled ashore to be emptied and stored for a long period. Where is there that really compares with home?

Good news from Autoplan: Victoria* car insurance rates stay the lowest in B.C.

In these days of sky-rocketing prices, anything that costs the same as last year is a real bargain and that is certainly true of Victoria Autoplan rates.

In spite of soaring accident claim costs and increasing insurance premiums elsewhere in North America, Autoplan rates in Victoria will stay at their present low levels through 1975. Some Victoria owners of commercial and recreational vehicles will even pay less.

Autoplan car insurance rates will continue to be lower in Victoria than in other parts of B.C. even after the new Territorial Equalization Discounts are applied.

There will be a twenty per cent discount on insurance premiums for heavy trucks, commercial and recreational vehicles in Victoria as well as in other B.C. areas.

But Autoplan rates cannot stay at their present low levels if accident claims continue to increase. So drive safely and protect your pocketbook as well as your life.

Official proportion varies

There is a lack of correlation between provincial government officials.

Secretary-Treasurer Wilfred Peck told trustees of Gulf Islands School District last week that the department of education bases its construction calculations on the provision of one teacher for every 35 students.

The same department allows one teacher for every 25 students when it considers teaching staff needs.

The department is now discussing the use of teachers without additional classrooms, Mrs. Nonie Guthrie explained.

Gordon George Wallace, manager, - nominated by William Martin and David Auchterlonie.

GALIANO

Stephen S. Riddell, postmaster, - nominated by Jean Lockwood and Margaret Robson

Ann Elizabeth Steward, retired, - nominated by Hart Scarrow and Edwin Bambrick.

Ronald Thompson, retired, - nominated by Jean Lockwood and Edwin Bambrick.

Returning Officer D. A. Young has called an election for November 16 on all the islands.

Deputy returning officer is Wilfred Peck, secretary-treasurer of Gulf Islands School District.

Voting will be in Mayne Island School, Gulf Islands School District board office at Ganges, Central Community Hall, Nan's Coffee Shop at Fulford; Saturna Island Community Hall, Bedwell Harbour Resort at South Pender, Pender elementary school and Galiano elementary school.

TEACHERS ASK FOR LOCAL COMMITTEE

Gulf Islands School District will negotiate teachers' salaries in the islands through the British Columbia School Trustees' Association. This centralized system of negotiation has been adopted by majority of school districts in the province. It has been resisted by most teachers in the province.

Last week a strong delegation of more than 20 teachers attended the meeting of the Gulf Islands School Board and protested the decision of the trustees.

Teachers' salaries are established, year-by-year, after negotiations with the school districts. In past years the school board has appointed its own negotiating committee and its representatives to the final arbitration discussions.

The delegation from Gulf Islands Teachers' Association called on trustees to reconsider the decision to negotiate through the association and to return to the local bargaining table.

Speaking to the resolution were Tom Wright, chairman of the association's negotiating committee, and Ted Harrison, president of the teachers' association.

Resolution presented to the school board reads as follows:

As the spokesman for the Gulf Islands Teachers Association, I am here today to formally express, on behalf of all the teachers, our concern and frustration over the lack of negotiations with respect to the 1975 salary agreement.

We feel, as you must, that the Gulf Islands School District is unique. Our concerns can best be resolved by people who are familiar with the local situation and who in fact are elected to resolve problems as they arise.

We are surprised and disappointed that you, as elected officials, would choose to surrender what must be one of your major responsibilities, that of salary negotiations, to a distant body with no immediate concern for this area.

We therefore hope that this board will take advantage of the government appointed conciliator, and either begin local negotiations or instruct the board's agent to do so without delay.

"We feel we would like local negotiations," explained Mr. Wright. "The local contract should be talked about between teachers and their employers."

The board, he stated, has, in effect, given away its bargaining rights.

TRUST IS DEBATED AT MAYNE

Hugh Curtis, MLA, was on Mayne Island last week. He came to discuss island problems and to attend a meeting in the island hall.

There was no set agenda and the discussion was informal.

Assessments and property taxation were the main topics, with emphasis on the greatly increased taxes experienced on Mayne and other islands.

Islands Trust and the relationship between general and local trustees was also discussed at length, as well as its working with the Regional District.

It was felt, suggested Curtis that the islands are now somewhat "overgoverned".

ISLANDERS RIDE TO VICTORY

Salt Spring Island is making a name in a new sport in the province. More and more islanders are engaging in motorcycle racing and sports events.

With Norman Twa taking fifth place in the British Columbia championships at Agassiz recently, he is becoming a well-known provincial rider. He was riding his 250 cc Yamaha.

Norman Twa has provided a practice course on his Blackburn Road property for motorcycle enthusiasts.

Number of other Salt Spring riders have brought home trophies this season. Don Irwin won second place in the Mission Old-timers' race this summer and Ron Spencer took first place in the United Appeal race on October 13.

Youngest island rider to come into the front ranks is Billie Anderson who gained third place in the first race he

Referendum for recreation

* * * GLENN WOODLEY EXPLAINS NEEDS

Salt Spring Island Recreation Commission will ask voters on November 16 to support a further half-mill levy for recreation on Salt Spring.

Glenn Woodley, chairman of the maintenance and field development committee has prepared an outline of the Commission's reasons for asking for the additional tax levy. This is his summary of the referendum and its reasons.

Salt Spring Island Recreation Commission has been active in developing and maintaining recreational areas over the last three years, since receiving a half-mill vote of confidence from the people of the island.

We have aided Centennial, Arnell, and Drummond Park Committees financially to maintain and improve these areas for public use.

We have also used the half-mill to develop a playing field at Fulford and a Little League - Softball park in Ganges. The Fulford Park was built with the aid of a L.I.P. grant, while the Little League Park received a grant from the Community Fund Facilities Act through the provincial government.

Much of the time and labour however, in building and maintaining these areas has been accomplished through volunteer labour from the many good people of Salt Spring Island.

However, with so many areas to maintain, this job is becoming too large for volunteer help and there is a need for the Commission to hire a person who can devote the time and energy to maintain and improve the recreational areas on the island.

With the added half-mill the Recreation Commission hopes to take over maintenance of all present recreational areas and by so doing, to centralize equipment and effort so that areas will not only be maintained but improved. Moreover the people who are coaching or organizing events will not have to cut grass and line fields, but freed from these tasks, will be able to develop more recreational programs for the people of the island.

The Salt Spring Island Recreation Commission strongly urges you to support us in this venture on November 16.

ANNUAL BAZAAR

Galiano Ladies Service Club will hold their annual Bazaar on Saturday, November 23; all members are busily preparing for this annual event.

CHRISTMAS SHIP SCHEDULE

Christmas Ship will come again to the Gulf Islands this year from Bellingham. It is the 24th year that the international goodwill vessel has come to the Gulf Islands. The ship is sponsored by the Bellingham Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Christmas Ship will arrive at Ganges on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 14, at about five o'clock.

The ship will stay overnight at Ganges and the crew has booked in to the Ship's Anchor Inn.

After a Christmas party for island youngsters, the crew will be entertained on the island before retiring early in order to sail to Galiano.

It will dock at Montague Harbour at 8.40 am.

At 9.30 the Christmas Ship leaves Galiano to arrive at Mayne from 10 am to 11; thence to Pender from 11.30 until 12 noon and at Saturna at 12.35 until 1 pm.

The ship then returns to United States waters.

DIVISION 2

Salt Spring Orange, 0; Cowichan Comets, 7.
Assistant coach, Gary Hartwig, summed this game up as he said, "Am I glad I was on the injury list for this one". Whether he was referring to the score or to the awesome opponents, one cannot be too sure. Right from the start of the game the Orange had two set-backs, one that their first string goalie was not present and the other being the size and age of the 'red giants' playing against them.

A combination of these two problems enabled the Comets to score five goals before the half, as the Salt Spring players seemed afraid to tackle the much bigger opponents and consequently they were given complete freedom of mobility on the field.

The second half saw a much improved performance from the Salt Spring boys when they decided to become involved in the game. Even though the Comets came up with two more goals, the Orange defence tightened up and the forwards finally got into the game.

On the whole, Salt Spring's performance was disappointing as many times their positional play and passing was very poor. Their lack of hustle and weak tackling also aided the opponent's cause. But in defence of the boys, one must remember that the opponents were two years older and their size and speed gave them a great advantage over the Salt Spring boys.

For instance, whenever a Salt Spring boy and one of the opponents clashed for a loose ball the Salt Spring boy would be sent sprawling, due to the weight and height difference (at least four of the Comets were well over six feet tall). All the same, the boys put on a determined effort in the second half, with the play of Wayne Reynolds, Mike Rozzano and Neil Anderson standing out.

The boys get another shot at victory next week when they play at home against the Cowichan Invaders (another older team) but with hard work and lots of hustle they can improve their score. And don't worry Gary, you get your chance next week!

DIVISION 6

Saturday, Oct. 26, at home for the first time this season, gave another victory to our Salt Spring boys. A very decided 3-1 victory.

The Ladysmith 11 played hard and showed decided improvement over a former encounter, but lacked finesse around the target.

Scores by Salt Spring were by Collin McLean, Carlo Legg, and Derick Lloyd-Walters.

DIVISION 9

Salt Spring vs Hotspurs Final score of 0-0 indicated fairly well how evenly matched these two teams were.

Salt Spring had the most advantages in the first half but were unable to score on the Hotspurs fine young goalie. We tired a little moving through the second half and some very good saves by Jackie Andrews kept us in the game

Some of our first-year boys are showing great improvement, Timothy Duke, Tony and Peter are coming along - they are helped with the consistent play of Sean, Bradley, Graham and Allan. Sunday's game, which was cancelled due to weather, will be rescheduled and parents will be advised, next game here on November 3 at 11:15 unless advised otherwise.

SUDDEN DEATH OF STAN DUNCAN

Stanley James Duncan died suddenly on October 20. Friends all over the Gulf Islands were saddened to learn of his death at his home in Brentwood Bay. He was born in Vancouver in 1931.

Islanders will remember him for his work with B. C. Telephone Company and his smile and help with troubles on the telephone lines.

He and his family moved from Salt Spring Island two years ago, to live in Victoria.

He leaves his wife, Beverly Joan; two sons, Gary and Brian, two daughters, Debra and Gail all at home and two brothers on the mainland.

Memorial service was held on October 24 in Victoria.

GOOD LUCK, BOB

Soccer and Roller Hockey's popular coach and referee Bob Anderson suffered serious injuries from a falling tree Saturday. The word is he'll be OK and his many proteges wish him a successful and speedy recovery.

? Inquest ?

BY PASTOR DAVID G. LOW

There are many theories that have bombarded the authenticity and the relevancy of the word of God. In our society they run in order from evolution then modernism to communism, and now its humanism.

Humanism has invaded even the churches and centers on the social aspects of the Gospel. I will now quote an article from a church magazine called Prayer Line. "The job of the church is not so much to christianize other people, but to help them within their framework of understanding-- that of social reform." Social reform is useless without the reality of the Bible and its main figure, Jesus Christ, giving mankind a new lease on life in the here and now and in life after death.

Humanism is also the basis of the modern woman's liberation movement, new abortion laws, new criminal laws, new marriage and divorce laws, and the new morality, which is nothing more than the old immorality.

Humanism is a rebellion of all previous standards. You do what is right in your own eyes, and if the laws are against you you change the laws. This means that you have to disregard the Bible, because the moral laws and the message of Christ will never change.

Humanism is a scourge to the home today. Where individuals only do the things that benefit them, without considering others and without a basic standard to follow, then you have a society, along with the homes, in chaos.

Please address any questions or comments on this, or any other subject to Inquest, c/o Box 250, Ganges, B.C.

SHEILA FRASER TO SEEK THIRD TERM

One incumbent trustee will seek a further term on the Gulf Islands School District. She is Mrs. Sheila Fraser.

Explaining her decision to run again, Mrs. Fraser said that she and her family have lived on Salt Spring Island for 11 years. Her husband is Capt. Donald Fraser, skipper of the Sechart Queen.

She is a veteran of four years on the school board. She is also a veteran of four years as chairman of the education committee. She is also serving at the present time on the finance committee.

"I have served on ad hoc committees dealing with specifics in education concerns," she said on Tuesday. "I am a director on the Laboratory for Educational Advancement, Research and Needs."

LEARN deals with the problems of the teacher in the classroom at the grass roots level, she added as explanation.

The candidate was educated in England and Canada and she served in the Royal Canadian Women's Naval Service.

Her two daughters have graduated from the Gulf Islands Secondary School. One is now in her third year of nursing and the other in her second year at the university of Victoria.

"I feel that a trustee and the board have a definite obligation and responsibility to work in the best interests of all the students and taxpayers, as a whole, and not just the factions of a few," she told Driftwood. "In other words, the best possible solution for all concerned."

Because of her experience on the board she feels that she is capable of representing the community in the next two years, she concluded.

JACQUES BREL IS ALIVE AND WELL - RIGHT HERE !

The Western Canada Theatre Company, based in Kamloops, is a repertory group, currently touring the province with its production of "Jacques Brel Is Alive And Well And Living In Paris".

Directed by Tom Kerr, with musical direction by the young and immensely talented Rick Fox, "Brel" provides an evening of rare and extraordinary pleasure on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 8 and 9.

The revue is a collection of songs by the Belgian poet-singer, Jacques Brel, who is, just as the title allows, alive, and well, and in Paris.

The songs adhere to no one plot and make no single statement. They give life to humour, gaiety, sarcasm, understanding and sometimes bitterness.

Brel writes on a wide range of topics from the ambitions of the young, to love turned sour, to the plight of old sailors. Wherever "Brel" has been performed, it has been widely and lovingly acclaimed. It holds the distinction of being the longest-running show ever in Vancouver, playing for over seven months at the Arts Club.

Indeed, the show may have one of the longer titles of the year, but it can be summed

SATURNA SCENE by Papajohn

Now for some good news to start off with. On November 9 our Fire Department plans on having a Pig Barbecue in the hall. Refreshments at about 4.30 or 5 o'clock and dinner at 6 pm. This time some of the Women's Club will bless the porker and in this way by their fair hands touching ye pig it should, if possible, be really tasty. The pig to be barbecued has been fed all the most delicious morsels so that it should be very very succulent. Get your tickets early and be sure of a Saturnalia.

Re the Island Trust candidates. We will have three from Saturna at this date. They are James E. Money, sponsored by John MacDonald and Tom Davidson; Barry D. Crooks, sponsored by Bill Lawson and John McMahon and Bill Sheffield, sponsored by Pat Neumann and Jean Morgan. Any further candidates will be announced in Driftwood.

Some more HAPPY news: Johnny Gaines is, of last week the proud father of a baby girl 7 and 1/2 pounds. Melanie and baby are doing fine. When it comes to gains Saturna is right in there.

The Lions Lyre: Guests at last Tuesday's meeting were Frederick (Benny) Begon, an old friend of Rev. J. Dangerfield from Winnipeg; Harry Goodman, Les Ginter and Allan Everett Kerr. Ladies night was set for November 30, much more later. John Silvester, with Neville Bouch, will be the organizers. The ladies who provided the luscious dinner they had prepared last Tuesday were Jan Crooks and Terry Siemans. On November 12, our District Governor will be present so keep that date in mind. Les Crosby, our attendance chairman, came up with a goodly group of ideas, some of which we will adopt. Walter Bavis asked for a vote of thanks to Neville Bouch for the good work he had done on our last gourmet feed in the hall. I voted against because Neville is the Tail Twister (now why did I put capital letters on tail twister) and he had just fined me for nothing, absolutely nothing. After all that, Uncle Art gave his usual vehement motion to adjourn.

The sad news is good. Mrs. A. Olsen is home from Lady Minto, wee Cory Bosser has found out that a cast is a sure way of getting away with whatever his active mind can conjure.

FERNWOOD

BY JESSIE SAYER

Mrs. W. Petapiece, of North Beach Road is at home after enjoying a trip to Prince George to visit her sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thornton and Keith and Helen Scott of Grand Prairie. The weather was good and the trip up on the railway enjoyable and scenic.

A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Wallace in honour of W. Anderson's birthday. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. G. Code, Mrs. Dot Waddell and Eddie and Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Griffin. The Andersons formerly lived on Walker Hook Road but now reside in Duncan and are enjoying many activities.

John Helme and Betty Fennell recently returned home from a wonderful trip to Mexico and Baja, Calif. They travelled by camper and were met by friends Ann and Neil Ingram who had flown from Hawaii. They travelled through much desert country and saw many types of lovely cactus.

On the new Baja highway a number of cows and horses are killed by trucks as they come to the highway for warmth at night.

The villages are usually built around an oasis and were beautiful. John and Betty boarded the ferry from LaPaz to Matzalan, where they enjoyed three days. They drove home by the scenic coastal highway leaving their friends in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hazenboom spent a week with them in Fernwood as well as John's daughter, Jayne.

The Sayers spent a busy but brief visit to New Westminster where they attended a combination birthday and retirement party for brother, Al Aitcheson of Surrey. There were almost 200 relations and friends who joined in the evening with good food, music and dancing and a presentation to Al. The party was the inspiration of Al's son Jim and wife, Sandy and daughter, Marilyn and her husband, Bob Graham.

GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB CLUBHOUSE NOTES

BY PAT DOHERTY

We are glad to report that play in the No. 1 competitions got under way again this week, so all challengers should keep their eyes on the list to find out when they are on the firing line. In the mixed No. 1 Irene Hawksworth and Gordon Hutton successfully held off the challengers Jean Jefferies and Dave Nisbet.

It was a very close game with the holders winning two up.

In the men's No. 1 it was even closer. In a fiercely contested match Pat Harrison and Gordon Kennedy succeeded in dethroning Al Whorley and Jack Fraser, the challengers winning one-up. The fact that two well-known, excellent players who were playing just ahead of them forgot to replace the flag on No. 9 green when they were through with it had nothing to do with the outcome of the match.

In another game played last week, the foursome of Mac Mouat, Carl Simpson, Chuck Harrison, and Gordon Hutton, recorded three birdies and a par on No. 1 hole and three birdies and a par on No. 2 hole. This has got to be some kind of a record... for this course, anyway!

Irene Hawksworth has solved the high cost of living. What she does is play Fred Gurney for steak dinners for four. Twice this year she has pulled off this stunt. Last week Fred was one-up after the first nine, and was drooling as he stood on the 10th tee with thought of thick juicy "T Bones" dancing in his head. However Irene shot a sizzling 39 at him on the back nine, and Fred was digging into his pocket instead of into a free steak dinner. Incidentally Irene's 39 was the lowest score for a woman this year.

A very successful Awards Night Dinner was held at the Club House on Saturday, Oct. 26, preceded by a mixed two-ball competition in the afternoon.

The weatherman co-operated to the extent that it did not start raining till after the dinner, and we had a good turnout for the golf in the afternoon.

In all, 34 players teed off, there was a shortage of ladies, and as a result our illustrious president had to play with the left-over men. Because it was the final two-ball of the season we gave out prizes of golf balls to 14 of the 34 players. Also, later at the dinner, we drew for six more prize winners, from the names of those that participated in the weekly two-ball competitions.

After these prizes were awarded the ladies took over and gave out the trophies and prizes that were won in their competitions during the year.

Next the two Junior Champions were honoured with individual trophies, and in turn the Juniors presented gifts to Rita Dods and Dave Nisbet for help during the year, but most of the thanks for the Juniors having a successful year, must go to Ada Woodley for her fine efforts.

Next we get to the president of the club, Malcolm Robertson who gave out the trophies and prizes for the men's competitions and he did his usual reliable job with all the aplomb of an educated Oatmeal Savage. As usual in these situations, if we started to name all the prize winners and the people who contributed time and effort to make the evening successful, we would need far more space than we have, but we would like to thank everybody that attended the evening, those that participated in the competitions, Rita Dods and her staff for the supper, the Club Captains and their committees for the selection of prizes, the president for keeping things running smoothly, and last but not least Robert Gall and his bar committee.

Although we cannot possibly mention all the winners, we do feel that special mention should be made of Joy Tuckey who absconded with the Brooks Kennedy, and Bank of Commerce Cups. Joy is a perfect example of how practice is the name of the game. However, even Joy may cut back on her practising next year, because she had so much trouble balancing three cups for the photographer that if she had won four, she would have to have held the fourth one in her teeth.

The ladies will be sponsoring a Wine and Cheese Party on November 30, with a Klondyke Night to follow. So please make your reservations early to avoid disappointment. All proceeds go towards new club equipment and facilities.

CONTAINER
OFFICIALLY INCREASED

Beginning November 1st, new regulations under the Litter Act go into effect... requiring that all retailers provide the new, higher refunds on carbonated beverage bottles and cans. For containers 16 ounces in size or less, the refund will be increased to 5¢ per container... for containers more than 16 ounces but less than 40 ounces, the refund will be 10¢ for each container. However, the refunds do not apply to the metal containers which include "zip top" or other devices which are detached in opening the tin.

"ZIP-TOP" METAL CONTAINERS ARE GOING OUT

Until the end of 1974, "zip-top" metal beverage containers will continue to be refundable at the rate of 2¢ per container. But as of January 1, 1975, the sale of beverages in such containers will not be allowed. The term "beverages" includes beer, ale, cider, carbonated beverages or drinks. Wholesalers may distribute such beverages in "zip-top" metal containers to retailers only until November 1st... and retailers may sell this stock only until the end of this year. These amendments to the Litter Act are aimed at ensuring a fuller recycling of beverage containers sold in British Columbia... and reducing the amount of litter in our province. LIONS CELEBRATE 15th YEAR OF ACTIVITY ON SALT SPRING ISLAND

Salt Spring Island Lions Club marked its 15th birthday on Friday evening.

To celebrate the 15 years of its operation, at the Charter Night dinner in Fulford Hall the club had a birthday cake on which the candles were lit by the charter members present, Desmond Crofton, Denis Abolit, Bill Trelford, Colin Mouat and Wayne Bradley. The five are seen supervising the lighting operation. Denis Abolit also received a pin marking his 15 years of 100% attendance.

Helping the island club to mark its anniversary were District Governor Chuck Mowbray of Victoria and Past District Governor Gordon Smith. Mr. Smith recalled incidents of the presentation of the club's charter and of many incidents since.

Presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Smith by Aage Villadsen, who served as president last year.

BY MARY BACKLUND
One morning last week, the Saturna Island young people got up earlier than usual, and came over on the early, early ferry to play soccer and baseball with the Galiano school children. Even though the score was in favor of Galiano, the adults who attended said that Saturna played very well, and worked hard. Those who scored for Galiano were Brent Hacking, and the Crocker girls, Connie, Ann, Violet and Lois. After the soccer game, they played baseball for a little while until ferry time.

Bingo games are now being held at Galiano Hall, every third Saturday in the month, sponsored by Galiano Club. At a recent meeting, the new tables were much admired, - they have been finished by Arthur Platt and Norman Park.

A dance will be held at the hall on November 23, with the "Redwing" orchestra from Victoria. Popular band boasts "the sound of real bluegrass".

Galiano Lions held a special meeting last week, to welcome District Governor Chuck Mowbray, and District Cabinet Secretary, Clem Such, both from Victoria.

The "Lucky Leo" lottery tickets being sold by Lions members are to raise money for an Easter Seal house, for parents of children who are ill, and who need a place to stay when they come a long way to visit them. Sounds like the old Red Cross House at Shaughnessy, now being used for something else, where relatives of those who were in hospital could stay for a little while when they came from out-of-town.

On Saturday night, October 26, Galiano Lodge was decorated for a special dinner and dance, a pre-Hallowe-en affair. Turkey dinner was enjoyed and then dancing to lively records for the remainder of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Stevens, who are regular commuters to the Island from the mainland, have just come back from an exciting trip to the Orient. Mr. Stevens is with Okanagan Helicopters, and he was accompanied by his wife for several weeks touring in the east. They enjoyed Singapore, and soon found the luxury of a maid every day to be nice. Their descriptions of the food, and the warmth of the people was like being there.

BOWLERS OF THE WEEK

Bowlers of the week at Leisure Lanes are Ruth Bedford, with 193, 239 and 334 for 766 and Lloyd Martin, whose 303, 285 and 182 totalled 720.

Last week's listing has been corrected. Geordy Webster had 226, 201 and 315, making 742, and should have been men's bowler of the week.

Notable scores this week include: Stan Sage, 217, 254 and 230; 701; Geordy Webster, 240, 212 and 256 for 708; Joyce Hartwig, 251, 240 and 240 for 731; Connie Hardy, 268, 208 and 227 made 703 and Bunty McNally, whose 226, 260 and 225 added up to 711.
